LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACTS.

Alteration of Parish Areas.

ADJUSTMENT ORDER No. XXX.

DUNDEE COMBINATION PARISH AND PARISH OF LIFF AND BENVIE.

WHEREAS a new Parish, called the Parish of Liff and Benvie, was constituted on the 3rd day of December 1901, by the Order of the Secretary for Scotland, published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 6th September 1901 (No. XLII.):

And whereas all questions of adjustment consequential on the said Order were expressly reserved:

And whereas the Parish Council of the Dundee Combination Parish, in concurrence with the Parish Council of Liff and Benvie, has made a representation to me that I should, under section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, and section 46 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, issue an Order, as hereinafter contained, for the adjustment of the liabilities of the said Parish of Dundee and the said Parish of Liff and Benvie:

And whereas a Minute of Agreement has been duly executed between the said Parish Council of the Dundee Combination Parish and the said Parish Council of Liff and Benvie, dated 23rd day and 27th day of September 1902, and has been signed by me with reference to this Order:

And whereas I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the said representation by confirming the said Agreement:

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, K.T., His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, order as follows:—

The aforesaid Agreement is hereby confirmed.

BALFOUR OF BURLEIGH.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall this sixth day of November 1902.

Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899.

SCOTTISH EPISCOPAL CLERGY
WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND.

(Establishment and Incorporation of Fund; Dissolution of Scotch Episcopal Friendly Society; Separation of Assets of Society; Transfer of General Fund of Society to new Fund; Contribution by Representative Church Council; Provisions as to Management, &c., of Fund; Payment of Friendly Society's Annuities; Alteration of Conditions, &c., affecting same; Payment of Annuities to Widows and Children of Members joining Fund; Members' Contributions; Exemptions and Allowances; Implied Membership of certain Bishops and Clergy; Payment of Members' Contributions by Church Council; Forfeiture and Surrender of Annuities and other Provisions: Pensions to Officers; Holding of Diocesan Trust Funds; Transfer of Special Funds of Friendly Society to Trustees of Church Council; Costs of Order; Amendment of Acts; and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Secretary for Scotland in the month of December next, by Petition for a Provisional Order under the above Act (hereinafter called "the Order"), for all or some of the following among other purposes, that is to say:—

To establish a fund for providing annuities for the widows and orphan children of all or some of the Bishops and Clergy of the Episcopal Church in Scotland (hereinafter called "the Church").

To dissolve and wind up the affairs of the Friendly Society known as the Scotch Episcopal Friendly Society (hereinafter called "the Society").

To incorporate into a new body (hereinafter called "the Corporation") the members of the Society, or some of them, and other Bishops and Clergy of the Church who may join the new Fund.

To define the property and assets now held and administered by the Society for the relief of the widows and children of its members (hereinafter referred to as "the General Fund of the Society"), and the property and assets held by the Society for purposes other than or not connected with the relief of such widows and orphans (hereinafter referred to as "the Special Funds of the Society"), and to separate and divide such funds where intermixed.

To transfer to or vest in, or provide for the transfer to or vesting in the Corporation for the purposes of the Order of the General Fund of the Society and the benefit of all legacies, donations, and gifts which might otherwise accrue to the Society, and to indemnify the Society from all liability in relation thereto.

To authorise the Representative Church Council of the Church (hereinafter called "the Church Council") to contribute to the Corporation.

To provide for the management of the Corporation and the Fund by directors and officers elected by the Corporation and the Church Council, or either of them, or partly by the one and partly by the other of them, and to make provisions as to the election, retirement, suspension, or removal of the Presidents, Vice-Presidents, Directors, Officers, and Servants of the Corporation; the meetings of directors and members of the Corporation; the voting of members; the audit of accounts; the periodical investigation of the affairs of the Corporation; the investment of its funds; and the borrowing of money for the purposes of the Corporation.

To define the powers and duties of the President, Vice-Presidents, Directors, Officers, and Servants, and provide for the indemnity from liability of Directors and Trustees, and to make other provisions for the management, regulation, and control of the Corporation and its affairs.

