To confer on the Institution power to sue and be sued in their own name or in the name of the secretary or other public officer or officers to be appointed by or under the provisions of the Bill, and to confer on the Institution all such new and further powers, rights, and privileges, as may be necessary or expedient for facilitating legal and other proceedings by and against them, and in respect of the property and effects of the Institution.

To make and enact such provisions as shall or may in the Bill be expressed or contained in relation to the commencement and prosecution of actions and proceedings of whatsoever nature or character by or against the Institution, whether at law or in equity, bankruptcy, or lunacy, or under any insolvency or sequestration or otherwise howsoever as well in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as elsewhere.

To make and enact such provisions as shall or may in the Bill be expressed or contained in relation to the commencement and prosecution of any criminal proceedings by or on behalf of the Institution, and as well in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as elsewhere.

To make and enact such provisions as shall or may in the Bill be expressed or contained for enabling the Institution to delegate to their secretary, or other public officer or officers, rights, powers, and authorities touching the interests of the Institution, and for enabling such secretary or other public officer or officers to represent the Institution, and act for and in the name of the Institution.

To authorise and empower the directors of the Institution, or some of them, to execute powers of attorney or other instruments, enabling any persons to institute and carry on actions and other proceedings in any court or tribunal in any foreign country or British Colony for the recovery of money, property, or effects belonging or owing to the Institution, and to enact all requisite incidental provisions.

To provide for the enrolment from time to time in the Supreme Court in England, in the Books of Council and Session in Scotland, and in the Supreme Court in Ireland respectively, of memorials or other documents stating the names of the trustees of the Institution, and to provide for vesting in the trustees from time to time named in such memorials or other documents, all the real and personal property and securities, goods, chattels, and effects at any time, and from time to time held upon trust for the Institution, without any conveyance, transfer, assurance, or other document, and to make such other provisions in relation to such enrolment and vesting as may be found necessary or expedient.

To make provision as to the stamp duties to be raised and paid by the Institution in respect of such memorials as last aforesaid.

To confer upon the Institution or upon the directors thereof, for the time being, powers and authorities in relation to the rules and regulations of the Institution, the alteration thereof, and the making of new rules.

To alter, extend, and enlarge the powers of the Institution, and of the directors thereof, in respect of the laying out and investing the capital, moneys, funds, and property of the Institution, and to repeal or modify all or any general or special Acts of Parliament or other restrictions upon the investment of such capital, moneys, funds, and property now existing according to the present constitution of the Institution.

To make and enact provisions in respect of all or some of the following among other objects and purposes (that is to say) :—

- (a) The removal of doubts as to the application to the Institution of "The Life Assurance Companies (payment into Court) Act, 1896."
- (b) The exemption of the Institution from operation of Sections 3 and 13 of 13 and 14 Vict., cap. 115.

To alter, amend, and extend, and, so far as may be necessary or expedient for any of the purposes of the Bill, to cancel, annul, or repeal the Act 10 Geo. IV., cap. 56, being an Act to consolidate and amend the laws relating to friendly societies, 13 and 14 Vict., cap. 115, and 17 and 18 Vict., cap. 56 (Public), and all Acts of Parliament, deeds, laws, regulations, rules, and other documents binding upon or affecting the Institution, and to confer all powers, and to vary and extinguish any rights or privileges which it may be expedient to confer, vary, or extinguish for the purposes aforesaid.

Printed copies of the Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December 1898, be deposited in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 5th day of November 1898.

Board of Trade—Session 1899.

KIRKCALDY ELECTRIC LIGHTING.

(Power to the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Burgh of Kirkcaldy to Generate, Store, and Supply Electricity for Public and Private Purposes within the Burgh; to Appropriate and Acquire Lands; to Construct Works and Lay Electric Lines; to Break Up and Interfere with Streets, Railways, Tramways, &c.; to Levy Rates, Rents, and Charges; to Apply their Funds, and Borrow Money; to Enter into Contracts; and other Powers and Purposes.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade, on or before the 21st day of December next, by the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Kirkcaldy, being the Local Authority of that Burgh, for the purposes and within the meaning of the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1888, and the Electric Lighting (Scotland) Act, 1890 (hereinafter called "the Undertakers"), and whose Address is the Town House, Kirkcaldy, for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called "the Order") under the said Electric Lighting Acts, for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say) :—

1. To authorise the undertakers to generate, produce, store, sell, supply, and distribute electricity for all public and private purposes, as defined by the said Electric Lighting Acts, or some or one of them, within the boundaries of the Municipal Burgh of Kirkcaldy (hereinafter called "the area of supply.")

