SCOTTISH OFFICE, WHITEHALL,
July 5, 1897.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulations to the Queen on the occasion of Her Majesty attaining the Sixtieth Year of Her Reign, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

Unto the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the School Board of Edinburgh.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chairman and Members of the School Board of Edinburgh, desire most respectfully to approach Your Majesty with the expression of our warm attachment to Your Majesty's Person and Throne.

We desire to tender Your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on Your Majesty having attained the Sixtieth Year of Your Most Gracious and Illustrious Reign, and to record our very grateful sense of the blessings thereby conferred on the Nation.

During the long period of Your Majesty's rule over this great Empire, the country has experienced unexampled progress and prosperity in every department of the State, both foreign and domestic. The bounds of the Empire have been widely extended, and its wealth increased. The general welfare of the community and the comforts of life have advanced, especially among the industrial classes of your people, in a manner hitherto unequalled.

We cannot doubt that these benefits are in a large degree due to the wise, enlightened, and beneficent rule which Your Majesty has exercised.

In no respect has the improvement of the country been more marked than in the department of Education. During many generations Scotland has enjoyed a national system of Education which has done much to elevate and influence the character of the people, and the useful and generous legislation enacted by Your Majesty with the advice of Parliament during recent years has adapted the former provision to the growth of the population, and has extended the means of acquiring instruction to every child.

Intrusted with the administration of public education in the City of Edinburgh, we have the best means of ascertaining the advancement which has been made in all departments of Education, and we rejoice to assure Your Majesty that the advantages predicted as the result of recent statutes have been fully realised.

That the blessing of Almighty God may rest upon Your Majesty and on every member of Your Majesty's family, and that your valuable life may be prolonged for the continued welfare and happiness of Your people will ever be the sincere and constant prayer of

Your Majesty's most loyal and humble servants
the School Board of Edinburgh.

By authority of the Board.

COLIN G. MACRAE,
Chairman.
JAS. ARNOT,
Clerk.

June 1897.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Perth, and as representing the community thereof, beg most respectfully to offer to Your Majesty our heartiest congratulations on the completion of the sixtieth year of Your Majesty's Reign, and to assure Your Majesty of the continued loyalty and devotion of the citizens of Perth.

Under Your Majesty's Reign, which has exceeded in length that of any other British Sovereign, all the elements of national greatness have been developed to an unexampled extent throughout Your Majesty's dominions.

We rejoice to see the cordiality and unanimity with which a happy and contented people are spontaneously expressing their gratitude and thankfulness on this Jubilee occasion, and the affectionate spirit which animates Your Majesty's subjects in every quarter of the globe, eager to testify their devoted attachment to the throne and person of their beloved Queen.

Your Majesty's subjects regard with admiration the manner in which Your Majesty has fulfilled Your duties in every position of life, and the noble example which Your Majesty has placed before Your subjects in faithfully discharging every domestic duty and exhibiting every domestic virtue.

We pray that Your Majesty may yet be long spared to reign over Your great empire, enthroned in the affections of Your people, and sustained by Almighty power in the discharge of every duty.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council, and the seal of the City affixed hereto at Perth, the seventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

L. S.

JOHN A. DEWAR,
Lord Provost of the City of Perth.

In common with all your people, we desire to recognise how great is the debt of gratitude we owe to Your Majesty's wise rule, and to the personal example of Your Majesty.

We humbly pray that Your Majesty may long be spared to rule over the kingdom in health and happiness, and in the assurance of the loyalty and love of Your people.
