SCOTTISH OFFICE, WHITEHALL,

July 15, 1897.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of Her Majesty attaining the Sixtieth Year of Her Reign, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, the County Council of the County of Argyll, desire to approach Your Majesty with the expression of our feelings of profound loyalty and attachment to Your Majesty's Throne and Person, and humbly beg to offer to Your Majesty our dutiful and heartfelt congratulations upon the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's eventful Reign.

We heartily rejoice, in common with all Your Majesty's subjects, in the happy celebration of the longest and most glorious reign in British history, and we pray that the continued blessing of the Almighty may rest upon Your Majesty and the nations over whom Your beneficent rule extends.

Signed and sealed by order and on behalf of the County Council,

MALCOLM OF POLTALLOCH,
Convener.

Unto the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, the Royal, Parliamentary, and Police Burghs of Scotland, assembled in Convention, in virtue of their Royal and Ancient privileges, humbly approach Your Majesty to express their heartfelt congratulations upon the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your most auspicious Reign over the United Kingdom, with its vast Dependencies and Colonial Possessions.

At no time in the history of this country has the progress of the nation, in respect to all that pertains to the welfare and happiness of the people, been so great or so manifest as during Your Majesty's Glorious Reign.

The Burghs of Scotland represent in a large degree the commercial interests of that country, and they rejoice in the prosperity which they and all classes of Your Majesty's subjects have enjoyed under Your Majesty's wise and beneficent Reign.

The Burghs of Scotland humbly assure Your Majesty of their unfeigned loyalty and devotion to Your Majesty's Throne, and they earnestly pray that the Almighty may long direct Your Royal hand in the ruling of this great Empire.

And it is the earnest prayer that the "Giver of all good" may prolong Your Reign, and may protect, uphold, and preserve Your Majesty for many years to come to be honoured by a loving, loyal, and prosperous people.

Signed and sealed at Edinburgh this fourteenth day of June eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, on behalf and by authority of the Convention, by

A. McDONALD,
Lord Provost of Edinburgh,
Præses of the Convention.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Members of the School Board of Glasgow, desire to express to Your Majesty our hearty congratulations on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Reign.

We unite with all our fellow-subjects in cordial acknowledgment of the progress in literature, science, and art, and of the commercial and industrial prosperity which have in so rich a measure characterised Your Majesty's Reign, and our experience in educational affairs lead us to recognise specially the remarkable advance made in the effective organisation of education.

The direct interest of the State in education is practically contemporary with Your Majesty's Reign, and the measures taken to provide efficient instruction for every child in the Kingdom will form not the least memorable feature in the history of the last sixty years.

We believe that nothing has done more to increase the comfort and happiness of Your Majesty's subjects, and we are deeply sensible that in education, as in everything else which would advance the national welfare, Your Majesty has always evinced a warm interest.

That Your Gracious Majesty may be spared for many years to come to rule over a loyal and prosperous people is our united and earnest prayer.

JOHN NEILSON CUTHBERTSON,
Chairman.

At Edinburgh, the twenty-fourth day of June Eighteen hundred and ninety-seven years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 8, to found new Professorships where such course seems desirable, and where there are sufficient means for their endowment or support either from the funds administered by the Commissioners or otherwise, and to determine in what authority the Patronage of such Professorships shall be vested:

And whereas by Will dated the twenty-eighth day of July Eighteen hundred and eighty-eight years, and codicil thereto dated the twenty-seventh day of November Eighteen hundred and ninety-three years, the late Alexander Low Bruce, Esquire, bequeathed to the University of Edinburgh the sum of Five Thousand Pounds for the purpose of assisting to endow a Chair of Public Health in the said University "in acknowledgment of Pasteur's investigations": And whereas the University Court of the University of Edinburgh has received donations, in supplement of the said bequest, from Mrs. Livingstone Bruce, John Usher, Esquire, of Norton, and others, amounting to more than Ten Thousand Pounds, and there is thus a sum of upwards of Fifteen Thousand Pounds available for the Endowment of the said Chair:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with reference to the University of Edinburgh, as follows:—

I. There shall be a Professorship of Public Health and Sanitary Science in the University of Edinburgh (to be called the Bruce and John Usher Chair of Public Health), and the Professor shall be a Professor in the Faculties of Medicine and of Science in the said University.

II. There shall be paid to the said Professor the annual free income of the said endowment, together with such sum out of the income of the General University Fund as may be necessary to bring up his annual salary to the sum of £600, provided always that it shall be in the power of the University Court to increase the salary of the said Professor out of the General University Fund.

III. The fees of the students attending the classes of the said Professor shall be drawn by the University Court, and shall be paid into the Fee Fund and the provisions of Section IV. of Ordinance No. 27 [Edinburgh, No. 6.—Regulations as to Application of Parliamentary Grants, as to Salaries, and for the Institution of a Fee Fund, and for other purposes], shall be deemed to apply thereto.

IV. The University Court shall from time to time define the duties of the Professor, as in the case of other Professors in the University.

V. The Patronage of the said Professorship, and right of presenting or appointing the Professor, shall be vested in, and exercised by, the University Court of the University of Edinburgh.

VI. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.
