(2.) Upon such application payment may be made to such infant, and his receipt shall be a good discharge to the trustees for the amount paid to him.

(3.) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the trustees that any sums in the name of an infant under the age of seven years are urgently needed for the maintenance, education, or benefit of such infant, or that from any other circumstances it is expedient to pay such sums or any part thereof, the trustees may pay such deposits, or any part thereof, to any person who may satisfy the trustees that he will apply such money for the benefit of such infant, and the receipt of such person shall be a good discharge to the trustees for sums so paid.

(3.) Where a depositor is insane, and no Committee of his estate has been appointed, the trustees may, when it is proved to their satisfaction that it is just and expedient so to do, pay the deposits standing in the name of the depositor or any part thereof, to any person whom they shall judge proper to receive the same, and the receipt of such person shall be a good discharge to the trustees for the sum so paid.

TRANSFER OF DEPOSITS.

Transfer from One Account to Another.

6.—(1.) Any depositor may apply to the trustees for the transfer of deposits standing in his name into the name of any other person entitled to deposit in the Savings Bank.

(2.) The trustees shall be furnished with such evidence as they may require of the title of the depositor to the sums to which the application relates.

(3.)—(a.) Every such application shall be in writing, or in a form which may be provided by the trustees, and shall state the amount to be transferred, the full name and address of the person into whose name it is desired to transfer the deposits (hereinafter referred to as the transferee), and particulars of the account (if any) to which the deposits are to be transferred.

(b.) A separate record shall be kept of all such applications, each of which shall be approved and signed by a trustee or manager.

(4.) Upon receiving such application as aforesaid, and upon being satisfied as to the title of the applicant to transfer the deposits to which the application relates, the trustees shall transfer from the account of the applicant to the account of the transferee the sum specified in the application.

(5.) Such application shall be a good discharge to the trustees from the transferor for the sum specified therein.

(6.) If the transferee is not already a depositor—

(a.) He shall be required to make a like declaration to that made in relation to a first deposit, and a depositor's book shall be handed to him;

(b.) Where the transfer is made in the name of a friendly society or charitable society, any such declaration as last aforesaid shall (so far as the same is necessary in the case of a first deposit) be made by the person who would make the same in the case of a first deposit.

Transfer from Account of Deceased, or Insane, Depositor.

7.—(1.) Any person of the age of 16 years or upwards to whom any sum due to a depositor at the time of his decease, or to a depositor who has become insane might be paid under and in accordance with the provisions of these regulations, may, subject to the provisions of these regulations as to duty, in lieu of withdrawing such sum, apply to the trustees in writing for the transfer of such sum into his own name, or the name of any other person specified in such application.

(2.) The provisions of these Regulations relating to the transfer of deposits shall apply to the transfer of sums from the account of a deceased depositor so far as the same are applicable.

(3.) A transfer under these Regulations shall be deemed to be a payment within the meaning of the provisions of these Regulations as to duty.

Limit in case of Transfer.

8.—(1.) For the purpose of calculating the limits of deposits in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations, no transfer (other than a transfer from the account of a deceased depositor, or a depositor who has become insane) shall be made which shall make the sum credited to the account of a depositor exceed the following limits, that is to say:—

(a.) In the case of a building society, the sum of £300 in the whole;

(b.) In the case of the trustees or treasurer of a charitable society, £100 in year, or £300 (exclusive of interest) in the whole;

(c.) In the case of any other depositor, not entitled to deposit without limit as to amount, the sum of £50 in any Savings Bank year, or £200 in the whole.

(2.) When by reason of the transfer of any sum from the account of a deceased depositor the sum standing to the credit of the trustees or treasurer of a charitable society exceeds £300, exclusive of interest, or the sum standing to the credit of any other depositor exceeds £200 in the whole, notice shall be given to the depositor of the amount of such excess, and no interest shall be allowed on such amount.

(3.) This Regulation shall not apply to friendly societies or to charitable societies when the approval of the National Debt Commissioners has been obtained to making of deposits without restriction as to amount.

8.—(a.) The foregoing Regulations as to transfer of deposits shall apply to Government Stock standing in the name of any depositor or deceased depositor, provided that—

- (1.) No transfer of Government Stock (other than from the account of a deceased depositor) shall be made which shall make the amount of stock credited to any depositor to exceed £200 in any Savings Bank year, or £500 in the whole ;
- (2.) When, upon the transfer of any Government Stock from the account of a deceased depositor, the amount of stock standing to the credit of any depositor shall exceed £500, the amount transferred, or so much thereof as is in excess of £500 stock, shall be forthwith sold, and the proceeds paid to the depositor ; unless such depositor requests that such amount be transferred to his own name in the books of the Bank of England.

Addition of Names to an Account.

9. Upon the application of any depositor the trustees may, if they deem it just or expedient so to do, add one or more names to an account already in a Savings Bank.

