1. To authorise the Scottish Ontario and Manitoba Land Company Limited, incorporated under the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1900 (hereinafter called "the Company") at any time and from time to time to repay to the Shareholders of the Company out of the paid-up capital or other funds of the Company for the time being, such proportion of the amount paid up on the shares of the Company, and in such manner and at such date or dates as the directors shall think expedient, and or as may be determined by a resolution passed at a General or other Meeting of the Shareholders of the Company, or in such other manner as the Order may prescribe or as may be provided by the Order, and so far as necessary to provide for the passing of any such resolution.

2. To provide that upon any such repayment as aforesaid, the capital of the Company shall be reduced or cancelled by the amount so repaid, and the nominal value of and amount paid up on each issued share of the capital of the Company shall be reduced by the amount repaid in respect of each such share, and in the case of each unissued share by the same amount as in the case of each issued share, and to make provision so far as necessary for carrying such reduction and cancellation into effect.

3. To provide that the Directors of the Company shall cause a minute, showing the particulars required by the Companies Act, 1867, in the case of a reduction of capital effected under that Act, to be filed with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, and to provide for the registration of such minute.

4. To provide for notice in such manner and at such times as the Order may prescribe to the creditors of the Company of any repayment and reduction of the capital of the Company proposed to be made under the provisions of the Order, and to require repayment or deposit by the Company in bank or otherwise of the amount of any debts of or claims on the Company previous to such repayment or reduction.

5. To make provision for deciding the validity of any debt of or claim upon the Company, and for the application of any deposit made by the Company in bank or otherwise in respect thereof, or for the continued deposit thereof, or for the repayment thereof to the Company.

6. To provide that the total repayments to be made to the shareholders of the Company, under the provisions of the Order shall not exceed a sum per share to be specified in the Order.

7. To alter, repeal, or amend the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1900, and the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company, and to confer, vary, or extinguish certain rights and privileges.

8. To provide that all costs, charges, and expenses preliminary to and of, and incidental to the preparing, applying for, obtaining, passing, and confirmation of the Order or otherwise, in relation thereto, shall be paid by the Company.

The Petition and draft Order and printed copies thereof, will be deposited at the office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London, on or before the seventeenth day of April next.

The subsequent procedure in respect of the said application will be by way of Provisional Order (unless it be otherwise decided in terms of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899), in which case this Notice will, subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Bill.

Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act,

WICK AND PULTENEY HARBOURS.

(Amendment of the Wick and Pulteney Harbours Acts, 1879 to 1899, and the Wick Burgh Extension Order Confirmation Act, 1902; Alteration of the Provisions of those Acts with respect to the Qualification, Disqualification, and Election of Harbour Trustees; Extension and Improvement of Harbours; Acquisition of Land; Appointment of single Arbitrator to determine questions of Compensation; Arbitrator to have regard to benefit to remaining or contiguous Lands; Alteration and Increase of Rates, Duties, and Charges, and additional provisions for recovering same; Imposition of new Rates, Duties, and Charges; Borrowing Powers, Bye-Laws, and Regulations; Power to Corporation of Royal Burgh of Wick to guarantee Harbour Loan, and provisionally to assess the Harbours for Municipal purposes on the full annual valuation thereof; Power to Trustees to make charges for services not otherwise provided for; Superannuation Allowances to Officers and Servants of the Trustees; Amendment and Incorporation of Acts; and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Secretary for Scotland by Petition under the provisions of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act,

1899, for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called "the Order") promoted by the Wick and Pulteney Harbours Trustees, incorporated by the Wick and Pulteney Harbours Acts, 1879 to 1899 (in this notice called "the Trustees") for the following or some of the following objects, powers, and purposes, that is to say:—