To enable the Corporation to alter or rescind the provisions of the Order regulating the Corporation, and to make, alter, or rescind other provisions, bye-laws, or regulations in lieu of, or in addition thereto.

To provide for the payment by the Corporation of the annuities to which the widows and children of past and present members of the Society are or may become entitled. To define the amount of such annuities and the conditions attaching thereto, and to alter the condition as to forfeiture in the event of members leaving Scotland.

To make such annuities preferable or first charges on the property and assets of the Corporation.

To relieve the members of the Society from all or some of the contributions and other payments now payable by them under the rules of the Society in respect of such annuities.

To declare, or to enable the Corporation or members thereof to fix, the terms and conditions upon which Bishops or Clergy of the Church may join the Fund; the benefits or annuities to be granted to their widows and orphans; the contributions, fines, fees, taxes, or other sums to be payable by them; and to enable the Corporation, or its members or directors, to alter or vary such terms and conditions, benefits, annuities, contributions, and payments.

To authorise the Directors to make special arrangements with Clergy serving in Foreign Mission Fields as to the terms on which they may join the Fund.

To authorise the Corporation and the Directors to take over and keep up or surrender any policies of assurance belonging to members, or to free Bishops and Clergy holding such policies under certain conditions from becoming members of the Corporation.

To declare that Clergy holding Home Mission charges, and accepting equal dividend charges, and Bishops and Clergy hereafter coming to serve the Church, and holding appointments giving right to participate in the Clergy Sustentation Fund and Home Mission Fund of the Church Council or other Church Funds, and such other Bishops and Clergy as may be prescribed by the Order shall under such circumstances, and with such exceptions as may be provided in the Order, be and become members of the Corporation, or to make provisions with that object.

To authorise and require the Church Council or their Treasurer, in such cases as may be prescribed, to pay the contributions and other payments due from members of the Corporation out of any sums payable to such members from the Clergy Sustentation Fund, Home Mission Fund, Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, or other funds of the Church Council, and to enable the Corporation or the Directors to recover the same accordingly.

To provide for the nomination by members of the persons to whom annuities shall be payable.

To provide for the forfeiture of membership in the Corporation, and of any benefit or annuity payable under the Order to which he or his widow and children may be or would become entitled in the case of the deprivation from office or degradation of any member, or on his forsaking the service or communion of the Church or taking to worldly business, or in case of his default in paying the contributions and payments due to the Corporation, or such of those causes or for such other reasons as may be prescribed, and for the surrender by any member of any such benefit or annuity, and the restoration of any member in his membership and interest in the Fund on such terms as may be prescribed by the Order.

To authorise the Corporation and its Directors, they think fit, to make ex gratia payments to the widows and children of members in the case of forfeiture of their interests, or in such other cases as they think fit.

To declare the annuities to be alimentary provisions in favour of those entitled thereto, and to provide for the deduction therefrom of any sums due by members to the Corporation, and to make such other provisions in relation to the annuities and the conditions and payment thereof and the settlement of disputes by arbitration as may be necessary or expedient.

To provide pensions to officers and servants of the Society or Corporation.

To empower the Corporation to hold and administer Diocesan and other trust funds devoted to purposes similar to those of the Corporation.

To transfer to and vest in, or provide for the transfer to and vesting in Trustees for the Church Council of the funds held by the Society in trust for special purposes; and to provide for the same being held by the Trustees of the Church Council for the like purposes; and to provide for all legacies, donations, and gifts which would otherwise accrue to the Society for purposes other than the relief of the widows and children of its members vesting in the Trustees of the Church Council; and to relieve the Society from all liability in respect thereof; and to authorise such Trustees to hold and administer the trusts of such funds.

To enable the Corporation or Directors to confirm or disallow any admission to or restoration to membership of the Society after such date as may be fixed, and to make provisions in relation thereto.

To provide for the payment of the costs of the Order by the Church Council.