The addition of such names shall not be deemed to be the opening of a new account in the bank.

Every person whose name is so added to an account under this Regulation shall make the declaration required upon the making of a first deposit.

NOMINATIONS.

A Depositor may Nominate.

10. Subject to the provisions of these Regulations a depositor of the age of 16 years or upwards may nominate any person to receive any sum due to such depositor at his decease.

Requirements of a Nomination.

11.—(1.) Every such nomination shall be in writing, or in a form which may be provided by the trustees, and shall be signed by the depositor in the presence of a witness, and shall be sent by post or otherwise to the trustees during the lifetime of the depositor.

(2.) The receipt of every such nomination shall be acknowledged by the Savings Bank.

Registration.

12. Every such nomination shall be registered by the trustees in a book to be kept for the purpose.

Revocation.

13.—(1.) Any such nomination may be revoked by the depositor by writing under his hand signed in the presence of a witness.

(2.) Any such revocation shall be sent by post, or otherwise, to the trustees during the lifetime of the depositor, and shall be registered by the trustees in a book to be kept for that purpose in like manner as in the case of a nomination.

(3.) The receipt of every such revocation shall be acknowledged by the Savings Bank.

Scope of Nomination.

14.—(1.) A nomination may relate to the whole of the deposits standing in the name of a depositor, or to part only of such deposits.

(2.) Except where otherwise stated, a nomination shall (subject to the provisions of these regulations) be deemed to extend to all sums to which a depositor is entitled at the time of his decease in respect of Government Stock or a Savings Bank

Annuity, but a depositor may in a nomination expressly exclude any of such sums from the operation of such nomination.

Division of Sums nominated.

15. A nomination may be in favour of one person or of several persons, and, in the latter case, may direct that specific sums shall be paid to one or more of the persons named in the nomination, or that the persons named in such nomination may take the deposits in specified shares, or may give directions to both effects.

Witness to Nomination disqualified from taking under it.

16. No person who witnesses the signature of a depositor to a nomination shall take any benefit under such nomination.

Operation of Nomination.

17.—(1.) Where the sums due by the trustees of a Savings Bank on the decease of a depositor do not exceed in the whole the sum of £100, and the trustees have no notice of the claim of any creditor of the depositor, the trustees shall, subject to the provisions of these Regulations as to duty, pay the persons named in any nomination made by such depositor, and in force at the time of his death, according to the directions of such nomination, and the receipt of any person so named shall be a good discharge to the trustees for the sum so paid, notwithstanding such person has not attained the age of 21 years, if such person has attained the age of 16 years.

(2.) If upon the decease of a depositor the sums due to him or to his estate exceed £100, any nomination made by such depositor shall take effect, subject to the provisions of these Regulations as to duty, as regards any sum or sums to which the same relates, not exceeding £100, in like manner as if it were a will of the deceased depositor duly executed, but shall not take effect in any other manner, and a nomination shall not in such case be deemed void because the depositor was a minor at the time such nomination was made.

(3.) In any such case as last aforesaid, the trustees may, if they have no notice of the claim of any creditor of the depositor, and subject to the provisions of this Regulation, pay any sum or sums to which a nomination relates, not exceeding in the aggregate £100, according to the directions of such nomination, notwithstanding the production of probate of the will of a deceased depositor, or letters of administration to his estate.

Payment of Debts out of Nominated Deposits.

18. Where on the death of a depositor who has made a nomination the trustees have notice of a claim of any creditor against the estate of such depositor, and such estate, apart from the amount nominated, is not sufficient to satisfy such claim, the trustees may in their discretion apply the amount nominated in or towards the satisfaction of such claim ; but, subject as aforesaid, any payment made by the trustees to the nominee, whether the amount due to the depositor at his death does or does not exceed £100, shall be a valid payment, and the receipt of the nominee shall be a good discharge to the trustees for the sum so paid.

Payment for the Benefit of a Nominee under 16.

19. Where any person nominated to receive any sum on the death of a depositor is an infant under the age of 16 years, and it is proved to the satisfaction of the trustees that funds are urgently needed for the maintenance, education, or benefit of such infant, the trustees may pay the sum mentioned in the nomination, or any part thereof, to any person who may satisfy the trustees that he will apply such money for the benefit of such infant, and the receipt of such person shall be a good discharge to the trustees for the amount so paid.

Nominations in favour of issue not to lapse.

20. Where any person nominated to receive any sum on the death of a depositor, is the child or other issue of the depositor, and such person dies in the lifetime of the depositor leaving issue, and any such issue of such person is living at the time of the death of the depositor, the nomination shall take effect as if the death of the person nominated had happened immediately after the death of the depositor, unless a contrary intention appears by the nomination; but in every other case, the death of the person nominated in the lifetime of the depositor making the nomination, shall operate as a revocation of the nomination in favour of such person.

Nomination revoked by Marriage.

