

send to the Board a copy of every Regulation made by them under this Order.

(2) If the Board are satisfied on inquiry, with respect to any Regulation made by the Local Authority under this Order, that the same is for any reason objectionable, and direct the revocation thereof, the same shall thereupon cease to operate.

Withholding of Compensation.

10. The Local Authority before determining, under sub-section seven of section twenty of the Act of 1894, to withhold, either wholly or partially, compensation or other payment in respect of a horse, ass, or mule slaughtered by their order under this Order, shall give to the owner of the horse, ass, or mule an opportunity of making representations to them respecting the facts and circumstances of the case, and shall consider the same.

Record of Slaughter.

11. The Local Authority shall keep, in the form provided by the Board, a record relative to horses, asses, or mules slaughtered by their order under this Order, stating the particulars indicated in such form, with such variations as circumstances require.

Production of Licences; Names and Addresses.

12.—(1) Every person in charge of any horse, ass, or mule being moved, where, under any Regulation of the Local Authority made under this Order, a Movement Licence is necessary, shall, on demand of a Justice, or of a constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of the Local Authority, produce and show to him the Licence, if any, authorising the movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2) Every person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the Justice, or constable, or Inspector or other officer.

Extension of certain Sections of Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

13. Horses, asses, and mules shall be animals, and strangles of horses, asses, and mules (in this Order called strangles) shall be a disease for the purposes of the following sections of the Act of 1894 (namely):—

Sections nineteen and twenty (slaughter and compensation);

Section twenty-two (Orders);

Sections forty-three (powers of police);

Section forty-four (powers of inspectors);

and of all other sections of the said Act containing provisions relative to or consequent on the provisions of those sections, including such sections as provide for offences and procedure.

Offences.

14.—(1) If any horse, ass, or mule is moved in contravention of a Regulation of the Local Authority made under this Order, or of the conditions of a Movement Licence thereunder, the owner of such horse, ass, or mule, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying such horse, ass, or mule, and the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel in which it is moved, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(2) If any person, with a view to unlawfully evade or defeat the operations of this Order, by clipping, or washing, or in any other manner, takes out, effaces, or obliterates, or attempts to take out, efface, or obliterate any mark clipped, painted, or stamped on any horse, ass, or mule as required by a Regulation of the Local Authority made under this Order, the person doing the same, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the same to be done, and the owner of the horse, ass, or mule, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(3) If anything is omitted to be done as regards cleansing or disinfection in contravention of a Regulation of the Local Authority made under this Order, the owner and the lessee and the occupier of any place in or in respect of which the same is omitted, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(4) If a person in charge of any horse, ass, or mule being moved, where, under a Regulation of the Local Authority made under this Order, a Movement Licence is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address, or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.
