NOTICE is hereby given that the North British Railway Company (herein called "the Company") intend to apply in the month of December next to the Secretary for Scotland, under and in pursuance of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899 (herein called "the Act of 1899"), for a Provisional Order for the following purposes, or some of them (that is to say):—

To authorise the Company to make and maintain the following Railway together with all proper stations, sidings, approaches, works, and conveniences connected therewith (that is to say):—

A Railway wholly situate in the Parish of Inverkeithing, in the County of Fife, commencing by a junction with the Inverkeithing and North Queensferry Branch Railway of the Company, at a point 170 yards or thereabouts measuring in a northerly direction from the point where the said Branch Railway passes under the Railway of the Forth Bridge Railway Company from the Forth Bridge to Inverkeithing, and terminating at or about high water mark of ordinary spring tides at a point on the north side of the Firth of Forth situate 100 yards or thereabouts measuring in a south-westerly direction from the South Lodge of Castlandhill House.

To authorise the Company to enter into contracts and agreements with the Admiralty for the sale to the Admiralty of the Railway to be authorised by the intended Order, or for the working and use of the intended Railway, or otherwise with regard to the intended Railway and the Inverkeithing and North Queensferry Branch Railway, and to sanction and confirm such agreements.

To empower the Company to acquire compulsorily or by agreement, and to enter upon, take, and use temporarily or permanently all such lands, houses, and other property as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the intended Railway and Works.

To empower the Company for the purposes of their undertaking in connection with the working of the Gifford and Garvald Railway to acquire compulsorily or by agreement, and to hold the additional lands hereinafter described, namely:—

Certain lands in the Parish of Humberie, in the County of Haddington, on the south side of and adjoining the Gifford and Garvald Railway to the east of Humberie Station.

To empower the Company to hold, use, and appropriate for the purposes of their undertaking, in connection with the working of the Gifford and Garvald Railway, the several lands hereinafter described which have been already acquired by them (that is to say):—

In the County of Haddington—

- (a) Certain lands in the Parish of Pencaitland on the North side of and adjoining the Gifford and Garvald Railway at Pencaitland Station, on which a Station-master's House has been or is being constructed.
- (b) Certain lands in the Parish of Humble on the South-west side of and adjoining the said Railway at Salton Station on which a Station-master's House has been or is being constructed.
- (c) Certain lands in the Parish of Yester on the South-east side of and adjoining the said Railway at Gifford Station on which a Station-master's House has been or is being constructed.

To further extend the time limited by the North British Railway Act, 1895, as extended and limited by the North British Railway (General Powers) Act, 1900, and the North British Railway (General Powers) Act, 1902, for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purposes of and for the completion of the Kirkcaldy new Railways and Works by the first mentioned Act authorised so far as such Railways and Works are not already completed.

To extend the time limited by the North British Railway Act, 1901, for the compulsory purchase of certain of the lands described in Section 10 of that Act (that is to say):—

In the County of Lanark—

Certain lands in the Parish of Shotts on the North side of the Railway of the Company from Westcraigs to Armadale, west of the boundary between the Counties of Lanark and Linlithgow, near Woodend Junction.

In the Counties of Lanark and Linlithgow—

Certain lands in the Parishes of Shotts and Bathgate on the South side of the Railway of the Company from Westcraigs to Armadale at Woodend Junction.

To extend the time for the sale by the Company or the Forth Bridge Railway Company or the West Highland Railway Company, as the case may be, of all or any lands acquired by those Companies respectively, which have not been and are not or eventually may not be required for the purposes of their respective undertakings, and to confer upon the Company the Forth Bridge Railway Company and the West Highland Railway Company further powers in relation to such lands, and to enable the Company the Forth Bridge Railway Company and the West Highland Railway Company to sell, feu, dispose of, lease, or let the said lands or any part or parts thereof, and so far as may be necessary to alter, amend, and extend with reference thereto the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, and the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the sale of superfluous lands.

To sanction and confirm the construction of a deviation (already made) of the Railway, authorised by the Lauder Light Railway Order 1898, such deviation being wholly situate in the Parish of Channelkirk and County of Berwick, and commencing at the south side of the Level Crossing of the Public Road at the south end of Oxtou Station and terminating at a point 750 yards or thereabouts measuring along the railway in a southerly direction from the said point of commencement.

To empower the Lauder Light Railway Company to acquire, by compulsion or agreement, and to hold certain lands situate in the said Parish of Channelkirk, occupied by and lying along both sides of the Lauder Light Railway immediately to the south of Oxtou Station.

To empower the Company to stop up and discontinue the Subway in the Burgh and Parish of Burntisland and County of Fife, which passes under the Railway of the Company at or near Scholars Brae, Burntisland, and to vest the said Subway and the site and soil thereof and all rights and interests therein in the Company.

To authorise the Company and the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Burntisland, and the Burntisland Harbour Commissioners, or any of them, to enter into and carry into effect agreements with respect to the said Subway, and to sanction and confirm any agreement which may have been or may be entered into between any of the said parties with reference thereto or including reference thereto.