21.—(1.) Subject to the provisions of these Regulations, the marriage of a depositor contracted after the date when these Regulations come into operation shall operate as a revocation of any nomination made by such depositor before such marriage.

(2.) Where the trustees have paid money to a nominee in ignorance of the fact that the person making the nomination has married subsequently to the nomination, the receipt of the nominee shall be a valid discharge to the trustees.

(3.) Nothing in these regulations shall alter the effect of a marriage, contracted prior to the date when these Regulations come into operation, upon a nomination theretofore made by the depositor contracting such marriage.

Nominations to be entered on Transfer Certificate.

22. On any certificate granted to a depositor by the trustees for the purpose of transferring deposits from a Trustee Savings Bank to a Trustee Savings Bank, or to the Post Office Savings Bank, a memorandum shall be made, specifying the date and other particulars of any nomination made in respect of such deposits.

Effect of Transfer on Nomination of Deposits in the Post Office Savings Bank.

23.—(1.) When deposits are transferred from the Post Office Savings Bank to a Trustee Savings Bank, any nomination made with respect to such deposits while in the Post Office Savings Bank, shall (if such nomination is brought to the notice of the trustees) be deemed to hold good with respect to deposits in a Trustee Savings Bank.

(2.) The trustees may require proof to their satisfaction of the making of any such nomination, and that the same is at the date of transfer of full force and effect.

PAYMENT OF DEPOSITS OF DECEASED DEPOSITORS.

Proof of Death.

24. The trustees may require proof to their satisfaction of the decease of a depositor.

Deposits under £100.

25.—(1.) Where the whole amount due by the trustees of a savings bank to a depositor at the time of his decease does not exceed £100, exclusive of interest, and probate of the will of such depositor, or letters of administration of his personal estate, is not or are not produced to the trustees within such time as they may think reasonable, or if such depositor has made no nomination, and so far as any nomination does not extend, the trustees may, subject to the provisions of these Regulations as to duty, without requiring probate of the will or letters of administration, pay or distribute the amount so due as aforesaid to or among any of the persons herein-after described or indicated, that is to say:—

- (1.) Any person who has paid the funeral expenses of the depositor;
- (2.) Creditors of the depositor;
- (3.) The widow or widower of the depositor;
- (4.) The persons entitled to the personal estate of the depositor, according to the statutes of distribution;
- (5.) Any person undertaking to maintain the children of the depositor;
- (6.) The Solicitor to the Treasury, if the depositor, being illegitimate, dies intestate, leaving no widow, widower, or issue.
- (7.) The Solicitor to the Duchy of Lancaster, if the estate of the depositor has devolved upon that Duchy.
- (8.) The Solicitor to the Duchy of Cornwall, if the estate of the depositor has devolved upon that Duchy.

(2.) The receipt of any of the persons mentioned in this Regulation shall be a good discharge to the trustees for the sums paid, and any such receipt may be signed by any widow, widower, or next-of-kin, above the age of 16 years, notwithstanding that she or he has not attained the age of 21 years.

PROVISIONS AS TO DUTY.

Estate, Succession, and Legacy Duties.

26.—(1.) If the total property of any deceased depositor exceeds £100, after deduction of debts and funeral expenses, any sum which may, under these Regulations, be paid to a survivor in the account (not being a trustee), whose name has been added to the account at the request of such deceased depositor, or otherwise than to the legal personal representative of the depositor shall, notwithstanding such payment, be for the purposes of estate duty treated as passing under the will or intestacy of the deceased depositor.

(2.) The Trustees shall, before making any payment in respect of deposits standing to the credit of a deceased depositor (either alone or jointly with any other depositor (not being a trustee) whose name has been added to such account at the request of such deceased depositor), to any one but the legal personal representative of such deceased depositor, require a declaration (in the form of schedule hereunto annexed) by the claimant, or one of the claimants, or by the survivor or survivors in the account, that the total estate of the deceased depositor, including the amount of such deposits, does not after deduction of debts and funeral expenses exceed the value of £100.

(3.) In every such case as aforesaid, where the total estate of the deceased depositor, including such deposits, but after deduction of debts and funeral expenses, exceeds £100, the trustees shall, before making any payment to any survivor in the account, or to any person other than the legal personal representative of the deceased depositor, require production of a certificate from the Commissioners of Inland Revenue of the payment of the estate duty, and of a duly stamped receipt for the succession or legacy duty, payable in respect of such deposits, or of a certificate stating that no succession or legacy duty is payable.

SUPPLEMENTAL.

Protection to the Trustees when acting in accordance with Regulations.

27. When any payment is made or act done by the trustees in accordance with the Savings Banks Acts, and the regulations for the time being made thereunder, and the rules of the bank, they shall be indemnified against all claims on the part of any person in respect of such payment or act, but any person may nevertheless recover any sum lawfully due to him from the person to whom the trustees have paid the same.