2. To authorise the undertakers to appropriate, hold, and use for the purposes of the proposed undertaking any lands or property belonging to or held by them, and to purchase, hold, acquire, feu, or take on lease any lands, houses, or property, or easements, or servitudes in or over lands or property, for the purposes of the Order, and from time to time to sell, feu, lease, sub-let, or otherwise dispose of any lands, houses, or property not required by them for the said purposes.

3. To authorise the undertakers to erect, construct, provide, lay down, alter, renew, maintain, work, and use on any lands or property belonging to or leased by, or to be acquired or leased by the undertakers, within the area of supply, such stations, buildings, store-houses, engine-houses, and works, together with such engines, dynamos, batteries, machinery, and apparatus, as may from time to time be necessary or expedient for the generation, production, storage, sale, supply, and distribution of electricity and electric currents within the area of supply; and to lay down, place, and maintain, alter, renew, and remove all such electric lines, wires, conductors, mains, pipes, tubes, posts, and other apparatus and works as may be necessary for those purposes.

4. To authorise the undertakers for the purposes of the said Order to cross, open, break up, stop up, and otherwise interfere with, and to pass over, under, or along all streets, roads, highways, footways, thoroughfares, and public places, railways, tramways, rivers, water courses, bridges, and places within the area of supply, and to take up, relay, divert, alter, or otherwise interfere with sewers, culverts, drains, gas and water mains and pipes, and telegraph and telephonic tubes and wires, and other works therein within the area of supply; and do all such other works and acts, and to confer on the undertakers all such further powers as may be necessary to carry into effect the objects of the Order.

5. To authorise the undertakers to manufacture, purchase, hire, sell, let and supply dynamos, accumulators, meters, lamps, fittings, appliances, plant, machinery, and apparatus, and to acquire, hold, work, and use patent rights or licenses and authorities under letters patent for the use of inventions, processes, and apparatus for and in relation to the production, storage, supply, distribution, utilisation, or measurement of electricity.

6. To authorise the undertakers to sell, transfer, or lease to any local or other public authority, company, or person all or any of the rights, powers, privileges, duties, and liabilities given to or imposed upon them by the Order or the said Electric Lighting Acts, for such period, and on such terms and conditions, as may be agreed on, and to make and carry into effect agreements for the production and distribution of electricity, and for the performing of all Acts incidental to public and private lighting.

7. To authorise the undertakers to enter upon any houses or other premises supplied or proposed to be supplied with electricity by them for any purpose relating to such supply.

8. To make provision for the inspection and testing of mains, conductors, meters, and other works; for the appointment and remuneration of electric inspectors, and for the supply, use, and inspection, testing, and certifying of meters, fittings, and instruments, and generally for the regulation of the supply of electricity within the area of supply.

9. To empower the undertakers to make, levy, and recover rates, rents, and charges, for a supply of electricity and the use of any dynamos, accumulators, meters, lamps, fittings, appliances, plant, machinery, and apparatus, and to confer exemptions from payment thereof.

10. To empower the undertakers to apply their funds and the local rate as described or defined in the said Electric Lighting Acts or a special or other rate, towards all or any of the purposes of the Order, and to borrow money for all or any of the purposes of the Order, and for defraying the expenses incurred thereunder on the security of such local or special or other rate, and to impose, levy, and recover rates to defray such expenses, and in security of the money so borrowed and for paying the interest thereon, and to provide for the disposal or application of the revenue arising from the undertaking.

11. To exempt the undertakers from the obligation to supply electricity for public or private purposes in such portion or portions of the area of supply, or under such conditions or circumstances as may be specified in the Order.

12. To authorise the undertakers to enter into and fulfil contracts and agreements with companies or persons for the execution and maintenance of works, machinery, and apparatus, and the supply of electricity, and to relieve the undertakers from the consequences of the acts or defaults of such companies or persons.

13. To incorporate with the Order and to extend and apply to the proposed undertaking and works, and to the undertakers, with or without variation, all or some of the provisions of the said Electric Lighting Acts, and of the Acts, or portions of Acts, incorporated therewith, and the Order will contain all such regulations and conditions as to the supply of electricity, and all matters incidental thereto, or consequent thereon, and the obligations of the undertakers in relation thereto, as are authorised by the said Acts, or as the Board of Trade may prescribe, and will also confer on the undertakers all powers, rights, and privileges necessary or expedient for carrying out the purposes of the Order, and alter, vary, or extinguish any rights or privileges which would, or might, interfere with the carrying out of such purposes.

14. The name of the Street in which it is proposed that Electric Lines should be laid down within a specified time is the High Street.

