And whereas by section 10, as read with section 18, of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is provided that Local Authorities within the meaning of section 9 of the said Act shall give public notice of any regulation of the Secretary for Scotland made in pursuance of the said Act, prohibiting or restricting the use of motor cars on any highway, or part of a highway, or limiting the speed of motor cars within any limits or place, and for the purpose of giving effect to any such regulation shall place notices in conspicuous places on or near the highway, part of a highway, limits or place, to which the regulation refers:

And whereas the County Council of the County of Peebles, being the Local Authority of the said county, have applied to me to make a regulation under the said Acts, and I am of opinion that it is desirable to give effect to the said application:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in me in that behalf, I, the Right Honourable John Sinclair, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do hereby make the following regulations under section 6 of the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896, as read with section 8 of the Motor Car Act, 1903:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Motor Cars Regulation (County of Peebles) Order, 1906," and the regulation hereby prescribed shall take effect on the highway specified therein on and after the date at which, for the purpose of giving effect thereto, the Local Authority shall place notices in conspicuous places on or near such highway.

2. No person shall cause or permit a motor car to be driven, or shall drive a motor car, on such part of the highway named in the first column of the schedule to this Order as is defined in the second column of the said schedule.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Whitehall this 5th day of March 1906.

L. S.

JOHN SINCLAIR,
His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland.
