LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACTS.
COUNTY COUNCIL ELECTORAL DIVISIONS OF STIRLINGSHIRE.

PARISH OF ST. NINIANS.

ORDER by the Secretary for Scotland.

WHEREAS by Order of the Boundary Commissioners, dated 22nd January 1892, the Parish of St. Ninians was divided into four Electoral Divisions, named respectively—(1) Bannockburn, (2) Cambusbarron, (3) Sauchie, and (4) Polmaise and Plean :

And whereas the County Council of the County of Stirling have represented to me that a material change of circumstances has occurred in respect of the population and annual value of the Electoral Division of Polmaise and Plean, and that it is desirable to divide the area comprised in the said Electoral Division into two Electoral Divisions, and accordingly to alter the number of County Councillors :

And whereas I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the proposal of the said County Council :

Now therefore I, the Right Honourable John Sinclair, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred on me by section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, order as follows:—

1. The number of County Councillors for the County of Stirling shall be increased from forty-five to forty-six.

2. The Polmaise and Plean Electoral Division as defined by the Order of the Boundary Commissioners for Scotland, dated 22nd January 1892, shall be divided into two County Council Electoral Divisions, having the following names and contents, that is to say:—

Names of Electoral Divisions.	Contents of Electoral Divisions.
Polmaise Division	That part of the present Polmaise and Plean Division lying to the north of the middle line of the road known as the Cowie road in said Parish, extending from the end of Tait's Close, Bannockburn, to a point near Burnhead steading and of a line drawn thence in an easterly direction along the southern boundary of the lands of Throsk to the Parish boundary.
Plean Division	The remaining portion of the present Polmaise and Plean Division lying to the south of the lines above described.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Whitehall this twentieth day of September 1907.

JOHN SINCLAIR,
His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland.
