"Dumbarton, 22nd February 1901. — The Sheriff having considered the foregoing application, appoints the Petitioners to give notice of the import thereof and of this Deliverance by Advertisement in the Edinburgh Gazette, the Stirling Journal, the Stirling Observer, Glasgow Herald, and Glasgow Daily Mail newspapers, and also by handbills posted up in the area proposed to be included within the extended boundaries; allows any persons desiring to oppose the prayer of the Petition, or to be heard in reference thereto, to give notice thereof, by lodging a Notice of Appearance with the Sheriff-Clerk at Dumbarton, within fourteen days from the last of said advertisements; appoints the Petition and relative plan to lie in the Office of the Town-Clerk at Milngavie till the expiry of seven days after the last of said advertisements, and thereafter to be transmitted to the Sheriff-Clerk at Dumbarton, for inspection by all concerned; and remits to Mr. W. J. Eccott, Assessor for the County of Dumbarton, to ascertain approximately the number of the population and of the dwelling-houses within the area proposed by the Petitioners to be included in the burgh, and to report quam primum thereon, and generally as to the circumstances averred by the Petitioners.

(Signed) "J. M. LEES."

Of which Notice is hereby given.

JOHN CRANMER, Town-Clerk.

Milngavie, 26th February 1901.

BURGH OF CLYDEBANK.

IN the Application by the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Clydebank for revival and extension of the boundaries of the Burgh, and to have the Wards of new defined, the Sheriff of Stirling, Dumbarton, and Clackmannan has issued an Interlocutor intimating his intention to include within the boundaries of the said Burgh the 291 acres lying north of the southern boundary of the Glasgow, Dumbarton, and Helensburgh Railway, and forming the districts of Upper Dalmuir, Radnor Park, and Kilbowie, and that the said area should form a fifth Ward of the Burgh.

Therefore notice is hereby given, in terms of section 19 of the Town Councils (Scotland) Act, 1900, and the Interlocutor of the Sheriff above referred to, of the proposed alteration of the number of the Wards within the boundaries of the Burgh to be extended; and any person desiring to object thereto is required to lodge a notice thereof in the hands of the Sheriff-Clerk of Dumbartonshire at Dumbarton, within seven days from this date.
