

Assembly, for the Church and proposed new Parish of St. Andrew's, Johnstone, quoad sacra, in the said Presbytery of Paisley; praying their Lordships, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the Acts of Parliament therein recited, to Decern and Erect the Chapel of Ease at Johnstone into a PARISH CHURCH in connection with the Church of Scotland, and to Mark out and Designate the District specially set forth in said Petition, or such other District as to their Lordships should seem more fit, as the District to be attached quoad sacra to the said Church; and to disjoin the said Chapel and District quoad sacra from the Parish quoad sacra of Johnstone, Parish of Kilbarchan, and Parish quoad sacra of Elderslie, to which the same now belongs, and to Erect the same into a Parish Church and Parish quoad sacra in connection with the Church of Scotland, to be called THE CHURCH AND PARISH OF ST. ANDREW'S, JOHNSTONE; and to Find and Declare that the Ministers and Elders of the said Church and Parish so to be erected shall have and enjoy the status, and all the powers, rights, and privileges of a Parish Minister and Elders in connection with the Church of Scotland; and to Find and Declare that, upon St. Andrew's Church, Johnstone, aforesaid, and District to be attached thereto, being erected into a Parish Church and Parish quoad sacra, in terms of the foregoing cravings, the election and appointment of the Minister thereto shall be thereafter made in accordance with the provisions of the Act 37 and 38 Vict. cap. 82, as pointed out in the Deed of Constitution before mentioned, and the Regulations thereanent of said General Assembly; but always under reservation of the right of the Presbytery of the bounds to present to the said Church and Parish jure devoluto, according to law, and as provided in the said New Parishes (Scotland) Act, 1844; and to Find, Decern, and Declare in the premises, in terms of the foregoing cravings, or in such other terms as to their Lordships should seem meet. As the said Petition in itself more fully bears. And Intimation is hereby further given that the Petitioners have, as required by said Interlocutor, lodged fifteen printed copies of said Petition for the use of such persons interested as may apply for them with the Session Clerks of the said Parishes of Johnstone, Kilbarchan, and Elderslie, and a like number with the Minister of the said Church of St. Andrew's, Johnstone, and with the Town-Clerk of Johnstone.

BURGH OF TRANENT. NOTICE.

IN a Petition presented in the Sheriff Court of the Lothians and Peebles at Haddington, by the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Tranent, praying the Court—

To extend the boundaries of the Burgh of Tranent by adding to the said Burgh the following areas, viz. :—
(First) That area commencing at a point marked A on the Ordnance Survey Plan, produced with the Petition, on the western boundary of the Burgh on the east side of the Hough, 100 yards north from the post road, running thence westward in a line so as to include 100 yards on the north side of the post road, and including an angle being the northmost part of the field marked 370 on said Plan, and another angle forming the northmost part of the garden or ground attached to the house known as "Bankpark" until it reaches the footway leading from the post road to Prestonpans Railway Station, and so as to include the said footway to a point marked B on said Plan, thence from said point B along the western side of said footpath in a south-easterly direction till said footpath joins the post road, thence across the post road, and thence to a point marked C on said Plan, 313 feet 6 inches or thereby from the point where said boundary leaves the south side of the post road, and 100 yards or thereby from the nearest point on the said post road, which point C is on the south of the quarry marked 375 on said Plan, thence in an easterly direction in a line 100 yards south of said post road till it reaches the present Burgh boundary at a point marked D on said Plan at the corner of the stationmaster's house on the North British Railway Branch, thence along the present Burgh boundary to a point marked E on said Plan on the post road at the west end of the property of the Railway Inn, then crossing said road and following the present Burgh boundary till it reaches the said point marked A, before described. (Second) That area commencing at a point marked F upon the said Plan at the south-western boundary of the Burgh running south-westward, and then south-eastward along the east side of the roadway leading to Elphinstone until it reaches the point marked G on said Plan at the southmost point of the field marked 193, thence along the back road behind the Town of Tranent in a north-easterly direction until it reaches a point marked H on said Plan, so as to include the fields marked 193 and 279 on said Plan, thence in a south-easterly direction till it reaches a point marked I at the south corner of field 229 on said Plan, and thence in a north-easterly direction till it reaches a point marked J on said Plan on the road from Tranent to Ormiston, and so as to include the whole of said field marked 229, thence crossing said road to Ormiston in a south-easterly direction to a point marked K on said Plan, on the north-east side of said road to Ormiston, and thence in a north-easterly direction to a point marked L, being the south-east corner, and so as to include the field marked 239 on said Plan, thence in a south-easterly direction to a point marked M on said Plan, being the south-east corner of the field marked 240 on said Plan, thence in a north-easterly direction along but not including the Mineral Railway to a point on the post road to Haddington marked N on the said Plan, and so as to include the whole of the field marked 240 on said Plan, thence crossing said post road along the eastern boundary of the field marked 271 on said Plan to a point marked O, being the north-east corner of said field, thence in a south-westerly direction to a point marked P, where it joins the present Burgh boundary at the north end of the field lying behind the property of the Free Church in Tranent. (Third) That area commencing at a point marked Q on said Plan on the footway running behind part of the north-eastern boundary of the Burgh in a north-westerly direction to a point marked R adjoining said footway, so as to include the fields marked 280 and 309 on the said Plan, all as the said three areas are tinted pink upon the said Ordnance Survey Plan.

Or to fix such other boundaries as might appear to the Court just and proper, and to define in a written Deliverance on the application the extended boundaries of the said Burgh, and to grant Warrant to record the application and the Deliverance therein in the Books of Court, the Sheriff has pronounced the following Deliverance:—

"Edinburgh, 19th March 1901.—The Sheriff having considered the foregoing Petition, appoints a copy thereof, and of this Deliverance, to be served on the County Clerk of the County of Haddington; further, appoints intimation of the import of the Petition and of this Deliverance to be made by advertisement once in the Edinburgh Gazette and in the Scotsman newspaper, and also by immediate circulation and posting of handbills within the boundaries of the Burgh of Tranent and in the neighbourhood thereof; and allows all parties having interest to lodge objections to the prayer of the Petition (if so advised) within fourteen days from the date of the last advertisement; meanwhile appoints the Petition, with the relative Plan, to remain in the hands of the Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Haddington for the inspection of all concerned.

(Signed) "AND. RUTHERFURD."

Of all which Notice is hereby given.
