

Eighthly.—It is ordained that the decoration to be worn by Companions of the Order shall be a Badge or Medallion of gold and enamel, bearing on one side Our Imperial and Royal Cypher, and on the reverse "For Faithful Service," both to be executed in dark blue enamel on a plaque or shield of gold, surrounded by a wreath of laurel, surmounted by the Imperial Crown.

Ninthly.—It is ordained that the decoration shall be worn on the left breast suspended by a ribbon of one inch in width.

Tenthly.—It is ordained that the names of those upon whom we are pleased to confer the decoration shall be published in the London Gazette.

Eleventhly.—It is ordained that companions of the Order shall have the privilege of adding the letters "I.S.O." after their names.

Twelfthly.—It is ordained that members of any Order of Knighthood shall, if otherwise qualified, be eligible to become Companions of this Order, and that Companions of this Order shall in no way be debarred from becoming thereafter Members of any Order of Knighthood for which their services may qualify them.

Thirteenthly.—It is ordained that an officer shall be appointed to the Order who shall be styled "Secretary and Registrar," and who shall be ex officio a Companion of the Order.

Fourteenthly.—It is ordained that the Secretary and Registrar of this Order shall be appointed by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, and shall have the custody of the Archives of the Order, which shall be kept in the Office of Our Secretary of State for the Home Department. He shall attend to the service of the Order and shall execute such directions as he may receive from Our Principal Secretaries of State.

Fifteenthly.—It is ordained that those Members of Our Civil Services who are not eligible for appointment as Companions of this Order may, on retirement from Our said Services after not less than twenty-five years of meritorious service in the United Kingdom, or not less than sixteen years of such service in a Colony or Protectorate which, under the Pension Acts or Regulations applying to that Colony or Protectorate, is recognised as unhealthy, be awarded a medal to be designated "The Imperial Service Medal," provided that no such medal shall be granted except on the recommendation of one of Our Principal Secretaries of State. Provided also that it shall be competent to Us, Our Heirs and Successors, to confer the Medal upon not more than five Civil servants in each year, who have retired after less than twenty-five years' service, should special circumstances in Our or their opinion justify the grant.

Sixteenthly.—It is ordained that the Imperial Service Medal shall be of silver and of a design similar to that of the Badge of the Companions of the aforesaid Imperial Service Order, and shall be similarly worn.

Seventeenthly.—It is ordained that the names of those persons to whom the Imperial Service Medal shall be granted shall be duly published in the London Gazette.

Lastly.—We reserve to Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors, full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting, or dispersing with these Regulations, or any part thereof, by a notification under the Sign Manual of the Sovereign of the Order.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this eighth day of August, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and two, and the second year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command.

CHARLES T. RITCHIE.

The Permanent Secretary of the Treasury, and the Permanent Under-Secretaries of State for the Home Department and for Foreign Affairs, have been appointed a Committee to communicate with Heads of Departments and to select from lists recommended by them the names of persons to be submitted to His Majesty for appointment to the Order.

EDGAR SHEPPARD, D.D., Sub-Dean.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of August 1902.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Secretary for Scotland has, under the provisions of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, made a Representation stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor by the Sheriff-Substitute of Lanarkshire at Hamilton, finding that the Burial Ground known as Windmillhill Old Burial Ground, situated in or near Windmillhill Street, Motherwell, in the Parish of Dalziel and County of Lanark, is overcrowded and in a condition dangerous to health, and offensive and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that the said Burial Ground should be closed:—

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased to give notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the 20th day of September 1902:
