APETITION or Application having been presented to the Sheriff of the County of Ayr, under the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, by Alexander M'Gregor, Ironfounder, Ardeer Foundry, Stevenston, and others, being more than seven householders in the sense and meaning of said Act in the Area within the boundaries after specified and defined, in which the Petitioners pray the Court—

To appoint and direct a proper person to ascertain and report the number of the population of the Area comprised within the following boundaries, namely, a line commencing at the east boundary line of the Burgh of Saltcoats where it crosses the Highway from Saltcoats to Stevenston on the west side of the Gatehouse at the entrance to the Avenue leading from said Road to Auchendarvie House; thence north along said boundary line and continuing in the same line northwards to a point 50 yards on the north side of the north fence of the Highway from Saltcoats to Stevenston in the field No. 250 on the Ordnance Map or Plan for Stevenston Parish Second Edition—which Map or Plan is hereinafter called the Map; thence north-east in a straight line across the fields and strips of plantation numbered in the Map 250, 252, 266, 265, 263, 262, 286, and 345, to the north-west fence of the strip of plantation on the north-west side of Kerelaw Mains Farm Steading and along said fence to the road leading from Stevenston to Kerelaw House; thence southwards along the east fence of said Road to the Bridge which carries said Road over the Breakplough Burn; thence along the north-east side of said Burn till it joins the Stevenston Burn; thence along the west side of said Stevenston Burn to a point opposite the south fence of the field numbered 176 on the Map; thence eastwards along the line of the south fence of the fields or enclosures numbered 176, 175, and 174 on the Map to the west side of the Road from Stevenston to Hayocks; thence along the west side of said Road till it joins the Highway from Stevenston to Kilwinning; thence continuing in a straight line across said Road due south for about 99 yards; thence east along the north wall of Ardeer Gardens for about 190 yards, then south through said Gardens for about 120 yards; thence west along the south boundary of Ardeer Office Houses to the entrance to the Paddock; thence south in a straight line to the north fence of the Lanarkshire and Ayrshire Railway Main Line; thence east along said north fence to the north side of the Glasgow and South-Western Railway Main Line; thence north-east along the north fence of the said Main Line for 250 yards to the point on that side opposite to the point on the south side of said Main Line, where the said Main Line is joined by the Branch Mineral Railway to Ardeer Factory; thence in a straight line south to the northernmost point of the west boundary of Nobel's Ardeer Factory, and thence due south along the line of the said west boundary and continuation of same line to a point 100 yards below the low water-mark of the Sea; thence westwards along the Sea Shore and keeping 100 yards below low water-mark to a point due south of the west side of the Bridge which carries the Glasgow and South-Western Railway Main Line over the Stevenston Burn; thence north-west in a straight line to the east side of the Lanarkshire and Ayrshire Railway Bridge near Auchendarvie Brickwork; thence northwards along the fence between Auchendarvie Brickwork and Colliery and the fields numbered on the Map 226, 230, and 231 to a point 100 feet on the south side of the south fence of the Highway from Boglemart Street, Stevenston, to Saltcoats; and thence westwards, keeping 100 feet south of the south fence of said Highway to the eastern boundary of the Burgh of Saltcoats,—which Area is situated within the Parish of Stevenston and County of Ayr, and forms a populous place within the meaning of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, and is commonly known as the Town of STEVENSTON; and thereafter to determine whether the Area included in the said boundaries or any part thereof, considering the number of dwelling-houses within it, and the density of the population, is in substance a Town, and is suitable for being formed into a Police Burgh; and, on the Court being satisfied on these points, to define in a written Deliverance the boundaries of the said populous place; (2) to grant Warrant to record this Application and the Deliverances thereon in the Court Books of the said County,—the said Sheriff has pronounced the following Deliverance on the said Petition or Application:—

“Edinburgh, 14th July 1903.—The Sheriff, having considered the foregoing Petition, appoints intimation of the same, of the boundaries proposed for the said intended Burgh as set forth in the Petition, and of this Deliverance, to be given by advertisement for two successive weeks in the Edinburgh Gazette and in the Ardrossan and Saltcoats Herald newspaper, and also by handbills to be posted within the said boundaries; and allows all persons desiring to oppose the prayer of the Petition, or to be heard in relation thereto, to lodge a Notice of Appearance in the hands of the Clerk of Court at Kilmarnock, within seven days from the latest date of intimation; appoints the Plan referred to in the Petition to remain meantime in the hands of the Clerk of Court for inspection; further, appoints and directs Andrew Wallace Donaldson, Registrar for the Parish of Stevenston, to ascertain the number of the population of the Area comprised within the boundaries proposed for the said Burgh, and to report.

(Signed) “DAVID BRAND.”
