LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACTS.
COUNTY COUNCIL ELECTORAL DIVISIONS OF STIRLINGSHIRE.

PARISH OF ST. NINIANS.

ORDER by the Secretary for Scotland.

WHEREAS by Order of the Boundary Commissioners, dated 22nd January 1892, the Parish of St. Ninians was divided into four Electoral Divisions, named respectively—(1) Bannockburn, (2) Cambusbarron, (3) Sauchie, and (4) Polmaise and Plean :

And whereas the County Council of the County of Stirling have represented to me that a material change of circumstances has occurred in respect of the population and annual value of the Electoral Division of Polmaise and Plean, and that it is desirable to divide the area comprised in the said Electoral Division into two Electoral Divisions, and accordingly to alter the number of County Councillors :

And whereas I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the proposal of the said County Council :

Now therefore I, the Right Honourable John Sinclair, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred on me by section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, order as follows:—

1. The number of County Councillors for the County of Stirling shall be increased from forty-five to forty-six.

2. The Polmaise and Plean Electoral Division as defined by the Order of the Boundary Commissioners for Scotland, dated 22nd January 1892, shall be divided into two County Council Electoral Divisions, having the following names and contents, that is to say:—

Names of Electoral Divisions.	Contents of Electoral Divisions.
Polmaise Division	That part of the present Polmaise and Plean Division lying to the north of the middle line of the road known as the Cowie road in said Parish, extending from the end of Tait's Close, Bannockburn, to a point near Burnhead steading and of a line drawn thence in an easterly direction along the southern boundary of the lands of Throsk to the Parish boundary.
Plean Division	The remaining portion of the present Polmaise and Plean Division lying to the south of the lines above described.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Whitehall this twentieth day of September 1907.

JOHN SINCLAIR,
His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACTS.

COUNTY COUNCIL ELECTORAL DIVISIONS OF THE COUNTY OF LANARK WITHIN THE BURGHS OF GOVAN, PARTICK, AND MOTHERWELL, AND THE PARISHES OF BOTHWELL, CAMBUSLANG, AND CADDER.

Whereas the contents and boundaries of the electoral divisions of the County of Lanark were determined by an Order under the hand and seal of the Secretary for Scotland, dated 16th May, 1899;

And whereas the contents and boundaries of the electoral divisions of the police burghs of Govan and Partick were altered by Orders under the hand and seal of the Secretary for Scotland, dated 11th October, 1901, and 14th September, 1904, respectively;

And whereas by deliverance of the Sheriff of the County of Lanark, dated 16th March, 1906, the municipal wards of the police burgh of Motherwell were increased from four to five, and altered in description so that, as now constituted, they do not coincide with the County Council electoral divisions as determined under the said Order of the Secretary for Scotland, dated 16th May, 1899;

And whereas the police burghs of Govan, Partick, and Motherwell, and the parishes of Bothwell and Cambuslang have within recent years increased in population and annual value;

And whereas certain parts of the Parish of Cadder, which is divided into two electoral divisions, have increased in population and annual value so as to make it advisable that the description of the contents and boundaries of these divisions should be readjusted;

And whereas, in view of the aforesaid material change of circumstances, the County Council of Lanark have applied to me for an Order in terms of Section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, providing for, inter alia, an increase in the representation of the Burghs of Govan, Partick, and Motherwell, and of the Parishes of Bothwell and Cambuslang, and for the readjustment of the contents and boundaries of the electoral divisions therein as well as in the Parish of Cadder;

And whereas I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the application of the said County Council, subject to certain modifications.

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable John Sinclair, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, in virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the said Acts, do hereby order and determine that the contents and boundaries of the electoral divisions within the police burghs of Govan, Partick, and Motherwell, and the Parishes of Bothwell, Cambuslang, and Cadder, shall be as follows, viz. :—

BURGH OF GOVAN.

GOVAN (NORTH PLANTATION).—That part of the Fifth Municipal Ward of the police burgh of Govan which lies to the north of the centre of Paisley Road, and to the east of a line drawn in a northerly direction from the junction of Paisley Road and Maclean Street along the centre of Maclean Street to its northmost point,

LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACTS.
COUNTY COUNCIL ELECTORAL DIVISIONS OF THE COUNTY OF DUMBERTON.

BURGH OF CLYDEBANK.

