south side of the said Kirkcaldy highway, and thence along said hedge to the point where the tramway enters upon the said Kirkcaldy highway, thence across to the north fence or hedge of the said Kirkcaldy highway, and thence following said fence or hedge in a north-easterly direction to the south-west end of Leven Bridge, thence across to the existing boundary of the Burgh at or near the south-east end of Leven Bridge, and from the said south-east end of the said bridge by the existing boundary of the Burgh, running on the north-west side of Innerleven and Aberhill to the foresaid point "F."

Fourthly, the area bounded by a line commencing from the point "H" (being the angular point of the existing boundary of the Burgh situated on the low-water mark of ordinary spring tides, opposite to and in a line with the sea face of the eastmost wall of Methil Dock), thence drawn in a south-westerly direction along and following the said low-water mark until the latter meets the easterly face of the Methil breakwater, thence in a southerly direction along and following the said face of the said breakwater to the southern end thereof, thence around and following the face of the southern circular end of the said breakwater in progressively south-westerly, north-westerly, and northerly directions to the point where the circular end of the said breakwater on the north-westerly side thereof joins the straight side of the westerly face of the said breakwater, thence in a northerly direction to the point where the said low-water mark meets the southerly face of the sea wall to the west of the fairway, thence in a south-westerly direction along the said low-water mark to a point "I" (being the angular point of the boundary of the Burgh situated on low-water mark to the west of Methil Dock), and from the point "I" to the point "H" aforesaid by the existing boundaries of the Burgh, which areas, and the lands and heritages hereinbefore described, and the roads and footpaths thereof, or such part or parts thereof, as by the Order are proposed to be incorporated within the Burgh, are hereinafter referred to as the "districts annexed," and the boundaries of the said Burgh as presently existing and as proposed to be extended as aforesaid, are respectively shewn on the Map and a duplicate thereof, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and in the event of any discrepancy between the above-mentioned descriptions and the boundaries shewn on the said Map, the Order will provide that the Map will prevail.

2. To separate, detach, and disjoin for the purposes of the Order the districts annexed from the County of Fife and from the jurisdiction of the County Council of Fife and the Kirkcaldy District Committee thereof, County Road Board, County Road Trustees of the said County, the Parish Council of the Parish of Wemyss, and all other bodies, Boards or Committees, exercising, or entitled to exercise, jurisdiction within the districts annexed, under any Acts of Parliament, public or private, or Provisional Orders, and Local Authorities, or some one or more of them, and to discharge and exempt the districts annexed from payment of, or liability for, all rates, tolls, assessments, or charges now leviable, or which might be levied under the existing Acts or Orders in force within the districts annexed, and to abolish or alter, so far as may be necessary or expedient, or to transfer to and vest in the extended Burgh and make exerciseable by the Town Council thereof all or some of the powers and authorities, jurisdictions, and provisions applicable to or exerciseable by such bodies or authorities as aforesaid within any part of the districts annexed.

3. To extend to the districts annexed and to the inhabitants thereof the same municipal franchises and all such rights, privileges and immunities, duties, property, and obligations as are enjoyed and possessed by or incumbent on the inhabitants of the existing Burgh, and to make further and other provisions with reference thereto, and to extend the powers and jurisdictions of the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors, and of the Magistrates, and of the Dean of Guild Court, to and over the districts annexed and the inhabitants of the same, and to alter, enlarge, extend, and define for municipal, police, water and roads, local or public health authority, and all other purposes, the limits of the existing Burgh, and also to make applicable within the districts annexed and to the inhabitants thereof with such amendments, alterations, variations, and exceptions as the Order may prescribe, all or some of the provisions of any public or private or local Acts, statutes, enactments, charters, deeds, agreements, or Provisional or other Orders, and bye-laws, and regulations in force within or applicable to the existing Burgh or the inhabitants thereof.

4. To transfer to the Town Council of the extended Burgh all or some part or parts of the property and revenues and all or some of the jurisdictions, rights, powers, privileges, interests, and authorities of every description of the said County Council and District Committee, and of any County Board Trustees, Commissioners of Supply, local body, or Local Authority, or of any special committee for cleansing, or for water supply and drainage districts within any part of the districts annexed or of any other special district, and to provide for the payment and liquidation of monies borrowed, and of obligations incurred within the districts annexed, and to make or authorise the making of such arrangements or agreements with respect to such matters as may be deemed expedient or otherwise as the Order may prescribe, and to dissolve all or any County Council, County Council Committees, or any other authority exercising any jurisdiction with respect to the said purposes or any other purposes within the districts annexed.

5. To provide for making up the Valuation Roll of the extended Burgh and of a Supplemental Valuation Roll as and when it may be necessary or expedient, and for making up lists and rolls of persons entitled to vote in the election of Town Councillors in the extended Burgh, and to make such other provisions as to the list of voters and Valuation Rolls as may be necessary for effectually carrying out the Order, and for the exercise by the inhabitants of the districts annexed of their rights to vote and also of any other rights under the same and
