

5. The five Parish Wards into which the City Parish of Glasgow is at present divided, and the nine Parish Wards into which the burghal portion of the Parish of Barony is at present divided, shall be held and deemed to be Parish Wards of the Parish of Glasgow, but that without prejudice to the power of the Town Council of Glasgow at any time after the issue of this Order, to redivide the burghal portion of the Parish of Glasgow into such and so many Parish Wards as they may by Order under their seal determine, and to assign the number of Parish Councillors to be elected by the Parish electors in each Parish Ward, provided always that, if any alteration of the Parish Wards is to be made so as to take effect at the first election of Parish Councillors, it shall be made not later than the 1st day of November next. In the event of New Parish Ward being formed in the burghal portion of the Parish of Glasgow on or prior to the last mentioned date, the City Assessor shall, within fourteen days from the date of the Town Council's Order, arrange in the Parish Wards as defined in the Order the names of the persons qualified to be Parish electors therein respectively, and shall publish the lists of qualified electors so arranged in the same manner as the lists of municipal electors are published. He shall also furnish to the Returning Officer a sufficient number of copies of such lists for the purposes of the election, and the expenditure incurred by him in the discharge of the duties hereby laid upon him shall be a charge upon the poor rate levied in the Parish of Glasgow.

6. The Parish Council of the Parish of Glasgow shall enter into office on the Tuesday first occurring after the day of election, which Tuesday shall be held to be the date of transfer under this Order. The present Parish Councillors for the City Parish of Glasgow, and the burghal portion of the Parish of Barony, shall continue in office until the said date of transfer.

7. A meeting of the Parish Council of the Parish of Glasgow shall be held on the date of transfer before mentioned at such place and hour as shall be determined by the Returning Officer appointed under this Order, and intimated by him in writing to each Parish Councillor, and such meeting shall be deemed to be the statutory meeting of the Parish Council for the current year.

8. From and after the date of transfer before mentioned, the City of Glasgow Lunacy District and the Barony Lunacy District, both constituted by Order of the General Board of Lunacy, dated 6th July 1888, and approved by the Secretary for Scotland on the 25th July 1888, shall be united and form one Lunacy District, to be known and designated as the Glasgow Parish Lunacy District; the Parish Council of the Parish of Glasgow shall be the Board of said new District; and the property, assets, debts, liabilities, and servants of the City of Glasgow Lunacy District Board, and those of the Barony Lunacy District Board, as well as the Asylum property at Woodilee, presently belonging to the Parish Council of the Parish of Barony, together with the debts, liabilities, and servants connected therewith, shall be and become the property, assets, debts, liabilities, and servants of the Glasgow Parish District Lunacy Board.

9. Nothing contained herein shall affect the rights of creditors or of persons having vested interests, or shall render the area included within the Parish of Glasgow liable in a greater proportion of the assessment for Asylums in the original Glasgow Lunacy District than is contributed therefrom at present.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall this 1st day of September 1898.