To confirm and give effect to a Contract of Excambion between the Company and the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Perth and John Dewar & Sons, Limited, as to the exchange of certain lands at or near Perth Station.

To confer upon the Company all necessary, proper, and usual powers, and make all such provisions as may be subsidiary to or consequential upon the objects of the intended application with respect to deviation, whether within or beyond the limits prescribed by the Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, and to interference with public and private property, rights and interests, and other matters.

To authorise the Company to purchase so much only as may be required for the purposes of the intended application of any house or other building manufactory work or other premises, or any easement in or under the same, without being subject to the liability imposed by Section 90 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845.

To empower the Company to levy and recover tolls, rates, and charges for the use of the intended Railway and Works, and for the conveyance and accommodation of traffic thereon and thereat, and to alter existing tolls, rates, and charges; and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and charges.

To authorise the Company to apply to the purposes of the intended Order any of their existing or authorised funds.

To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which might in any way interfere with the objects of the intended Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To repeal, alter, extend, or amend all or any of the provisions of the several Acts hereinbefore referred to, and also all or any of the provisions of the North British, Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee, and West of Fife Railways Amalgamation Act, 1862, the North British Railway (General Powers) Order Confirmation Act, 1903, and any other Act or Order relating to the Company, the Lauder Light Railway Order and any other Order or Act relating to the Lauder Light Railway Company, the Forth Bridge Railway Act, 1873, and any other Act or Order relating to the Forth Bridge Railway Company, and the West Highland Railway Act, 1889, and any other Act or Order relating to the West Highland Railway Company.

A Plan and Section in duplicate of the said intended Railway; a Plan and Section in duplicate of the deviation of the said Lauder Light Railway; a Plan in duplicate of all lands which may be taken or appropriated under the compulsory powers to be conferred by the intended Order; a Book of Reference to such Plans; and an Ordnance Map showing the general course and direction of the said intended Railway and deviation of the Lauder Light Railway will be deposited as follows (that is to say):—

So far as relates to the railway, works and lands in the County of Fife with the Principal Sheriff Clerk of that County at his offices in Cupar, Kirkcaldy, and Dunfermline respectively.

So far as relates to lands in the County of Haddington with the Principal Sheriff Clerk of that County at his office in Haddington.

So far as relates to the deviation of the said Lauder Light Railway and lands in the County of Berwick with the Principal Sheriff Clerk of that County at his office at Duns.

A copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to any parish in which the intended railway and works and deviation of railway are situate, or in which any lands are intended to be taken, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Parish Council of each parish, at his office or residence, or in cases where no Clerk of a Parish Council has been appointed, with the Inspector of the Poor of any such parish, at his office or residence.

Each such deposit will be made on or before the 30th day of November instant, and will be accompanied by a copy of this Notice, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette.

The Petition and Draft Order will be lodged on or before the 17th day of December 1903, at the office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London, and printed copies of the Draft Order will also, on or before the same day, be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

The procedure subsequent to the deposit of the Petition and Draft Order will be by way of Provisional Order, unless it be otherwise decided in terms of the Act of 1899, in which case the procedure may be by way of Private Bill, and in this case this Notice and all deposits made in respect of the intended application will, subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Bill.

Dated this 16th day of November 1903.

THE NEW ZEALAND LOAN AND MERCANTILE AGENCY COMPANY LIMITED.

(Purchase of Trustees' Preference Shares and of Certificates issued in respect thereof, and Conversion of Trustees' Preference Shares into Ordinary Shares; Additional Participation in Profits to Third Debenture Stockholders; Provisions as to Voting Division of Profits, Division of Assets on Winding Up, and other Matters; Alteration of Memorandum and Articles of Association; Incidental Provisions.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session by the New Zealand Loan and Mercantile Agency Company Limited (hereinafter called "the Company") for an Act for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To make provision for the purchase and conversion, cancellation or extinction of all or some part of the Trustees' Preference Shares of the Company, created and issued under and in pursuance of a scheme sanctioned by Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice on the 10th day of August 1897 (hereinafter referred to as "the Scheme of 1897"), and of the Trustees' Certificates issued in respect of the said Trustees' Preference Shares under the said scheme (hereinafter called "the Trustees' Certificates"), and to authorise and provide for the creation and issue to the holders for the time being of the said trustees' preference shares or some of them and for the acceptance by such holders in substitution for such shares of ordinary or other shares or securities of the Company of such amounts and with such privileges, rights, and interests attached thereto as may be prescribed or authorised or provided for by the intended Act, and to vary or extinguish all or some of the privileges, rights, and interests now attaching to the said trustees' preference shares and the trustees' certificates.

2. To make provision for, and, if thought fit, to require the purchase by the New Zealand Land Association Limited of the Trustees' Certificates from persons desiring to sell the same, at such price and upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed or authorised or provided for by the intended Act, and to make provision for securing the payment of the purchase money out of moneys deposited or to be deposited by the New Zealand Land Association Limited for that purpose and with respect to the application of any moneys so deposited which may not be required for the purchase of Trustees' Certificates, and to prohibit the issue of any further Trustees' Certificates in addition to those already issued.