1. To repeal, vary, alter, or amend the provisions, or some of the provisions, of the Pulteney Harbour Act, 1879 (hereinafter called the "Act of 1879"), the Wick and Pulteney Harbours Order, 1883 (hereinafter called the "Order of 1883"), and the Wick and Pulteney Harbours Act, 1899 (hereinafter called the "Act of 1899"),—the said Acts and the Order of 1883 being hereinafter referred to collectively as "the Harbour Acts,"—and to make new or altered provisions for the qualification, registration, and voting of the ratepayers of the Harbour and of members of Companies and Corporations as such ratepayers; to extend and amend the provisions of the Harbour Acts with regard to the electoral qualification and registration of the shipowners of the Burgh, and to make new or altered provisions for the electoral qualification and registration of members of Companies and Corporations as such shipowners; to amend and extend the provisions of the Harbour Acts with respect to the electoral qualification and registration of joint owners of vessels and fishing boats; to make provision for the qualification and registration of female electors to vote in the elections of the elected Trustees as prescribed by the Harbour Acts; and to make further and other provisions as the Order will or may prescribe with regard to the constitution, qualification, election, and disqualification of the Trustees.

2. To authorise and empower the Trustees to extend, improve, and deepen Wick and Pulteney Harbours (hereinafter referred to as "the Harbours") and the approaches thereto, and in connection therewith to make, construct, execute, carry out, and maintain the works hereinafter described, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof, together with all necessary and proper embankments, excavations, piers, quays, breakwaters, jetties, wharves, mooring buoys, and mooring posts, cranes, shears, and other machinery, sheds, roads, bridges, approaches, rails, railway sidings, tramways, slips, landing places, and other works and conveniences, in connection with the existing works of the harbours and the intended works or some of them. The works hereinbefore referred to are the following:—

- (1) A pier or breakwater on the south shore of the Bay of Wick, commencing at the north-eastern extremity of the existing south pier of the harbour, and extending in a north-easterly direction for a distance of two hundred feet or thereby from said point of commencement and there terminating, which work will be solid throughout:
- (2) A breakwater or groyne on the north shore of the Bay of Wick, commencing at the south-western extremity of the existing east pier at Port Dunbar, and extending for one hundred and fifty feet or thereby in a south-westerly direction, and thence in a south or south-easterly direction for a distance of seven hundred and twenty-five feet or thereby, and there terminating in the bed of the sea at a point one hundred and eighty feet or thereby north of the point of termination of work number (1), which work will be solid throughout:

- (3) A quay wall commencing at the north-east end of the harbour bridge over the River of Wick, and proceeding thence in a north-easterly direction for a distance of two hundred and seventy-five feet or thereby, thence in an easterly direction for a distance of one thousand two hundred and thirty feet or thereby, and terminating there by a junction with work number (4), which work will be solid throughout:
- (4) A quay commencing at the termination of work number (3), and proceeding in a south-westerly direction for a distance of four hundred feet or thereby and there terminating, which work will be solid throughout:
- (5) A retaining wall commencing at the north end of work number (4) and proceeding in an easterly direction for a distance of three hundred and thirty feet or thereby, and there terminating by its junction with work number (2), which work will be solid throughout:
- (6) A retaining wall commencing at the west end of the existing east pier at Port Dunbar, and proceeding in an easterly direction for a distance of six hundred and seventy feet or thereby, thence in a north-easterly direction for a distance of one hundred and five feet or thereby, and there terminating, which work will be solid throughout:
- (7) The reclamation, raising, and making up of the ground or foreshore enclosed by works numbers (3) (5) and (6):
- (8) A river wall along the southern bank of the River of Wick, commencing at the north-east corner of the south abutment of the harbour bridge over the River of Wick, and proceeding thence in an easterly direction for a distance of three hundred and ninety feet or thereby, thence in a south-easterly direction for a distance of one hundred and forty feet or thereby, and there terminating, which work will be solid throughout:
- (9) A pier commencing at the termination of the river wall (work number 8), and proceeding in a south-easterly direction for a distance of two hundred and thirty-five feet or thereby, thence in a south-westerly direction for a distance of one hundred and fifteen feet or thereby, and there terminating, which work will be solid throughout:
- (10) A quay wall, commencing at a point on the north side of the north pier of the harbour one thousand four hundred and seventy feet or thereby from the outer or seaward extremity thereof, and proceeding thence in a north-easterly direction for a distance of one hundred and sixty feet or thereby, and terminating there by a junction with work number (9), which work will be solid throughout:
- (11) The reclamation, raising, and making up of the ground or foreshore, enclosed by works numbers (8) and (10), and the existing north pier wall:
- (12) A quay wall, commencing at a point on the north side of the north pier one thousand four hundred and seventy feet or thereby from the outer or seaward extremity of the said north pier, and proceeding thence in a south-easterly direction for a distance of one thousand four hundred and seventy-five feet or thereby, and terminating there by a junction with head of the north pier, which work will be solid throughout :