To alter, amend, or repeal all or some of the provisions, rules, and regulations of the Society and of the Friendly Societies Act, 1896, and the Life Assurance Companies Acts, 1870, 1871, and 1872, or any Acts amending the same, for the purposes of the Order, and to limit the amount required to be deposited under the last-mentioned Acts.

To vary and extinguish any rights and privileges which may impede or interfere with the objects and purposes of the Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

The Petition and Draft Order and printed copies thereof will be deposited at the Office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London, on the 17th day of December next.

The subsequent procedure will be by way of Provisional Order, unless it is otherwise decided in terms of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, in which case the procedure may be by way of Private Bill, and this Notice will, subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Bill.

Dated this 10th day of November 1902.

Scottish Office—Provisional Order,
Session 1903.

Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act,

THE SCOTTISH AMERICAN MORTGAGE COMPANY, LIMITED.

(Rearrangement and definition of Capital; Division and Conversion of Capital into different Classes; Payment of Amount of Uncalled Liability on Shares; Repayment of Uncalled Capital Prepaid; Conversion of Prepaid Capital into Shares or Stock; Enlargement, Variation, and Regulation of Rights of Holders of different Classes of Shares and Stocks, Dividends, Profits, Voting and Distribution of Capital on Winding-up Borrowing Powers; Extension and Enlargement of the Investing and other Powers of the Company, Powers of Amalgamation with other Companies; Amendment, Alteration, or Repeal of Memorandum and Articles of Association, and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Secretary for Scotland by Petition under the Provisions of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, for a Provisional Order promoted by the Scottish American Mortgage Company, Limited (hereinafter called "The Company"), whose Registered Office is in Scotland, for the following or some of the following Objects, Powers, and Purposes—that is to say:—

1. To rearrange, alter, or increase and to define the whole or any part of the Capital of the Company, and to divide, convert, consolidate the whole or part of the Capital into Stocks and into Shares of the same or different classes and denominations; and define and prescribe the rights, privileges, and preferences to be attached to the Shares and Stocks arising from such rearrangement, increase, alteration, division, conversion or consolidation of Capital, all in such way and manner, and to such extent and of such amounts and by such methods as the intended Provisional Order may prescribe.

2. To authorise and empower the Company to repay to Shareholders any sums paid in advance of calls, or to accept and retain prepaid calls by any Shareholders, and to attribute to and hold the same as payment in respect of Shares, and to issue Shares or Stocks therefor of such denominations or classes, and with the same or such other rights, privileges, or priorities with respect to ranking dividends capital voting, or otherwise, as belong to all, or any, of the existing Stocks or Shares of the Company, and to the holders thereof; and to create and issue the same as Preference Shares, or Preference Stock, or otherwise as may be set forth in the Order.

3. To vary or alter the names of the existing Shares and Stocks, and the Dividend, Capital, Voting or other rights, privileges, liabilities, and incidents attached to the existing Shares and Stocks and to the holders thereof.

4. To provide for the distribution, allocation, or substitution of the whole or part of the Shares or Stock resulting from any rearrangement, increase, alteration, division, or consolidation of the whole or part of the existing Capital.

5. To confirm in whole or in part any distribution or declaration of Profits of the Company as to the amount distributed or declared, and as to the recipients thereof.

6. To provide for the cancellation, in whole or in part, of any Shares or any rights, vested or contingent, of any class, or classes, of Shares or Stock in Dividends, Profits, or Capital of the Company.

7. To amend, alter, or repeal the existing Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company, or either of them, or to substitute, in whole or in part, new Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company, or either of them, and to confirm the same by the Order, all as the said Order may prescribe.

8. To require Executors of Shareholders to register or to dispose of Shares on which there is an uncalled liability within a fixed period after the death of the holders, and to enable the Company to stop the payment of Dividends during default of such requirement, and to sell such Shares and to provide for the disposal of the proceeds.

9. To provide that any reference to the Shares of the Company in testamentary or other instruments executed before the passing of the Order shall apply to the classes of Shares or Stock to be created under the Order.

10. To provide for the filing with the Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies of the Order and the Confirming Act, and of any new or amended Memorandum and Articles of Association, or either of them, and of all resolutions or memoranda in connection with the purposes of the Order.