3. To extend and make applicable the before mentioned provisions to the case of any holder of trustees' certificates who has exchanged the same for trustees' preference shares and to make provision as to the purchase of Trustees' Certificates held in Australia, Tasmania, or New Zealand or elsewhere.

4. To vary and extinguish so far as may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the intended Act all or some of the rights and interests attaching to the Trustees' Certificates and the Trustees' Preference Shares (whether the same shall or shall not have been purchased under the powers and provisions of the intended Act).

5. To confirm or give effect to a provisional agreement, dated the 20th day of June 1903, and made between the Company and the present Trustees for the holders of the third debenture stock of the Company with respect to an increase of the rate of interest on the third debenture stock and to the rights of the said holders to participate in the profits of the Company.

6. To make provision for the division from time to time of the profits of the Company in each year, and of the assets of the Company on a winding up.

7. To cancel and extinguish the rights of attending and voting at General Meetings of the Company conferred by or attaching to the Trustees' Certificates.

8. To cancel clause 14 of the declaration of trust of the Trustees' Preference Shares of the Company dated the 21st day of October 1897, with respect to the consent by the Trustees to the passing of resolutions of the Company for the alteration of the rights and privileges of the Trustees' Preference Shares.

9. To make incidental provisions with respect to the cancellation of the existing certificates of the Trustees' Preference Shares of the Company, and the issue of new certificates in place thereof, and with respect to the trusts upon which the ordinary shares into which the Trustees' Preference Shares are to be converted, shall be held by such Trustees.

10. To provide for or effect such alterations of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company as are necessary for or incidental to the purposes of the Bill, and in particular to cancel, amend, or alter Articles 53, 62, 64A, 105, and 141A of the Articles of Association of the Company and the Minute approved by the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice on the reduction of the capital of the Company in the year 1897.

11. To authorise and require the directors of the Company to cause to be made such alterations in the share register and other books and documents of the Company as may from time to time be required to carry into effect the provisions of the intended Act.

12. The intended Act will confer upon the Company all rights, powers, authorities, and privileges which are or may become necessary for carrying it into execution, will vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would in any manner impede or interfere with any of its objects and purposes, and will confer all such other exemptions, rights, and privileges, and will contain all such provisions as may be necessary for or incidental to its objects or any of them.

13. Printed copies of the Bill for the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.

Dated this 16th day of November 1903.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Secretary for Scotland in the month of December next by Petition for a Provisional Order under the above-mentioned Act (hereinafter called "the Order"), for all or some of the following among other purposes (that is to say):—

To authorise the County Council of the County of Dunbarton (hereinafter called the County Council) and the Western District Committee of that Council (hereinafter called the District Committee), acting as Local Authorities under the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, or one of them, to purchase and take by compulsion or by agreement, and to hold and use temporarily or permanently for the purposes of the intended works hereinafter described, and of the Order, lands, houses, springs, streams, waters, and other property in the parishes or places hereinafter mentioned, or some of them, and easements, rights, and servitudes in, over, or under the same.

To empower the District Committee to make, maintain, and use the following waterworks and other works, or some of them, that is to say:—

- (1) A reservoir (Work No. 1) in the Parish of Luss in the County of Dunbarton, on the stream known as the Finlas Water and lands and streams adjacent thereto, such reservoir commencing at the embankment hereinafter described at a point on the Finlas Water about 2005 yards measured in a north-west by westerly direction from the north-west corner of Shemore Farm Buildings, numbered 311 on the 25-inch ordnance survey map of the Parish of Luss, 2nd edition 1898, and terminating on the Finlas Water at a point about 880 yards measured in a north-westerly direction from the point of commencement.

- (2) An embankment (Work No. 2) in the Parish of Luss, across the Finlas Water at the point above described as the commencement of the reservoir, such embankment commencing on the south-west side of the Finlas Water at a point about 95 yards measured south-westwards, and terminating on the north-east side of the Finlas Water at a point about 130 yards measured north-eastwards from the centre of the Finlas Water at the said point where the embankment crosses that water,
- (3) A flood watercourse (Work No. 3) in the Parish of Luss, commencing on the embankment above described at a point about 20 yards measured westwards from the point of termination of that embankment, and terminating in the Finlas Water below the embankment at a point about 110 yards measured south-eastwards from the said point where such embankment crosses the Finlas Water.
- (4) An aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes (Work No. 4), commencing in the Parish of Luss in the reservoir above described at a point about 55 yards measured north-westwards from the said point where the embankment crosses the Finlas Water, and terminating in the Parish of Bonhill in the County of Dunbarton by a junction with the existing water main of the District Committee in the road known as the Alexandria Highway at the junction with that highway of the road leading to Balloch Railway Station, known as the Balloch Road.

Together with all necessary and proper dams, weirs, bye wash channels, bridges, roads, accesses, approaches, wells, tanks, gauges, filter-beds, sluices, outlets, drains, aqueducts, culverts, channels, mains, pipes, engines, machinery, buildings, telegraphs, telephones, posts, wires, and other works and conveniences in connection with the said works, or any of them.