- (13) A spur wall, commencing at a point two hundred and thirty-five feet or thereby from the commencement of work number (12), and proceeding in a north-easterly direction for a distance of twenty-five feet or thereby, and there terminating, which work will be solid throughout :
- (14) A pier, commencing at a point eight hundred feet or thereby from the commencement of work number (12), and proceeding thence in a north-easterly direction for a distance of two hundred and sixty feet or thereby, and there terminating, which work will be solid throughout :
- (15) A boat repairing dock or basin, situated to the north of the north pier, and enclosed by works numbers (9), (10), (12), and (13) :
- (16) A tidal basin, situated in the estuary of the River of Wick, bounded on the south by work number (12), on the east by work number (14), and on the west by works numbers (13) and (9) :
- (17) The refacing with a wall, partly of concrete and partly of masonry, of the existing South Quay of the outer basin of the Harbour.
- (18) The deepening and improving of the channel and estuary of the River of Wick and of the Bay of Wick westward of a line extending from the termination of works numbers (1) and (2) to a line extending between the commencement of work number (9) and the commencement of work number (8) :

All which intended works will be situated within the Royal and Parliamentary Burgh of Wick, Parish of Wick, and County of Caithness, and on the foreshore and in the sea adjacent thereto.

3. To authorise the Trustees to purchase and take by compulsion, notwithstanding section 90 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, a part or parts of any house, building, or factory, without being required to purchase the whole thereof.

4. To authorise the Trustees to deviate laterally and vertically from the lines and levels of the Works to be authorised by the Order, as shown on the plans and sections hereinafter mentioned, to the extent shown thereon, or as may be prescribed by the Order.

5. To extend and define the limits of the Harbour, and to include therein the Works which may be constructed under the Order.

6. To empower the Trustees to purchase, acquire, enter upon, appropriate, take and use, temporarily or permanently, and either compulsorily or by agreement, and to hold and use all such lands, houses, heritages, buildings, and other property, and the foreshore and bed of the sea, within the foresaid Burgh and Parish and ex adverso thereof, as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the foresaid works, or any of them, and for the Order, and to acquire easements, rights, and servitudes, in, under, or over the same ; and, in particular, to empower the Trustees to purchase, acquire, enter upon, appropriate, take, and use, compulsorily or by agreement, for the purposes of the Works, the portion of the ground or lands of the Royal Burgh of Wick, known as the Burgh Wharf, situated in the Burgh and Parish of Wick, the quantity which may be taken extending to one-third of an acre or thereby, or such portion of the said Wharf as may be required for the purpose of the Order.

7. To make provision for the appointment of a single arbiter to settle any question of disputed compensation arising under the Order, and to alter, vary, or amend the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect thereto ; and further, to provide that in fixing and determining any claim for compensation, the arbiter shall have regard to, and shall take into account, the extent and amount to which the remaining or the contiguous lands of the same owner may be benefited by the works, or any part of the same, authorised by the Order.

8. To authorise the Trustees to open, break up, use, cross, divert, alter, stop up, or otherwise interfere with, either temporarily or permanently, roads, streets, lanes, passages, bridges, streams, rivers, foreshore, water and gas mains, and pipes, water courses, sewers, drains, telegraphic, telephonic or electric tubes, wires, or apparatus, or other works, which it may be necessary or expedient to cross, break up, alter, appropriate, or divert, for effecting the objects and purposes of the Order.