Whereas by their Order, dated 1st February 1892, the Boundary Commissioners for Scotland determined the Contents and Boundaries of the Electoral Divisions of the County of Dumbarton :

And whereas there were included the Electoral Divisions in the Parish of West Kilpatrick, known as Old Kilpatrick Electoral Division and Duntocher Electoral Division ; and the Contents and Boundaries of Electoral Divisions so far as within the Burgh of Clydebank were, under the Order of 1st February 1892, made coincident with the then existing Municipal Wards of the said Burgh ; and whereas by the Clydebank and District Water and Burgh Extension Order, 1906, the Boundaries of the Burgh of Clydebank were extended, and there were annexed and included within the Municipal limits of the Burgh portions of Old Kilpatrick and Duntocher Electoral Divisions, which portions so annexed now form the Fifth Municipal Ward of the Burgh of Clydebank :

And whereas, in view of the foregoing change of circumstances and of a material alteration in the circumstances in respect of population and valuation in the Electoral Divisions of Old Kilpatrick and Duntocher, it has been represented to me by the County Council of the County of Dumbarton that I should issue an Order, under section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, altering the Contents and Boundaries of the Electoral Divisions in the County of Dumbarton :

And whereas I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the Representation of the said County Council :

Now therefore, I, the Right Honourable John Sinclair, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, in virtue of the powers conferred upon me by section 51 of the Local Government

(Scotland) Act, 1889, do hereby order as follows :—

1. The Order of the Boundary Commissioners, dated 1st February 1892, dealing with the Electoral Divisions of the County of Dumbarton, is hereby recalled in so far as concerns those portions of the Electoral Divisions of Old Kilpatrick and Duntocher annexed to the Burgh of Clydebank, by the Clydebank and District Water and Burgh Extension Order, 1906. The portions of Old Kilpatrick Electoral Division and Duntocher Electoral Division, now included in and forming the Fifth Municipal Ward of the Burgh of Clydebank, shall be formed into a new and additional Electoral Division, to be known as Clydebank Fifth Electoral Division.

2. The Boundaries of the Electoral Divisions of Old Kilpatrick and Duntocher shall be correspondingly altered by the exclusion therefrom of the portions thereof now included within the limits of the Burgh of Clydebank.

3. The number of County Councillors for the County of Dumbarton shall be increased from forty to forty-one, and the additional County Councillor shall be assigned to Clydebank Fifth Electoral Division.

4. Clydebank Fifth Electoral Division shall be number 37, and the numbers of the under-mentioned Electoral Divisions shall be as follows :—

- 38. Kirkintilloch North-West ;
- 39. Kirkintilloch North-East ;
- 40. Kirkintilloch South ;
- 41. Milngavie.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall this twentieth day of September 1907.

L. P. JOHANNESSEN LIMITED.

INTIMATION is hereby made that on 23rd September 1907, a Petition was presented to the Lords of Council and Session (Second Division,—Mr. Campbell, Clerk), at the instance of the above-named Company, praying their Lordships, inter alia, to make an Order confirming the reduction of the capital of the Company, resolved on by the following Special Resolution of the Company, passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company held on 23rd August, and confirmed at a subsequent Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company held on 11th September 1907 :—

“That the capital of the Company be reduced from £57,594, 10s., divided into 25,000 preference shares of 12s. 6d. each, fully paid, and 83,939 ordinary shares of 10s. each, fully paid, to £41,969, 10s., divided into 83,939 ordinary shares of 10s. each, fully paid, and that such reduction be effected by cancelling the said 25,000 preference shares of 12s. 6d. fully paid, and by returning to the holders of the said shares the sum of 12s. 6d. in respect of each share, being the amount of paid-up capital thereon, together with the Dividend accrued thereon to the date of repayment—the said reduction being effected because the capital so to be reduced and repaid is in excess of the wants of the Company :”

To approve of a Minute showing with respect to the capital of the Company as so altered the amount of such capital, the number of shares into which it is divided, the amount of each share, and the amount deemed to have been paid up on each share at the date of registration of said Minute : to direct registration of said Confirmation Order and Minute by the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, and (on the said Order and Minute being registered by the said Registrar), to direct notice of such registration to be given by advertisement once in the Edinburgh Gazette, and to dispense altogether with the addition of the words “and reduced” as part of the name of the Company.

In the said Petition the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills has been pleased to pronounce the following Interlocutor :—

“Edinburgh, 23rd September 1907.—The Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills dispenses meantime “with the addition to the petitioning Company's name “of the words ‘and reduced,’ appoints the Petition to “be intimated on the Walls and in the Minute-Book “in common form, and to be advertised once in the “Edinburgh Gazette and once in each of the Scotsman, “Aberdeen Journal, and Aberdeen Free Press newspapers, and allows all concerned to lodge Answers “within eight days after such intimation and advertisement.”