To authorise the District Committee to make such deviations from the lines and levels of the intended works shown on the plans and sections hereinafter mentioned as shall be prescribed or authorised by the Order.

To empower the District Committee, by means of the intended works and of their existing reservoir and waterworks (so far as not authorised to be abandoned by the Order), to abstract, divert, take, appropriate, impound, collect, store, distribute, supply, and use for the purposes of the Order, all such streams, springs, and waters as can be collected by the said works, or any of them, or as may be found in or under any of the lands to be acquired under the powers of the Order, and particularly the waters of the stream known as the Finlas Water and the tributaries thereof, known as Allt na h-Ainnire and Allt a Mhuilt, and of all or some of the affluents of those streams, or any of them, which waters now flow into Loch Lomond, thence into the River Leven, the River and Firth of Clyde, and the sea.

To make provision for compensating persons injuriously affected by the proposed taking, impounding, diverting, or appropriation of water, by the discharge of compensation water, and to regulate the quantity or amount of such compensation water, and the time and manner of the delivery thereof.

To empower the District Committee to break up, alter, divert, cross, stop up, or otherwise interfere with, either temporarily or permanently, any roads, highways, railways, paths, bridges, streams, watercourses, sewers, drains, telegraphic and telephonic wires, gas, water, and other mains and pipes, and other works which it may be necessary or convenient to break up, alter, divert, cross, stop up, or interfere with for the purposes of the intended works or of the Order.

To enable any trustees, curators, heirs of entail, liferenters, persons under legal disability, or other persons holding any partial, limited, or qualified estate or interest in any lands required for the purposes of the proposed works or of the Order, to sell and convey such lands, or the use thereof, or servitudes or easements therein, for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions as may have been, or may be, agreed or provided for by the Order.

To enable the County Council and the District Committee, or either of them, to acquire by compulsion or by agreement, and to hold, let, sell, or feu any lands, waters, and premises, or easements over the same, which may be desirable or needful for the prevention of pollution within the drainage area of any of their works; and to confer on them other powers for the prevention of pollution, fouling, or contamination of any reservoirs, streams, watercourses, waters, or springs in or over which they are interested; and to enable them to make byelaws and regulations for securing the purity of any such waters, and regulating the use or drainage of adjacent lands, and to prescribe the area over which such bye-laws and regulations shall be in force, and to enforce such bye-laws and regulations by penalties or otherwise.

To authorise the discharge of water from any of the works of the District Committee into any streams or watercourses.

To authorise the District Committee to distribute, supply, and sell water for domestic, trading, manufacturing, and all other purposes within the limits of the Vale of Leven Special Water Supply District, in the Parish of Bonhill, as the same now exists, or may be hereafter extended, and within any other portion of the Western District of the County within the Parishes of Bonhill, Luss, Kilmarnock, Cardross, and Dunbarton, and for those purposes to lay down, make, and maintain, and from time to time renew, alter, enlarge, and extend mains, pipes, and other works through, under, or along any highways or public or private streets, roads, or places in the Special District, parishes, and places aforesaid; and to break up or interfere with, temporarily or permanently, any such highways, streets, roads, or places for the purposes of their water undertaking.

To confer on the County Council and the District Committee, or either of them, all other powers usually conferred in connection with water undertakings, and to make all necessary provisions for the regulation and protection of their water undertaking and the supply of water therefrom, and other matters connected therewith.

To authorise or require the District Committee to discontinue the taking of water from Loch Lomond at or near Balloch Railway Pier, and to abandon the use of their Pumping Station with house and lands adjoining Balloch Railway Station, and the conduit or line of pipes from the Loch to that Pumping Station and works connected therewith.

To release the County Council and District Committee from all or some of the obligations under all or any of the following deeds, viz.:—(1) Feu Disposition by Patrick Boyle Smollett of Bonhill in favour of the Local Authority of the Parish of Bonhill, dated 19th October 1885, and registered in the Division of the General Register of Sasines applicable to the County of Dunbarton 21st October 1885; (2) Feu Disposition by the said Patrick Boyle Smollett in favour of the County Council of the County of Dunbarton, dated 26th, and recorded in the said Division of the General Register of Sasines 28th January 1892; (3) Feu Disposition and Deed of Servitude by James Campbell of Tullichewan in favour of the Local Authority of the Parish of Bonhill, dated 27th March, and recorded in the said Division of the General Register of Sasines 25th May 1883; and (4) Agreement between the Trustees of the late Sir James Colquhoun of Luss, Baronet, and the said Local Authority of the Parish of Bonhill, dated 2nd June and 13th, 17th, and 19th July 1882;—as to the supply of water to feuirs and tenants on the estates of Bonhill, Tullichewan, and the tenants of Balloch Hotel, and from all restrictions and limitations in any of such deeds or other deeds or agreements as to the user of their existing waterworks in the Parish of Bonhill, the area within, the persons to whom, and the purposes for, and the manner in which the Local Authority may provide or supply water, and to vary, alter, annul, or repeal the terms and provisions of said several deeds accordingly, and to empower the County Council and the District Committee, or either of them, to maintain and use their existing waterworks in connection with and for the purposes of the water supply proposed to be authorised by the Order, and from time to time to extend, enlarge, and alter such existing works.

