by such authorities within the districts annexed, or any of them, or some part thereof, and to make such arrangements or agreements in regard to such matters as may be expedient or as the Order may define, or as may be agreed.

14. To enable the Town Council of the extended Burgh to alter, vary, and rescind bye-laws, rules, orders, regulations, and resolutions now in force within the districts annexed, and to provide for the continuance of the same therein until cancelled by the Town Council of the extended Burgh, and to provide for the existing bye-laws of the existing Burgh being applicable to the extended Burgh, and to make all such further bye-laws and others as aforesaid as may be necessary or may be required for any of the purposes of the Order, and to prescribe penalties for breach or non-observance of bye-laws, and to provide for the recovery of penalties.

15. To authorise the Town Council of the existing Burgh and of the extended Burgh to make agreements with the said County Council District Committee, or with any Local or other Authority having jurisdiction over the districts annexed as to any payments to be made, and also in respect of any matters arising in connection with the extension of the existing Burgh, and to confer on the Town Council of the extended Burgh, and on such Authorities or any of them, all such powers as may be necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect.

16. To authorise the Town Council of the extended Burgh to borrow money, and from time to time to re-borrow, for all and any purposes of the Order, and to exercise over the extended Burgh all such powers in relation thereto as they may now exercise or may be authorised to exercise under any local or general Act in force for the time being.

17. To authorise the Town Council to construct and maintain the new street or road hereinafter described, with all necessary works and conveniences connected therewith, that is to say:—

A new road or street, wholly situated in the Burgh of Buckhaven, Methil, and Innerleven and Parish of Wemyss, commencing by a junction with East High Street, Buckhaven, on the north side thereof opposite Lady Wynd (the centre line of the said road or street being at its commencement at a point on the south side of the north fence of the said East High Street, 35 feet or thereby measured along the said fence from the east corner of the feu belonging to Mrs. Janet Thomson or Deas, Publican, Buckhaven, and terminating by a junction with the extension of College Street, now in course of construction), the centre line of the proposed new road or street being at its termination situate on the line if prolonged parallel, but 2 feet to the south-east of the walls and railings in front of the feus belonging to Henry Nimmo and the Town Council on the south side of College Street, Buckhaven, at a point along such prolonged line 180 yards or thereby measured in a straight line in a north-easterly direction from the north corner of the feu of the said Henry Nimmo, and parallel with said walls and railings.

18. To authorise the stopping up and extinguishment of all rights-of-way over the public road leading from the east end of East High Street, Buckhaven, to West High Street, Methil, at the west end thereof, from a line drawn at right angles across the said public road, opposite to the east end of the feu of Alexander Patrick, to the junction line of the said public road with West High Street, Methil, and to provide for the substitution therefor of the following new road or roads in whole or in part, in course of construction, namely:—

(a) The said new road or street commencing by a junction with East High Street, Buckhaven, on the north side thereof, opposite Lady Wynd, and curving in a northerly and then north-westerly direction until it joins the extension of College Street hereinafter described.

(b) The new road or street being an extension of College Street, commencing at the present termination of College Street, and running thence in a north-easterly direction and then in a northerly direction across the North British Railway to its termination by a junction with the new road known as Wellesley Street West.

(c) That part of the new road known as Wellesley Street West, from its point of junction as aforesaid with College Street, to the east end of the bridge carrying the new road over the Wemyss Coal Company's, Limited, mineral railway; and (d) That street or road leading from the east end of the said bridge in an easterly direction, and terminating by a junction with West High Street, Methil.

19. To confirm and give effect to any agreement between the Town Council and Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss, with reference to any such stopping up the above-mentioned road and the substitution of the aforesaid or other new roads therefor, as may be entered into prior to the passing of the Act confirming the Order.

20. To authorise the Town Council to borrow money and from time to time to re-borrow for all or any purposes of the Order and the purchase of lands, houses, and other property, and to apply to such purposes any of their existing moneys and any moneys borrowed or authorised to be borrowed.

21. To authorise the Town Council to enter upon, appropriate, take, use, and acquire compulsorily or by agreement, lands, houses, and other property necessary for the purposes of the Order or any of them, and to hold the same for such purposes, or to lease, feu, or otherwise acquire lands, houses, or other property, and also rights of easement or servitude, permanent or temporary, in and over lands, houses, and property, and also to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands, houses, and other property which may in any way interfere with the purposes of the Order, and also to confer further or other powers, rights, and privileges, and to empower the Town Council to purchase so much only of the lands, houses, or property as they may require for the purposes of the Order, without being subject to the liabilty imposed by Section 90 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845.

22. To repeal, vary, or extinguish all rights, powers, authorities, jurisdictions, privileges, and
