UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.

52 & 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 169.

[EDINBURGH, No. 28.—FOUNDATION OF CHAIR OF PUBLIC HEALTH.]

At Edinburgh, the twenty-fourth day of June Eighteen hundred and ninety-seven years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 8, to found new Professorships where such course seems desirable, and where there are sufficient means for their endowment or support either from the funds administered by the Commissioners or otherwise, and to determine in what authority the Patronage of such Professorships shall be vested:

And whereas by Will dated the twenty-eighth day of July Eighteen hundred and eighty-eight years, and codicil thereto dated the twenty-seventh day of November Eighteen hundred and ninety-three years, the late Alexander Low Bruce, Esquire, bequeathed to the University of Edinburgh the sum of Five Thousand Pounds for the purpose of assisting to endow a Chair of Public Health in the said University "in acknowledgment of Pasteur's investigations": And whereas the University Court of the University of Edinburgh has received donations, in supplement of the said bequest, from Mrs. Livingstone Bruce, John Usher, Esquire, of Norton, and others, amounting to more than Ten Thousand Pounds, and there is thus a sum of upwards of Fifteen Thousand Pounds available for the Endowment of the said Chair:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with reference to the University of Edinburgh, as follows:—

I. There shall be a Professorship of Public Health and Sanitary Science in the University of Edinburgh (to be called the Bruce and John Usher Chair of Public Health), and the Professor shall be a Professor in the Faculties of Medicine and of Science in the said University.

II. There shall be paid to the said Professor the annual free income of the said endowment, together with such sum out of the income of the General University Fund as may be necessary to bring up his annual salary to the sum of £600, provided always that it shall be in the power of the University Court to increase the salary of the said Professor out of the General University Fund.

III. The fees of the students attending the classes of the said Professor shall be drawn by the University Court, and shall be paid into the Fee Fund and the provisions of Section IV. of Ordinance No. 27 [Edinburgh, No. 6.—Regulations as to Application of Parliamentary Grants, as to Salaries, and for the Institution of a Fee Fund, and for other purposes], shall be deemed to apply thereto.

IV. The University Court shall from time to time define the duties of the Professor, as in the case of other Professors in the University.

V. The Patronage of the said Professorship, and right of presenting or appointing the Professor, shall be vested in, and exercised by, the University Court of the University of Edinburgh.

VI. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.
