LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,
ST. JAMES' PALACE, January 1, 1903.

NOTICE is hereby given that Their Majesties the King and Queen will hold a series of Courts at Buckingham Palace during the coming season, at which presentations of Ladies to Their Majesties will be made.

Attendance and Presentation at these Courts will be by Invitation only, conveyed through the Lord Chamberlain.

Ladies who have already been presented at Court, and who are desirous of being invited to these Courts, are requested to send in their names, together with those of their husbands, if they have been presented, to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James' Palace, as soon as possible. Should they desire to make a presentation, the name of the Lady to be presented should be sent in at the same time. The Lord Chamberlain will be glad if Ladies will state, in addition, when it will be most convenient to them to pay their respects to Their Majesties.

Gentlemen who come in attendance on their families are not expected to pass the Presence.

A Lady who makes a presentation to Their Majesties must be personally acquainted with and responsible for the Lady she presents. She must herself attend the Court, and cannot present more than one Lady in addition to her daughter or daughter-in-law.

If it should not be convenient for a Lady to attend or be presented at the particular Court to which she is invited, it will be open to her to make her excuses to the Lord Chamberlain in writing, when her name can, if desired, and if possible, be transferred to another List.

The Courts will be held in the evening.
The Dress Regulations are:—Ladies—Full Court dress with feathers and trains. Gentlemen—Full Court dress.

A further notice will be published as to the dates, the issue of Presentation Cards, and other arrangements.
