1. The Bye-Laws and Regulations hereinafter set forth shall extend and apply to all streets, roads, and thoroughfares within the Burgh of Kilmarnock in which tramways are laid, which streets, roads, or thoroughfares are hereinafter referred to as "Streets."

2. The expression "slow going traffic" as used in these Bye-laws and Regulations includes all vehicles proceeding at a walking pace, and shall also include cattle, sheep, and other animals driven along the streets.

3. All slow going traffic shall be kept as near to the kerb of the foot pavement as is practicable, unless sufficient reason be shown to the contrary.
