Dated this 24th day of November 1898.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

(DATED 25TH NOVEMBER 1898.)

EXPORTATION OF HORSES ORDER
OF 1898.

The Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 and 1896, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Prohibition of Exportation of Unfit Horses.

1. It shall not be lawful to convey in a vessel from any port in Great Britain any horse which, owing to age, infirmity, illness, injury, fatigue or any other reason cannot be so conveyed without cruelty during the intended passage and on landing.

Provisions as to Vessels carrying Horses.

2. The provisions of this Article shall apply to all vessels in or on which horses are carried from any port or place in Great Britain to any port or place outside the British Islands, except vessels belonging to Her Majesty.

(Fittings of Vessels.)

(i.) Each horse shall be carried in a separate box or stall of sufficient size, which shall be so constructed as to be of a substantial character, and of sufficient strength to withstand the action of the weather and to resist the weight of a horse thrown against it.

(ii.) The floor of each box or stall shall, in order to prevent slipping, be fitted with suitable battens, or shall be strewn with a proper quantity of sand or other suitable substance.

(iii.) Each box or stall shall be provided with suitable means for slinging the horse carried.

(iv.) Ship's fittings likely to cause injury or unnecessary suffering to horses shall be properly and securely fenced off.

(v.) Horses while on board a vessel shall be protected against injury or unnecessary suffering from undue exposure to the weather.

(Ventilation.)

(vi.) All parts of the vessel on which horses are carried shall be sufficiently and suitably ventilated. All such parts if below deck shall, in addition to any ventilation obtained by means of the hatchways, be provided with sufficient and suitable ventilators for the removal of foul air and for the admission of a proper supply of fresh air to all the horses carried.

(Light.)

(vii.) All parts of the vessel over which the horses pass, or in which they are stalled, shall be properly lighted, and arrangements shall be made for the provision at all times of adequate light for the proper tending of the horses.

(Passage-Ways.)

(viii.) Between every two rows of horses, and in front of every single row of horses, there shall be a passage-way of a minimum width of one foot and six inches, which passage-way shall be kept free of obstruction.

(Food and Water.)

(ix.) Horses carried on a vessel shall be provided while on board with a sufficient amount of suitable food and water, and accommodation shall be provided on board for the stowage of the food so that the same shall not be unduly exposed to the weather at sea.

(Securing of Horses.)

(x.) All horses while being carried on a vessel shall be securely tied by the head.

(Approaches, Gangways, and other Apparatus.)

(xi.) Approaches, gangways, passage-ways, cages, and other apparatus used for the loading of horses on a vessel, shall be so constructed that injury or unnecessary suffering shall not be caused to the horse.

(Attendance.)

(xii.) A vessel on which horses are carried shall carry a sufficient number of qualified attendants to properly attend the horses.

Water at Shipping Places.

3. At every place in Great Britain where horses are put on board of vessels, provision shall be made, to the satisfaction of the Board, for a supply of suitable water for the horses; and water shall be supplied there gratuitously, on request of any person having charge of any horse.

Local Authority to enforce Order.

4. The provisions of this Order, except where it is otherwise provided, shall be executed and enforced by the Local Authority.

Extension of certain Sections of Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

5. Horses shall be animals for the purposes of the following sections of the Act of 1894 (namely):
Section forty-three (powers of police);
Section forty-four (powers of inspectors);
and of all other sections of the said Act containing provisions relative to or consequent on the provisions of those sections and this Order, including such sections as provide for offences and legal proceedings.

Offences.

6. If any horse is conveyed or anything is done or omitted to be done in contravention of any of the provisions of this Order, the owner and the person in charge of the horse in respect of which,—and the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel in or in respect of which,—and the owner of the gangway or passage-way, cage, or other apparatus in respect of which,—and the owner and the lessee and the occupier of the place in which (as the case may be), the same is done or omitted, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts or omissions, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Interpretation.

7. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“The Board” means the Board of Agriculture:

“The Act of 1894” means the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894:

“The British Islands” means the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man:

“Master” includes a person having the charge or command of a vessel:

Other terms have the same meaning as in the Act of 1894.

Commencement.

8. This Order shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

Short Title.

9. This Order may be cited as the EXPORTATION OF HORSES ORDER OF 1898.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this twenty-fifth day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

L. S.

T. H. ELLIOTT, Secretary.

Copies of the above Order can be obtained on application to the Secretary, Board of Agriculture, 4 Whitehall Place, London, S. W.

Light Railway Commission.

CALEDONIAN RAILWAY.

AVONDALE DISTRICT LIGHT RAILWAY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Light Railway Commissioners, in the month of November current, by the Caledonian Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Company"), for an Order under the Light Railways Act, 1896, for the following purposes:—

1. To authorise the Company to make and maintain the light railway hereinafter described, to form a railway communication for passengers, goods, mineral and other traffic, that is to say—

A Railway commencing in the Parish of Avondale in the County of Lanark at a point about 340 yards northwards from the north-east corner of Glengavel Mill, and terminating in the Parish of Sorn in the County of Ayr at a point about 733 yards north-eastwards from the centre of the bridge carrying the public road from Muirkirk to Sorn over the Merkland Burn, which intended railway will be situated in the Parishes of Avondale, Muirkirk and Sorn, or some of them, and Counties of Lanark and Ayr.

The lands and other property proposed to be taken are required for the said railway, and the stations, works and conveniences connected therewith, and are situate in the parishes before mentioned, and consist mainly of pasture land with minerals below. The quantity of land proposed to be taken is about 40 acres. The said railway will be constructed on a gauge of four feet eight and a half inches, and the motive power intended to be employed is steam.

2. To enable the Company to purchase or otherwise acquire, by compulsion or agreement, lands and other property, for the purposes of the intended railway and works. To confer on the Company all necessary powers for the construction of such railway, and to empower the Company to levy and recover tolls, rates, duties and charges in respect of the use of the railway and works connected therewith. To constitute the intended railway part of the undertaking of the Company, and to empower the Company to raise additional capital and borrow money for the purposes of the Order, and to apply towards such purposes any existing capital or funds belonging to them.

3. To authorise any heirs of entail, or other persons holding any partial, limited or qualified estate or interest in any lands required for the construction of the intended railway, to grant and convey such lands to the Company, either free of cost or for a less price than their full value.

4. And notice is further given that a plan of the proposed works, and of the lands to be taken, and a book of reference to the plan, and a section of the proposed works, can be seen at the offices of the Company, 302 Buchanan Street, Glasgow, at all reasonable hours, and that copies of the draft Order can be obtained at the same place, by all persons applying for the same, at the price of not exceeding one shilling each.

5. And notice is also given that every company, corporation or person desirous of bringing before the Light Railway Commissioners any objections respecting the intended application, may do so in writing, on foolscap paper, written on one side only, and addressed to the Secretary, Light Railway Commission, 23 Great George Street, London, S.W., and a copy of any such objections should be sent to the Company.

Dated this 24th day of November, 1898.

By Order of the Caledonian Railway Company.