15. The following are the streets, roads, and places, not repairable by the Local Authority, and railways, which the undertakers propose to take powers by the Order to open, break up, pass over or under, or interfere with, so far as the same are situate within the area of supply, viz., the unnamed street from the west side of Pottery Road, with footpath in continuation thereof to Watery Wynd, the unnamed road from the west end of Mill Street to the Kirkcaldy Steam Laundry, Bethel-field Place, the lane called Cockmilone from Horse Wynd to the Bridge Green, the unnamed road from the south end of St. Clair Place to Tyrie Quarry, School Wynd, William Street, North Fergus Place, the unnamed road from Abbotshall Road (passing the north side of Kirkcaldy Railway Station) to Bennoch Road, Church Lane off Oswald's Wynd, the portion of the unnamed road from the Harbour (passing the north side of the old Fever Hospital) to the Southmost Bridge over the Den Burn, the portion of Factory Road from its junction with Smeaton Road and Overton Road northwards to its termination, Church Street from Anderson Street to Loughborough Road, the back Lane entering from St. Clair Street near its junction with Viewforth Street, and again joining St. Clair Street about 116 yards to the south, Kidd Street, School Lane, York Place, Bandon Avenue, Rosabelle Street, Millie Street, Anderson Street, Park Road, Pottery Lane off Pottery Street, Viewforth Street footpath from Overton Road to Lorne Street, the unnamed Lane from St. Clair Street to Institution Street, the west end of Mid Street from Plantation Wynd to the entrance gate of Braehead House, the Bridges respectively carrying St. Clair Street and Church Street over the North British Railway and the approaches thereto, and the Private Railway crossing Den Road on the level belonging to Messrs. Douglas & Grant.

16. The Draft Order will be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade on or before the 21st day of December next, and printed copies thereof when deposited, and of the Order when made, can be obtained at the offices of the undersigned in Kirkcaldy and Westminster, respectively, at the price of One Shilling for each copy, by all persons applying for the same.

17. A map showing the boundaries of the area of supply, and the street in which it is proposed that electric lines should be laid down within a specified time, and a copy of this notice, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will be deposited on or before the 30th November instant, at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens, London, and also for public inspection in the offices at Cupar and Kirkcaldy, respectively, of the Principal Sheriff Clerk of the County of Fife, and in the office of the Town Clerk of the Burgh of Kirkcaldy, Town House, Kirkcaldy, and also in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, House of Lords, and the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

18. And Notice is hereby further given, that every Local or other Public Authority, company or person, desirous of bringing before the Board of Trade any objection respecting this application, must do so by letter addressed to the Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens, London, marked on the outside of the cover enclosing it "Electric Lighting Acts," on or before the 15th day of January 1899, and a copy of such objection must also be forwarded to the undersigned Town Clerk or Parliamentary Agents.

Board of Trade—Session 1899.

INVERNESS ELECTRIC LIGHTING.

(Application to the Board of Trade, under the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1890, for a Provisional Order to Authorise the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Inverness, as the Commissioners of the said Royal Burgh, to Supply Electricity for Public and Private Purposes Within the said Burgh; Power to Construct Works; to Break up or Interfere with Streets and Railways; to Lay Electric Lines; to make Charges; to Levy Rates; to Acquire Lands; to enter into Agreements; to Borrow Money; and for other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade on or before the 21st day of December next by the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Inverness, in the County of Inverness, as the Commissioners of the said Royal Burgh of Inverness, under the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, being the local authority of that Burgh for the purposes, and within the meaning of the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882, and 1888, as amended by the Electric Lighting (Scotland) Act, 1890 (and who are hereinafter called the "Undertakers"), and whose Address is Town House, Inverness, for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called "the Order"), under the said Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1890, for all or some of the following purposes, that is to say:—

1. To authorise the undertakers to produce, store, sell, supply, and distribute Electricity for all public and private purposes, as defined by the said Acts, within the area of supply hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: Within the limits of the said Royal Burgh of Inverness (hereinafter called "the area of supply").
2. To authorise the undertakers to appropriate, for the purposes of the proposed undertaking, any lands or property belonging to, or held by them, and to purchase, hold, acquire, feu, or take on lease any lands or easements, servitudes, or rights in lands, for the purposes of the said Order, and with power to sell and dispose of the same.
3. To authorise the undertakers to erect, construct, provide, lay down, alter, renew, and maintain on lands belonging to or leased by, or to be acquired or leased by the undertakers within the area of supply, such central and other stations, buildings, engine houses and works for the generation, storage, supply, and distribution of Electricity and electric currents as may from time to time be necessary for supplying Electricity within the area of supply, or for other, the purposes of the Order, together with engines, machinery, apparatus and appliances necessary or convenient for the purposes aforesaid; and to lay down, place and maintain, alter and renew electric lines, wires, conductors, mains, pipes, and other apparatus and works for the supply and distribution of Electricity and electric currents in, through, under, over, along, or across all streets, bridges, squares, courts, alleys, highways, lanes, roads, thoroughfares, railways, tramways, public passages and places within the said area of supply.
4. To authorise the undertakers to cross, open, and break up for the purposes of the said Order, the soil and pavement of the several streets and thoroughfares, railways, tramways, and bridges within the area of supply, and to take up, relay, divert, or alter sewers, drains, mains, and all gas and water pipes, and telegraph and telephonic tubes and wires, and other works therein, within the said area of supply, and do all such other works and acts, and to confer on the undertakers all such further powers as may be necessary to carry into effect the objects of the Order.
5. To authorise the undertakers to manufacture, purchase, hire, sell, and supply meters, lamps, appliances, machinery, and apparatus in relation to the manufacture, storage, supply, and distribution of electricity, and to acquire, work and use patent rights for producing, storing, controlling, distributing and measuring, or otherwise relating to the supply of electricity.

6. To authorise the undertakers to transfer to any local or other public authority, company, or person, all or any of the powers, duties, and liabilities given to or imposed upon them by the Order, or the said Electric Lighting Acts, and to make and carry into effect agreements and contracts for the execution and maintenance of works, and for the production, supply and distribution of electricity, and for the performing of all acts incidental to public and private lighting.
7. To authorise the undertakers to enter upon any houses or other premises supplied by them for any purpose relating to such supply.
8. To empower the undertakers to make charges, and levy and recover rates, rents, and charges for the supply of electricity, and for the use of any machines, lamps, accumulators, meters, fittings, or apparatus connected therewith, and to define and limit the prices to be charged for such supply.
9. To empower the undertakers to apply their funds, rates, and assessments, and the local rate, as defined in the said Acts, towards all or any of the purposes of the said Order, and to borrow money for the purposes of the Order, and for defraying the expenses incurred thereunder, and to impose and levy rates to defray such expenses, and in further security of the money so borrowed.
10. To exempt the undertakers from the obligation to supply electricity for public or private purposes in such portion or portions of the said area of supply, or under such conditions or circumstances as may be specified in the Order.
11. To incorporate with the Order, and to confer upon the undertakers, all or some of the provisions and powers of the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1890, or any Act incorporated therewith, and any Act passed or to be passed amending the same with such modifications of such provisions and powers as may be prescribed by the Order, and to confer such other powers, rights, and privileges as may be necessary or expedient for carrying out the purposes of the Order, and to vary or extinguish any rights and privileges which may be inconsistent therewith.

The names of the streets, or parts of streets, within the area of supply, in which the undertakers propose that electric lines or distributing mains for the purposes of general supply shall be laid down within a period to be specified in the Order are the following:—High Street, Bridge Street, Inglis Street, Academy Street, Church Street, Union Street, and Castle Street.

The streets within the area of supply not repairable by the Local Authority, which the undertakers propose to take powers to break up, are as follows:—Queensgate, Lombard Street, Falcon Square, Station Square, Montague Row, and Ness Walk from the Burgh boundary westwards to the wall beyond Bought Mill, and the Harbour Quays and Roads.

The railways and river which the undertakers propose to break up, pass or cross over or under, are as follows:—The railways, sidings, and level crossings and bridges of the Highland Railway Company; and the rails and sidings of the Inverness Harbour Trustees; the River Ness, and estuary of the said River, and the Caledonian Canal, so far as the same are situated within the area of supply.

Notice is hereby given, that printed copies of the Draft Order will be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London, on or before the 21st Day of December next, and printed copies thereof, when deposited, and of the Order when made by the Board of Trade, can be obtained at the offices of the under signed in Inverness and Westminster respectively, at the price of one shilling for each copy, by all persons applying for the same.

And Notice is hereby further given, that a map showing the boundaries of the said area of supply, and the streets in which it is proposed that electric lines should be laid down within a specific time, and a copy of this notice, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will be deposited on or before the 30th November 1898, at the Office of the Board of Trade, and also for public inspection in the Office in Inverness of the Principal Sheriff Clerk of the County of Inverness, and in the Office of the Town Clerk of the Royal Burgh of Inverness, Town House, Inverness, and also in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, House of Lords, and in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

And Notice is hereby further given that every local or other public authority, company, or person desirous of bringing before the Board of Trade any objection respecting this application must do so by letter addressed to the Board of Trade, marked on the outside of the cover enclosing it "Electric Lighting Acts," on or before the 15th day of January 1899, and a copy of such objection must also be sent to the undermentioned Town Clerk or Parliamentary Agents.
