FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1901.

WHITEHALL, February 4, 1901.

THE following Letter from the King has been received by The Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department:—

WINDSOR CASTLE, February 4, 1901.

To MY PEOPLE.

Now that the last Scene has closed in the noble and ever glorious life of My beloved Mother, The Queen, I am anxious to endeavour to convey to the whole Empire the extent of the deep gratitude I feel for the heart-stirring and affectionate tributes which are everywhere borne to Her Memory. I wish also to express My warm recognition of those universal expressions of what I know to be genuine and loyal sympathy with Me and with the Royal Family in our overwhelming sorrow. Such expressions have reached Me from all parts of My vast Empire, while at home the sorrowful, reverent, and sincere enthusiasm manifested in the magnificent display by sea and land has deeply touched Me.

The consciousness of this generous spirit of devotion and loyalty among the millions of My Subjects, and of the feeling that we are all sharing a common sorrow, has inspired Me with courage and hope during the past most trying and momentous days.

Encouraged by the confidence of that love and trust which the Nation ever reposed in its late and fondly mourned Sovereign, I shall earnestly strive to walk in Her Footsteps, devoting Myself to the utmost of My powers to maintaining and promoting the highest interests of My People, and to the diligent and zealous fulfilment of the great and sacred responsibilities which, through the Will of God, I am now called to undertake.

EDWARD, R.I.

DOWNING STREET, February 4, 1901.

The following Message has been forwarded by Command of His Majesty the King to all Colonies and Dependencies:—

WINDSOR CASTLE, February 4, 1901.

To MY PEOPLE BEYOND THE SEAS.

The countless messages of loyal sympathy which I have received from every part of My Dominions over the Seas testify to the universal grief in which the whole Empire now mourns the loss of My Beloved Mother.

In the welfare and prosperity of Her subjects throughout Greater Britain the Queen ever evinced a heartfelt interest.

She saw with thankfulness the steady progress which, under a wide extension of Self-Government, they had made during Her Reign. She warmly appreciated their unfailing loyalty to Her Throne and Person, and was proud to think of those who had so nobly fought and died for the Empire's cause in South Africa.

I have already declared that it will be My constant endeavour to follow the great example which has been bequeathed to Me.

In these endeavours I shall have a confident trust in the devotion and sympathy of the People and of their several Representative Assemblies throughout My vast Colonial Dominions.

With such loyal support I will, with God's blessing, solemnly work for the promotion of the common welfare and security of the great Empire over which I have now been called to reign.

EDWARD, R.I.

INDIA OFFICE, February 4, 1901.

The King Emperor has been graciously pleased to send the following Letter to the Princes and People of India :—

WINDSOR CASTLE, February 4, 1901.

TO THE PRINCES AND PEOPLE OF INDIA.

Through the lamented death of My beloved and dearly mourned Mother, I have inherited the Throne, which has descended to Me through a long and ancient lineage.

I now desire to send My greeting to the Ruling Chiefs of the Native States, and to the Inhabitants of My Indian Dominions, to assure them of My sincere good will and affection, and of My heartfelt wishes for their welfare.

My illustrious and lamented Predecessor was the first Sovereign of this Country who took upon Herself the direct Administration of the Affairs of India and assumed the title of Empress in token of Her closer association with the Government of that vast Country.

In all matters connected with India, the Queen Empress displayed an unvarying deep personal interest, and I am well aware of the feeling of loyalty and affection evinced by the millions of its peoples towards Her Throne and Person. This feeling was conspicuously shown during the last year of Her long and glorious reign by the noble and patriotic assistance offered by the Ruling Princes in the South African War, and by the gallant services rendered by the Native Army beyond the limits of their own Country.

It was by Her wish and with Her sanction that I visited India and made Myself personally acquainted with the Ruling Chiefs, the people, and the cities of that ancient and famous Empire.

I shall never forget the deep impressions which I then received, and I shall endeavour to follow the great example of the first Queen Empress to work for the general well-being of my Indian subjects of all ranks, and to merit, as She did, their unflinching loyalty and affection.

EDWARD, R. ET I.

WHITEHALL, February 4, 1901.

The following Address has been received by the Secretary of State for the Home Department from the Civil Servants of the United Kingdom for presentation to the King, and has been presented to His Majesty accordingly :—

May it please Your Majesty,

The Civil Servants of the Crown throughout the United Kingdom desire to tender to Your Majesty their profound sympathy in the loss which has befallen yourself and the Empire by the death of their beloved Queen; and to express their deep devotion and loyalty to Your Majesty's Person, and their prayer for Your long and prosperous Reign.

FRANCIS MOWATT,
Secretary of the Treasury, on behalf of all Civil Servants of Great Britain and Ireland.

29th January 1901.

To this Address the following gracious reply has been sent by His Majesty's commands :—

HOME OFFICE, WHITEHALL, February 4, 1901.

SIR,

"I have had the honour to lay before the King the Address of the Civil Servants of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland on the death of Her late Majesty; and I am to convey to you and through you to all Civil Servants His Majesty's thanks for this expression of sympathy.

"The King is much gratified by this assurance of the loyalty and devotion of Civil Servants, and He is confident that they will continue in the future to render with the same loyalty and zeal services which in the past have proved of such advantage to the country."

I am, &c.,

CHARLES T. RITCHIE.

Sir Francis Mowatt, K.C.B., &c., &c., &c.