11. To authorise the Company to borrow or raise and receive money from any person, corporation, or company, within or beyond the United Kingdom, by way of discount, cash credit, or overdraft, or by Bond, Debenture Stock, Mortgage Bills, Promissory Notes, or receipt, or in any other manner whatsoever, and to grant security on Bills, Promissory Notes, or cash credit or ordinary Bonds and Dispositions in Security, and to issue all such other writs or documents or certificates or acknowledgments to bearer or otherwise as the Company think fit, or as the Order may prescribe, and to grant security upon all or any of the Property and Assets or Revenue of the Company, and either upon terminable and redeemable or perpetual terms, and to confer all such powers as may be necessary and as the Order may prescribe, and to extend and enlarge the borrowing powers of the Company accordingly.

12. To empower the Company to amalgamate the business of the Company with any Company or Person, or to acquire or purchase any other business or any interest therein, whether within or beyond the United Kingdom, either by purchase or in any other manner, and to make or accept payment in money or in shares, stocks, or otherwise, whether fully or partly paid up.

13. To authorise the Company to exercise, both within the United Kingdom and anywhere beyond the United Kingdom, in addition to any existing powers possessed by the Company, the following, or some of the following, powers—that is to say:—(1) Power to purchase and acquire any property, heritable or moveable, real or personal, and any business, and any claims, debts, rights, and privileges, and shares, stocks, bonds, mortgages, inventions, patents, concessions, and the like, and merchandise of every kind and description, and carry on business, or assist other persons in so doing, in any manner and on any terms the Company may think fit; and to expend the money of the Company in experimenting upon, testing, and developing, or improving any property or rights in the same or otherwise. (2) To lend money to any Government, public body, trust, or authority of any kind or description, municipal or local, and to any Company partnership, persons, or associations, either without or upon security of the undertaking property, assets, or effects of any such body or others as aforesaid to whom money may be lent, and that on such terms as the Company may deem expedient. (3) To hold, improve, manage, develop, sell, feu, lease, mortgage, or otherwise use or dispose of any portion of the assets and effects of the Company, and to carry on, work, and develop any business or property of any kind in which the Company may be interested, and to join with others in so doing, and to employ persons for any such purpose. (4) To execute the office of trustee, executor, receiver, factor, or liquidator, and to undertake and execute Trusts, public and private, and to perform all such duties incident thereto, or connected therewith, either gratuitously, or for such consideration as the Company think fit. (5) To act as Agents for any Government, public body, Trust, or Authority, or for any persons, Partnerships, Associations, Joint Stock, and other Companies, whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, in the conduct of any business, and in the issue of any shares, stocks, or obligations, or any other security of any kind or description whatsoever, and to undertake and guarantee the same and the due payment of principal and interest to the holders, and to make and advance loans upon the security thereof. (6) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company to be expedient or convenient for, and in connection with, the exercise of the powers conferred by the Order; (7) to obtain registration of the Company, or any other Company, in the United Kingdom or in any Colony, Dependency, State, Territory, Province, or foreign country, and to do whatever else may be necessary or expedient to comply with the laws and customs of any such place or places; (8) to do all other matters and things either alone or in conjunction with any other Company, Trust, Corporation, or persons which may be necessary or convenient for carrying on or transacting any business of the Company wheresoever situated and to appoint Trustee or Trustees to hold on behalf of the Company any property real or personal.

14. To alter, vary, amend, or repeal, or to confirm so far as may be necessary or expedient for any of the purposes of the Order, all or some of the provisions of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company and all or any of the resolutions of the Company, and to vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with the objects of the intended Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

15. The Petition and printed copies thereof and of the draft Order will be lodged at the Office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London, on the 17th day of December next, and on the same day a printed copy of the draft Order will be deposited in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments and in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

16. The subsequent procedure will be by way of Provisional Order, unless it is otherwise decided in terms of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, in which case the procedure may be by way of Private Bill, and this Notice and the Deposits will, subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Bill.

Dated this 8th day of November 1902.