To empower the County Council and the District Committee or either of them to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the said Pumping Station, with house, lands, and works connected therewith, or their rights and interests therein, and any servitude or easement for the said conduit or line of pipes from Loch Lomond to such station, and to apply the proceeds to the purposes of their water undertaking.

To authorise the North British, the Caledonian, and the Lanarkshire and Dunbartonshire Railway Companies, and the Dunbarton and Balloch Joint Line Committee, or any of them, to contribute towards the purposes of the Order, and to apply their funds for that purpose, and to empower those Companies or Joint Committee or any of them to purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire by agreement, and to hold and use in connection with their respective undertakings the said Pumping Station, with house and conduit or line of pipes and sites and works thereof as aforesaid, or the rights and interests of the County Council and the District Committee, or either of them therein.

To authorise the County Council and the District Committee or either of them to enter into and carry into effect agreements with any Local Authority, company, or person with reference to any of the matters aforesaid, and to sanction and confirm any such agreements already or to be hereafter made.

To provide that the intended works and the water supply therefrom shall be deemed part of the existing water undertaking for the supply of the Vale of Leven Special Water Supply District, and shall be held, maintained, and managed by the County Council and the District Committee, or either of them, as part of such existing works, and to extend and apply the provisions of the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, and other Acts now applicable to the existing works and the supply of water therefrom to such intended works and water supply.

To authorise the County Council to assess, levy, charge, and apply for the purposes of the Order any rates, assessments, or charges which by the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, or otherwise, they are now or may at any time be authorised to assess, levy, or charge for water supply within the said Vale of Leven Special Water Supply District as now existing, or as the same may be hereafter extended, and, if necessary, to assess, levy, charge, and apply as aforesaid within such district, and in such manner as may be provided by the Order, new or increased rates, assessments, or charges for water supply.

To alter existing rates, duties, charges, and assessments, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of rates, duties, charges, and assessments.

To make provisions as to the terms and conditions on which water may or shall be supplied by the District Committee for other than domestic purposes, and to authorise new or increased charges or assessments for such supply, and to alter, vary, or amend the provisions of Section 126 of the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, in relation thereto.

To empower the County Council to borrow on security of the water assessments in the said Special Water Supply District and the Public Health general assessments, and any rates, charges, or assessments authorised by the Order, or such other rates or assessments, or other security as may be prescribed in the Order, any moneys which by the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, or any other Act they are now or may hereafter be authorised to borrow for the purpose of water supply within such Special Water Supply District, and to apply such moneys to the purposes of the Order, and to make the provisions of the said Public Health Act and other Acts relating to the borrowing of money for water supply applicable to any money borrowed for the purposes of the Order, and to confer new and additional borrowing powers on the County Council, and to empower them and the District Committee to apply to the purposes of the Order any funds or moneys already raised or borrowed by them.

To provide for the payment of the costs, charges, and expenses of obtaining the Order out of the rates or assessments, or out of the moneys which the County Council are authorised to levy or borrow for the purposes of water supply in the Vale of Leven Special Water Supply District, or in such other manner as may be provided by the Order.

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with the objects of the Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To alter, amend, or repeal all or some of the provisions of any Acts hereinbefore mentioned, and of the following local Acts, namely, 25 and 26 Vic. cap. 189, 8 and 9 Vic. cap. 162, 54 and 55 Vic. cap. 201, and 55 and 56 Vic. cap. 170, or any other Act or Acts relating to the North British, the Caledonian, or the Lanarkshire and Dumbartonshire Railway Companies, or the Dumbarton and Balloch Joint Line Committee, or their respective undertakings.

To incorporate with and make applicable to the Order, with or without alterations or variations, all or some of the provisions of the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, the Lands Clauses Acts, the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863, the Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, with respect to the crossing of roads and other interference therewith, and to the temporary occupation of lands near the railway during the construction thereof, and such other matters as may be deemed expedient, and to prescribe the limits within which the last-mentioned provisions of the Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act may be exercised, so as to authorise the temporary occupation of roads in the parish of Luss, including the roads leading from the public highway known as Luss Road (1) to Shemore Farm houses and offices, and continuing therefrom to the site of the proposed reservoir; (2) to Shantron Farm houses and offices and continuation thereof; and (3) to Polnaberoch Farm houses and offices and continuation thereof.

And Notice is also hereby given that plans and sections describing the lines, situation, and levels of the intended works, and the lands, houses, and other property which may be taken for the purposes thereof, with a book of reference to the said plans, and a copy of this Notice as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection on or before the 30th day of November instant at the office at Dumbarton of the principal Sheriff-Clerk of the county of Dunbarton; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to any parish, with a copy of this Notice, will, on or before the said 30th day of November, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Parish Council of such parish, at his office if he have an office separate from his place of abode, or otherwise at his place of abode.

The Petition and draft Order, and printed copies thereof, will be deposited at the Office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London, on the 17th day of December next.