9. To empower the Trustees to dredge, scour, deepen, and improve the Harbour, and the waterways, channels, and bed of the sea adjacent thereto, to such extent and in such manner as they may think fit, or as the Order may provide.

10. To empower the Trustees from time to time during the construction of the works to be authorised by the Order, to shut up, either wholly or partially, the harbour and works connected therewith, or any part or parts thereof.

11. To make additional provision for the management, control, and regulation of the harbour, and the use thereof by vessels and fishing boats, and to provide for the punishment of unauthorised persons opening or shutting any swing bridge, dock gate, caisson, sluice, or flow, belonging to the Trustees, without the consent of the harbour master, and also for the imposition of a penalty on the master, pilot, or any person in charge of any vessel entering or leaving, or intending to enter or leave the harbour, giving a false statement to the harbour master with regard to the draught of water of vessels.

12. To alter and increase all or some of the rates and dues on vessels and goods, and other rates, dues, charges, and payments, authorised by the Harbour Acts, and to empower the Trustees from time to time, subject to the provisions of the Order, to revise, increase, or diminish the rates, dues, charges, and other payments authorised by the Harbour Acts, and to levy, demand, and recover such rates, dues, charges, and other payments, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment thereof, or enter into composition with respect thereto.

13. To make bye-laws, and to alter, vary, and rescind existing bye-laws, and to make any new or existing bye-laws applicable to the existing harbour and to the works authorised by the Order, and in particular to empower the Trustees to make such bye-laws as they may think fit for regulating the use of the harbour by young persons under the age of fourteen years; to provide for making the parents or legal guardians of such young persons responsible for any breach or infraction of such bye-laws, after due notice of previous infringement, and to make provision for the imposition of penalties for contravention of such bye-laws.

14. To authorise and empower the Trustees to levy, demand, and take such rates, rents, charges, and duties as they may fix, subject to the approval of the Board of Trade, for the use by vessels of any boat, repairing dock, graving dock, dry dock, grid-iron, or inclined plane or slip, provided or to be provided by the Trustees, and to make provision for the recovery of said rates, rents, charges, and duties.

15. To authorise the Trustees to apply their existing funds and revenues, and to borrow, and from time to time re-borrow, money for the construction of the proposed works, the acquisition of lands, and for the general purposes of the harbour undertaking and of the Order, on bond, mortgage, annuity, debenture, or cash credit, or otherwise on the security of the rates, rents, duties, and charges already existing, or to be authorised by the Order, and the other revenue of the Trustees, and the lands, works, and property belonging to or vested in the Trustees, and to make provision for the repayment of borrowed money by a sinking fund, or otherwise as the Order may prescribe.

16. To empower the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Royal Burgh of Wick, as such, and as Commissioners of the said Royal Burgh under the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, as a rating authority, as defined by the Public Works Loans Act, 1882, or otherwise, to charge the police assessments or other assessments leviable by them, and any other funds or rates under their control, or any or either of such funds or rates as may be provided by the Order, for the purpose of aiding the Trustees in raising a loan or loans, or any part thereof, for the purposes of the Order, from the Public Works Loan Commissioners, or from any other authority, company, or person, and to give such aid by guaranteeing the principal and interest of the loan or loans, or by borrowing the sum required and advancing it to the Trustees, or partly in one way and partly in the other, or otherwise as may be prescribed by the Order.

The Order will also contain all such provisions with reference to such guarantee, either by the incorporation of the existing provisions of the Wick Burgh Extension Order Confirmation Act, 1902, with respect to collateral security for a harbour loan, or otherwise as may be competent, or as are required by the Public Works Loans Act, 1882, and will authorise the said Town Council and Commissioners foresaid to guarantee any loan to the Trustees by any person, and will enable them to apply funds and levy rates and assessments for such purposes.

