ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, Jan. 22.

Copy of a letter from the Right Hon. Lord KEITH, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to WILLIAM MARSDEN, Esq. dated on board the Ardent, off Ramsgate, the 21st instant.

SIR,

I transmit, for their Lordships information, a copy of a letter from Captain Elphinstone, of his Majesty's ship the Greyhound, to Captain Laroche, of the Melpomene, reporting the capture of another of the enemy's privateers that have lately infested the channel; and from which their Lordships will have the satisfaction of observing, that Mr Dalyell, acting Lieutenant of the Rattler, and Mr Donaldson, the late acting Commander of the Folstone, are alive, and likely to recover.

I am, &c.

KEITH.

SIR,

Greyhound, at sea, Jan. 19, 1805.

Cruizing in conformity to your orders, I yesterday fell in with, and, after an eleven hours chase, captured the French lugger privateer Le Vinereux, Jan B. Pollet Captain, armed with fifteen guns, and having on board a complement of sixty-nine men. She sailed from St Vallery en Caux (to which port she belonged) on Thursday, and had taken nothing. She is a remarkable fine vessel, about sixty tons burden, nearly new, and sails so well, that had we not been greatly favoured by frequent changes of wind, I believe all our efforts in pursuit of her would have been fruitless.

It was against this lugger that the gallant, although unfortunate, attempt was made by the boats of his Majesty's sloop Rattler and Folstone lugger; and it is with great satisfaction I learnt, that the Lieutenants of the Rattler and Folstone were still living, and, although severely wounded, that there is very great expectation of their recovery.

I remain, &c.

(Signed) C. ELPHINSTONE.

Christopher Laroche, Esq. Melpomene, off Havre.