The subsequent procedure in respect of the said application will be by way of Provisional Order, unless it is otherwise decided in terms of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, in which case the procedure may be by way of private Bill, and this Notice and the deposits will, subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Bill.

Dated this 10th day of November 1903.

Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act,

AIRDRIE GAS.

(Dissolution and re-incorporation of the Airdrie Gas Light Company; Vesting in new Company of undertaking of existing Company; Provisions as to Capital and Shares of existing Company and further Capital and borrowing powers; Maintenance of existing and additional Gasworks; Manufacture and Storage of Gas and residual products on land described; Supply of Gas and limits of supply; Acquisition of lands by agreement and disposal of surplus lands; Powers to acquire Patent rights; to deal in residual products and manufacture and supply fittings, &c.; Maintenance, extensions, &c., of mains, &c.; Interferences with railways, tramways, streets, &c.; Supply of Gas in bulk to and agreements with Local Authorities, &c.; Rates, Rents and charges; Inspection and regulation of meters, pipes and fittings; Powers for supply of electricity; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts; other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Secretary for Scotland, on or before the 17th day of December next, in pursuance of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1899, by the Airdrie Gas Light Company (hereinafter called "the existing Company") for a Provisional Order under the said Act (hereinafter called "the Order") for all or some of the following among other purposes (that is to say):—

1. To dissolve the existing Company, and to cancel and annul their original Deed of Co-partnership, and the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the existing Company, and all resolutions from time to time made and passed by them, and all other deeds and instruments under which they are now acting, and to provide for the winding up of the existing Company and for the re-incorporation of the Members or Proprietors thereof, or some of them, with or without other persons or Corporations, into a new Company by the name of "The Airdrie Gas Company" or by some other name (hereinafter called "the Company") and to confer upon the Company all necessary powers and authorities, and make all necessary provisions for carrying into effect the objects of the Order.

2. To vest in the Company all the undertaking, works, lands, leases, buildings, property, mains, pipes, machinery, apparatus, stock, plant, effects, interests, rights, powers, privileges, easements, servitudes, rights, licenses, contracts, money, securities, credits, and liabilities of what kind or nature soever now vested in or belonging to or held or enjoyed by the existing Company, or held in trust for them, and to empower the Company to hold, sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of such lands and other property.

3. To make all necessary provisions with respect to the Capital and Shares of the existing Company, and to provide for the vesting and apportionment of such Capital and Shares, or of

New Shares, or Stock instead thereof, among the Shareholders of the Company, and to authorise the Company to raise further Capital by Ordinary or Preference Shares or Stock, and by borrowing on Mortgage or otherwise, or by the creation and issue of Debenture Stock, or by any of such means.

4. To authorise the Company to hold and use the land hereinafter described, and thereon to maintain and continue the gasworks and works connected therewith of the existing Company, and to alter, enlarge, improve, renew, or discontinue those works, or some part or parts thereof respectively, and to construct and maintain, alter, enlarge, improve and renew, or discontinue, with all necessary roads, approaches, sidings and conveniences, gasworks and works for the conversion, manufacture, utilisation and distribution of materials used in and about the manufacture of gas, and of residual and manufactured products, matters and things, and to manufacture, produce, store, supply, and sell gas, and to manufacture, store, convert, utilise, buy, sell, and dispose of coal, lime, coke, patent fuels, coal tar, pitch, asphaltum, ammoniacal liquor, sulphate of ammonia, oils, chemicals, and all other residual, and manufactured products, matters and things employed in or arising or resulting from the manufacture of gas and matters producible therefrom.

The land hereinbefore referred to is the following (that is to say):—A piece of land situate in the Burgh of Airdrie, Parish of New Monkland, and County of Lanark, containing three acres one rood and thirty-seven poles or thereby, bounded on the south by Mill Street, on the west by the Mill Loan, on the north partly by the road leading from East High Street to subjects known as Fruitfield belonging to and occupied by Hugh Arthur, M.D., and partly by the said subjects themselves, and on the east partly by the said subjects and partly by the Hallcraig Branch of the Monkland Section of the North British Railway.

5. To confer on the Company all necessary powers and authorities for the supply of gas for public and private, and for domestic trading, and other purposes within the Municipal boundaries of the Burgh of Airdrie as described in the Airdrie Burgh Extension Act 1885 (48 & 49 Victoria Chapter XL.) and the Parishes of New Monkland and Shotts all in the County of Lanark excepting that portion of the parish of New Monkland lying to the west of a straight line extending from a point in the boundary of the Parish of New Monkland 260 feet or thereby due north of the east end of the Coatdyke Passenger Station on the North British Railway between Airdrie and Glasgow to a point on the south bank of the Luggie Water (which forms the northern boundary of the said Parish of New Monkland) where it is crossed by the Castlecary branch of the Caledonian Railway; and excepting that portion of the Parish of Shotts lying to the south of the turnpike road between Edinburgh and Glasgow by Harthill, or such part or parts of such Burgh and Parishes (excepting as aforesaid) or of one or more of them as may be prescribed by the Order, hereinafter referred to as "the Limits of Supply."

