By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

EDWARD, R. & I.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Friday the eleventh day of December one thousand nine hundred and three; We, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, hereby issue Our Royal Proclamation, and publish and declare that the said Parliament be further prorogued to Tuesday the second day of February one thousand nine hundred and four; and We do hereby further, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure that the said Parliament shall, on the said Tuesday the second day of February one thousand nine hundred and four, assemble and be holden for the despatch of divers urgent and important affairs; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly at Westminster, on the said Tuesday the second day of February one thousand nine hundred and four.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this eighth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and three, and in the third year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of December 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855," as amended by "The Secretary for Scotland Act, 1885," it was enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, upon the Representation of the Secretary for Scotland, that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County of Scotland under certain provisions of the said first-named Act had been received, in pursuance thereof, to order that no new burial ground should be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of the Secretary for Scotland (or as the case might require) that after a time mentioned in such Order burials within certain limits, or in certain burial grounds or places of burial should be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and that such Order in Council should thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said Act: Provided always that notice of such Representation, and of the time it should please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff-Clerk of the County in which such burial ground is situated; and that the same should be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation was so considered:

And whereas the Secretary for Scotland made a Representation stating that he had received a copy of an Interlocutor by the Sheriff-Substitute of Stirlingshire at Falkirk, finding that (1) a certain portion of the Burial Ground known as the Parish Churchyard of Larbert; and (2) the Larbert East United Free Church Churchyard, are dangerous to health and offensive and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said Representation it was recommended that the said portion of the Parish Churchyard of Larbert, and the Larbert East United Free Church Churchyard should be closed, subject to certain reservations:

And whereas notice of the said Representation, and of the time when it pleased His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of the Privy Council, has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and has been fixed as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order as follows, viz.:—

That burials be forthwith discontinued in (1) the portion of the Burial Ground known as the Parish Churchyard of Larbert, which is represented by the area included within a green border on the plan signed by the Secretary for Scotland, and deposited with the Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Stirling at his office at Falkirk, and (2) the Larbert East United Free Church Churchyard, provided that right of interment be reserved as follows, viz.:—

(1) Within the said portion of the Parish Churchyard of Larbert and in the said Larbert East United Free Church Churchyard to any widow or widower whose husband or wife has been buried therein;

(2)—(a) Within the burial place of the family of Dundas of Carronhall, in the said Parish Churchyard of Larbert, to Margaret Isabella Dundas, residing at Winterfield, North Berwick, widow of the late Lieutenant-Colonel Joseph Dundas of Carronhall, and to her daughter, Eleanor Charlotte Dundas;

(b) Within the burial place of the family of Stirling of Glenbervie, in the said Parish Churchyard, to any two of the descendants of the late Sylvester Douglas Stirling of Glenbervie, or in place of one such to the wife or husband, widow or widower of a descendant:

Provided always, as regards all interments after the date of the Order, in either the said Larbert East United Free Church Churchyard or the said portion of the Parish Churchyard of Larbert, that the exercise of the right of burial shall not be injurious to public health; that no interment shall be made unless the coffin can be laid at a depth of four feet from the surface of the ground to the upper side of the coffin, and that without the exposure of another coffin; that such burials in either of the said burial grounds be made at sight of the Sanitary Inspector of the District in which the Burial Ground is situated; and that notice be given to the Sanitary Inspector on the day preceding that on which a grave is to be opened.
