BURGH OF BROUGHTY FERRY.

NOTICE.

IN a Petition presented to the Sheriff of Forfarshire by the Commissioners of the Burgh of Broughty Ferry, incorporated and acting under the provisions of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, craving his Lordship to Revise, Alter, and Extend the Boundaries of the said Burgh, by Marking Out, Defining, and Specifying the same to be as follows:—

Commencing at the point marked M on the plan produced with said Petition, being the point where the low water mark of the Firth of Tay cuts the prolongation of a straight line shown in red on said plan along the western boundary of the estate of the Earl of Home; thence northward along the said western boundary of the estate of the Earl of Home, crossing the public road from Dundee to Arbroath to the point marked N at the west end of the red line shown on said plan; thence eastward in a line parallel to and distant 70 yards from the north side of the said Dundee and Arbroath Road and across the property of the Broughty Ferry and District Steam Laundry Company Limited, to the north-east corner thereof at the west side of the Claypots Road and across the said road to the point marked P on said plan, and continuing said line eastward, parallel to and 70 yards north of said Arbroath Road, crossing the Avenue and Road leading to Linlathen House to the point marked S on said plan, which point S is the intersection of the said line by a prolongation northwards of a straight line along the east side of the road leading to East Balgillo from the Dundee and Arbroath Road; thence southwards in the said straight line, crossing the Dundee and Arbroath Road, and along the east side of the said road to East Balgillo to the point marked T on said plan; thence southward, crossing the road leading past the houses of East and West Balgillo, and running between the Farmhouse and the Steading of East Balgillo to the point marked U on said plan; thence southward along the western boundary of the Estate of Linlathen to the point marked V on said plan; thence eastward along the south boundary of the said Estate of Linlathen to the east end thereof at the point marked W on said plan; thence eastward in a straight line to the north-west corner of the Barnhill Cemetery at the point marked H on said plan; thence eastwards along the south side of a proposed street running along and parallel to the north boundary wall of the Barnhill Cemetery and the grounds of the Connalescent Home to a point marked I on said plan; then southwards along the west side of Abercrombie Street on its junction with Strathmore Street marked J on said plan; then eastwards across Abercrombie Street in a line with the north side of Strathmore Street; then southwards across Strathmore Street in a line with the east side of Abercrombie Street; then eastwards along the south side of Strathmore Street to its junction with Balmossie Street at the point marked K on the said plan; then southwards along the west side of Balmossie Street to its junction with Dalhousie Road; then eastward across Balmossie Street in a line with the north side of Dalhousie Road; then southwards along the east side of Balmossie Street; then in a straight line in continuation of the line of the southmost part of Balmossie Street to a point marked L on said plan, and continued southwards in the same straight line to the low water mark in the Firth of Tay; and the southern boundary to be the low water mark in the Firth of Tay between the said point M on the west and the point formed by a continuation of the said straight line terminating at L to the low water mark in the Firth of Tay on the east, including in said southern boundary all piers and other erections that project or may project outward from the shore beyond the low water mark,—his Lordship was pleased to pronounce the following Deliverance:—

Dundee, 25th August 1899. — The Sheriff, having considered the foregoing Petition, appoints intimation thereof of the Boundaries proposed for the Revised and Extended Boundaries of the said Burgh as set forth in said Petition, and of this Deliverance, to be given by advertisement in the Edinburgh Gazette and the Broughty Ferry Guide of 1st September 1899, and also by handbills to be posted within the Burgh, and also within the area proposed to be included within the said Revised and Extended Boundaries, and directs all persons desiring to oppose the prayer of the Petition, or to be heard in relation thereto, to lodge a Notice of Appearance in the hands of the Clerk of Court at Dundee within ten days from the said 1st September 1899; further, appoints Thursday the 14th day of September 1899, at half-past eight o'clock evening, within the Burgh Chambers, Brook Street, Broughty Ferry, for hearing all parties interested; meantime, appoints the Plan referred to in the Petition to remain in the hands of the Clerk of Court at Dundee for inspection until the said diet of hearing.

(Signed) HENRY JOHNSTON.

Of all which Intimation is hereby given.