6. To alter, amend or repeal Section 4 of "The Coatbridge Gas Act 1877" and any other consequential Section or Sections of that Act, and to provide that the limits of that Act as defined by Section 4 thereof shall be altered and restricted by excluding therefrom the Parish of New Monkland, or, otherwise, to provide that the Coatbridge Gas company incorporated by that Act shall not supply gas within any part of the limits of supply.

7. To empower the Company to purchase, or take on lease, or otherwise acquire by agreement and hold other lands, houses, buildings and property for any of the purposes of their undertaking or to acquire easements or rights in, over, or under any such lands, houses, buildings and property, and to sell, feu, lease, or otherwise dispose of any lands, works, or property from time to time vested in or purchased by the Company and not required for the purposes of their undertaking, or to exchange any such lands; and to erect, fit up and maintain and let houses, cottages and dwellings for the officers and servants of the Company.

8. To authorise the Company to acquire, hold, use, and enjoy patent rights and licenses in relation to the manufacture, distribution and utilisation of gas and the residual products obtainable therefrom, or the production by any means of artificial light; to deal in, sell, and dispose of coal, lime, coke, patent fuels, coal tar, pitch, asphaltum, ammoniacal liquor, sulphate of ammonia, oils, chemicals, and all other residual and manufactured products and other matters and things, and to carry on the business carried on by Gas Companies; to manufacture, purchase, provide, let on hire, supply and otherwise deal in and fix stoves, ranges, meters, fittings, engines, and heating, cooking or other apparatus, and also to manufacture, purchase, let, or deal in, and contract for doing work in connection with fittings, tubes, meters, pipes, stoves, ranges, and apparatus for heating and cooking, and also engines and machines for the production of electric and motive power, for domestic, agricultural, manufacturing, and other purposes by means of gas, and all articles and things in any way connected with gas works or with the supply of gas.

9. To authorise the Company to maintain and use and from time to time to alter and renew any existing works, mains or pipes within the limits of supply and within those limits from time to time to make such extensions of the mains, pipes and other works of the existing Company, and such new pipes and other works, as may in the opinion of the Company be necessary, and for that purpose and for the general purposes of the Order to cross, open, break up, divert, stop up, or interfere with, temporarily or permanently, railways, tramways, streets, including streets not dedicated to public use, roads, highways, footways, lands, sewers, drains, pipes, electric, telegraphic, telephonic, hydraulic, or other apparatus, rivers, canals, bridges, navigations, streams, water-courses, and passages, or other places within the limits of supply.

10. To authorise the Company to supply gas in bulk for any purpose either within or beyond the limits of supply to, and to enter into and fulfil contracts and agreements for such supply with, any County Council, Parish Council, or other Local Authority, Corporation, Company, Body or Person whether within or beyond the limits of supply, and to sanction and confirm any such contract or agreement already made or which may be made, and to authorise any such County Council, Parish Council, or other Body or Person as aforesaid respectively, to apply their respective funds, and to raise further money for the purposes of any such contract or agreement.

11. To authorise the Company to levy and recover rates, rents and charges, either uniform or differential, for the supply of gas and residual products, and for the supply, hire, or use of stoves, ranges, meters, fittings, engines, and other articles, apparatus and things supplied, and for work done by the Company, and to recover rates, rents and charges due and owing to the existing Company at the date of its re-incorporation into the Company, to alter existing rates, rents, and charges and to relieve the Company from any obligation or liability with reference to any such alteration, and to confer, vary or extinguish exemptions, from the payment of rates, rents, and charges.

12. To make provision as to the notice to be given to the Company before disconnecting any gas meter, or before discontinuing the use of gas, or ceasing to occupy houses, or other premises supplied with gas by the Company.

13. To make further provision for securing the payment of gas rates, rents, and other charges made by the Company, and the repayment thereof in certain cases; for exempting from liability to distress or to the landlord's remedy for rent, or to be taken in execution under any process of any Court or any proceedings in bankruptcy against the persons in whose possession the same may be, all engines, fittings, stoves, cookers, machinery, and apparatus supplied or let by the Company; for the service of notices by and on the Company; and for the protection of the gas works and other property of the Company; and to impose and enforce penalties for any breach of such provisions.

14. To make or provide for the making of provisions for the protection of the works of the Company, and for preventing the waste and misuse of gas, and for defining and regulating the supply of gas by the Company, and for their representation in Sequestration proceedings or proceedings in bankruptcy or insolvency.

15. To empower the Company to inspect and examine meters, pipes, or fittings used, or intended to be used for the conveyance or consumption of gas, and to prohibit the use and require the removal or alteration of meters, pipes, and fittings of insufficient size or strength, or likely to allow of an escape of gas, and to prescribe the material, size and strength of any meters, pipes and fittings so to be used, and to relieve the Company from any obligation to supply gas to premises in which the meters, pipes or fittings are defective or insufficient as aforesaid, and to empower the Company from time to time, to make, vary, and enforce bye-laws and regulations for or with respect to the matters aforesaid and to impose and recover penalties for the breach or non-observance of any such bye-laws or regulations or of the provisions of the Order.

