FRIDAY, MARCH 13, 1903.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of March 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixteen of the Elementary Education Act, 1876, it is enacted as follows:—

“It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, to apply to a certified day industrial school the provisions of the Industrial Schools Act, 1866, and the Acts amending the same, with such modifications as appear to Her Majesty to be necessary or proper for adapting such provisions to a day industrial school, and bringing them into conformity with this Act. * * * * *

“It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, to revoke and vary any Order in Council made under this section.

“Every such Order shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within one month after it is made, if Parliament be then sitting, or if not, within one month after the beginning of the then next session of Parliament, and while in force shall have effect as if it were enacted in this Act.”

And whereas sub-section nine of section three of the Day Industrial Schools (Scotland) Act, 1893, contains similar enactments with respect to Scotland.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the above-mentioned Acts, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, to order that the following provisions, being modified provisions of the Industrial Schools Act, 1866, and of Acts amending the same, shall apply to certified day industrial schools.

Extent of Order.

1. This Order shall not apply to Ireland.

Provisions as to Orders of Detention, Attendance Orders, Contributions of Parents, &c.

2. Whereas it is enacted by section sixteen of the Elementary Education Act, 1876, as follows:—

“Where a Court of summary jurisdiction orders otherwise than by an attendance order under this Act a child to be sent to a certified day industrial school, the Court shall also order the parent of such child, if liable to maintain him, to contribute to his industrial training, elementary education, and meals in the school such sum not exceeding two shillings per week as is named in the order; it shall be the duty of the Local Authority to obtain and enforce the said order, and every sum paid under the order shall be paid over to the Local Authority in aid of their expenses under this Act.”

And whereas by section three of the Day Industrial Schools (Scotland) Act, 1873, it is enacted that:—

“(7.) Where a Court of summary jurisdiction orders a child to be sent to a certified day industrial school, the Court shall also order the parent of such child, if liable to maintain him, to contribute to his industrial training, elementary education, and meals in the school such sum not exceeding two shillings per week as is named in the order: it shall be the duty of the School Board to obtain and enforce the said order, and every sum paid under the order shall be paid into the school fund.”