17. To provide that the assessments on the harbour and property of the Trustees within the harbour area for all municipal or other purposes leviable by or payable to the Corporation of the Burgh of Wick by virtue of any statute shall, notwithstanding the provisions of the Wick Burgh Extension Order Confirmation Act, 1902, be imposed on the full annual value thereof, as entered in the valuation roll of the Burgh of Wick, when and so long as the Corporation shall advance or pay any monies in respect of any guarantee or pecuniary obligation which may be granted by them for any loan to the Trustees for the works to be authorised by the Order.

18. To make provision for the quays of the Trustees being public and legal quays.

19. To empower the Trustees to let or lease any lands or premises which may be acquired by them under the authority of the Order, or any lands in the neighbourhood thereof authorised to be reclaimed by the Order, to fish dealers, fish-curers, or other persons, and on such terms as the Trustees may think fit, and to levy and recover rents and stallages in respect thereof, and to make other provisions in relation thereto; and to empower the Trustees to sell, feu, let, or lease, or otherwise dispose of, any lands or property vested in them, and which may not be required for the purposes of the Order or the Harbour undertaking.

20. To empower the Trustees to reward any officer or other person employed by them for meritorious services, and to make provision for any officer or other person employed by them who may at any time be disabled in, or after long service be unfitted for, the execution of his duty.

21. To authorise the Trustees to make reasonable charges for all work done, services rendered or facilities afforded, for the despatch of business not otherwise expressly provided for by the Harbour Acts and this Order.

22. To make agreements, and to confirm any agreements which have been made, or may be made, between the Trustees and the Town Council, Burgh Commissioners, or any Local or Road Authority, Company, or person, in respect of all or any of the purposes of the Order.

23. To vary or extinguish all rights, powers, privileges, authorities, jurisdictions, inconsistent with, or which may interfere with, the objects or purposes of the Order, or any of them, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

24. To incorporate with and to extend and make applicable to the purposes of the Order, with or without modification, alteration, or amendment, all or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, the Harbours and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, the Harbours and Passing Tolls, &c., Act, 1861, the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, the Public Works Loans Act, 1882, the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, and any Act or Acts amending those Acts, and the Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, with respect to the temporary occupation of lands, and the crossing of roads and other interference therewith, and the Pulteney Harbour Act, 1879, the Wick and Pulteney Harbours Order 1883; the Wick and Pulteney Harbours Act, 1899, the Arbitration (Scotland) Act, 1894, the Wick Burgh Extension Order Confirmation Act, 1902, or any Act or Acts amending any of the said Acts.

25. To alter, vary, amend, and extend, or repeal, so far as may be necessary or desirable for the purposes of the Order, the whole or some of the provisions of the Harbour Acts, the Wick Burgh Extension Order Confirmation Act, 1902, and any other Acts of or relating to the Harbour or to the Trustees or their undertaking, and any Act incorporated therewith, the Salmon Fisheries (Scotland) Act, 1868, the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Roads and Bridges (Scotland) Act, 1878, the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, and the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, and any Act or Acts amending or extending any of the said Acts.

26. And notice is also further given that Duplicate Plans and Sections, describing the lines and situations and levels of the several Works hereinbefore described, and the lands, houses, and other property, which may be taken for the purposes thereof, and a Book of Reference to the said Plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, leasees, or reputed leasees, and the occupiers of such lands and other property, and a copy of this Notice, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will, on or before the 31st day of March current, be deposited for public inspection in the office in Wick of the Principal Sheriff Clerk of the County of Caithness; and a copy of the said Plans, and Sections, and Book of Reference, as relates to the said Parish of Wick, and to the Royal and Parliamentary Burgh of Wick, and a copy of this Notice, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will, on or before the said 31st day of March current, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Parish Council of the said Parish of Wick at his Office in Wick; and as regards the said Royal and Parliamentary Burgh of Wick, with the Town Clerk, at his Office in Wick.

27. The Petition for the Order and printed copies thereof, and of the Draft Order, will be lodged at the office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London, on the 17th day of April next, and on the same day a printed copy of the Draft Order will be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

28. The subsequent procedure will be by way of Provisional Order, unless it is otherwise decided in terms of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, in which case the procedure may be by way of Private Bill, and this Notice and the deposits will, subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Bill.