16. To make provision for the period at or during which errors in meters tested in manner provided by the Sale of Gas Act 1859, shall be deemed to have arisen, and as to the recovery of the allowance or overcharge to be made to or by the Company in consequence of any such errors.

17. To empower the Company to refuse to supply persons in debt to the Company in respect of other property.

18. To make provision as to the liability of owners and occupiers of premises which have been let or sublet as to the payment by them of sums due to the Company in respect of such premises.

19. To make provision for enabling the Company to obtain powers to produce and supply electrical energy for public and private purposes, and to apply their capital or funds to all or any of those purposes.

20. To make provisions as to the qualification and election of Auditors, and that they need not be Shareholders of the Company, the time of the making up of the annual accounts of the Company, the allowance of discounts or rebates for prompt payment or to large consumers, the declaration and payment of interim dividends, the formation of an Insurance Fund and also of a Reserve Fund and the application thereof, the payment of interest on deposits made by consumers with the Company, and other incidental provisions.

21. To vary or extinguish all or any rights and privileges which would interfere with the purposes of the Order, and to confer other rights and privileges and generally to confer all such further and other powers as may be deemed necessary or expedient for effecting the purposes aforesaid, or any of them.

22. To incorporate with the Order and extend and apply as well to the mains, pipes, and works of the existing Company already laid down or constructed as to all mains, pipes, and works which may be laid down or constructed under the authority of the Order after it has become Law, the powers and provisions, or some of them, of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, and the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871, except in so far as the same may be expressly varied by the Order, and also to incorporate all or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, the Companies Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act 1845, and the Companies Clauses Act 1863, as amended by subsequent Acts, and so far as may be necessary or expedient to alter, amend, repeal, or extend all or some of the provisions of those Acts, or any of them.

The Petition for the Order and the Draft Order and printed copies thereof respectively will be lodged on or before the 17th day of December next in the Office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London, and on or before the same day a printed copy of the Draft Order will be deposited in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

The subsequent procedure will be by way of Provisional Order unless it is otherwise decided in terms of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1899, in which case the procedure may be by way of Private Bill, and if the subsequent procedure shall be by way of Private Bill this Notice and the deposits with reference to the said intended application will, subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Bill.

Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland)
Act, 1899.

GOVAN BURGH (ELECTRICITY).

(Supply of Electric Fittings, &c.; Provision for Securing Safety and Return of Fittings, &c.; Power to Refuse Supply of Electrical Energy in Certain Cases; Discounts; Borrowing Powers; Amendment of Acts and other Purposes, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Secretary for Scotland in the month of December next by the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Govan (hereinafter called "the Town Council") by petition for a Provisional Order under the above-mentioned Act (hereinafter referred to as "the Order") for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

To authorise the Town Council to purchase or manufacture, and to provide, supply, sell, let for hire, fix, alter, repair, and remove within their prescribed limits for the supply of electrical energy, electric lamps, meters, motors, switches, dynamos, wires, fittings, apparatus, and other things in connection with the use or distribution of electrical energy for lighting, heating, or motive power, or for manufactories or for any other purpose for which electrical energy can or may be used, and to provide all materials and do all work and perform all services necessary or convenient for the installation, use, or supply of electrical energy, and to expend money for such purposes, and to make such charges and to take such rents or remuneration for the supply of any such lamps, meters, motors, switches, dynamos, wires, fittings, apparatus, materials, and things and for such work and services, and to make such terms and conditions with regard thereto as the Town Council may think fit, or as the Order may prescribe.

To make provision for securing the safety of and return to the Town Council of any such lamps, meters, motors, switches, dynamos, wires, fittings, apparatus, and things, and to exempt the same from being taken under any process of law.

To provide that the Town Council shall not be bound to supply electrical energy to any premises having a separate supply unless the person requiring such supply shall agree to pay to the Town Council such minimum sum for such supply as may be agreed upon or as the Order may prescribe.

To enable the Town Council to allow discounts on payments for supplies of electrical energy, and to exempt the Town Council from liability to supply in cases where payments due to them are in arrear.

To enable the Town Council to borrow money for the purposes of the Order in the same manner, upon the same security, and subject to the same conditions as are provided by the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1888, the Electric Lighting (Scotland) Act, 1890, and the Electric Lighting (Scotland) Act, 1902, in respect of money borrowed for electricity purposes under those Acts, or in such other manner and on such other authority as may be provided by the Order.

To vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would or might interfere with the objects of the Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To alter, amend, or repeal, so far as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid, all or some of the provisions of the before mentioned Acts, the Govan Electric Lighting Order, 1892, and the Govan Electric Lighting (Extension) Order, 1902, and any other Act or Order relating to the Town Council or their electric lighting undertaking.

The petition and draft Order and printed copies thereof will be deposited at the office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London, on or before the 17th day of December next.

The subsequent procedure in respect of the said application will be by way of Provisional Order, unless it is otherwise decided in terms of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, in which case the procedure may be by way of Private Bill, and this Notice will, subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Bill.
