SKELMORLIE AND WEMYSS BAY ELECTRIC SUPPLY.

(The generation, storage and supply of electricity by Dr. William Cornfoot Philp and Mr. Reginald Vandezee Farnham in portions of the Parish of Inverkip in the County of Renfrew and the Parish of Largs in the County of Ayr; the breaking up and interference with roads and streets; the laying down and erection of electric lines, wires, posts and apparatus; the taking and recovery of rates and charges; supply of energy to consumers having separate supply; power to refuse to supply in certain cases; consumers to give notice before removing; supply of electrical energy beyond area of supply; manufacture &c. of meters, lamps, fittings &c.; exemption of Company's fittings &c. from distress and execution; incorporation of acts and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given that Dr. William Cornfoot Philp, whose address is Wemyss Bay Hydropathic, Skelmorlie, and Reginald Vandezee Farnham, Engineer, whose address is Audley End, Skelmorlie, trading together as the Skelmorlie Electrical Supply Company, Skelmorlie, Ayrshire (hereinafter called "the Undertakers") intend to apply to the Board of Trade on or before the 21st day of December next for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called "the Order") under the Electric Lighting Acts 1882 and 1888 and the Electric Lighting Clauses Act 1899 for all or some of the following among other purposes:—

I. To authorise the Undertakers to generate, store and supply electricity for all public and private purposes as defined by the Electric Lighting Acts 1882 to 1890 within the following area (hereinafter referred to as "the area of supply") that is to say:—

In those portions of the Parish of Inverkip in the County of Renfrew, and of the Parish of Largs in the County of Ayr, included within the area bounded by a line commencing at a point on the high water mark near the mouth of the Brueacre Burn on the Firth of Clyde in the said Parish of Inverkip and proceeding thence southward along high water mark of the said Firth of Clyde, and following the bends thereof, to a point on the high water mark directly opposite the mouth of the Blackhouse Burn adjoining the public highway from Greenock to Largs where the road leads to the site of St. Fillan's Chapel, proceeding thence eastwards in a line with said Blackhouse Burn for a distance, if measured in a straight line, of 940 yards or thereabouts, proceeding thence in a straight line in a northward direction for a distance of 4 miles, 485 yards or thereabouts to the bridge where the high road to Inverkip crosses the Brueacre Burn, proceeding thence in a westerly direction following the course of the Brueacre Burn to the point of commencement above described, a distance, if measured in a straight line, of 913 yards or thereabouts.

2. To incorporate with the Order such of the provisions contained in the Schedule to the Electric Lighting Clauses Act 1899 as are applicable to cases in which the Undertakers are not the local authority, and to apply such provisions to the undertaking to be authorised by the Order, subject to such variations and exceptions as Parliament or the Board of Trade may prescribe.

3. To authorise the Undertakers to break up the following roads or streets not repairable by the local authority, viz:—The Wemyss Bay Road from Inverkip Road to Undercliff Road; Wallace Road from Cliff Terrace Road to Wemyss Bay Road; Undercliff Road from Wemyss Bay Road to Ardgowan Road; the unnamed road leading from Cliff Terrace Road to Wemyss Farm; the footpath leading from the Kelly Bridge Road to Montgomery Terrace; Crescent Road from its junction with Eglinton Terrace and Montgomery Terrace to a point on said road opposite to the plot of ground marked No. 1369 on Sheet No. 1-7 of the 25 inch Ordnance Survey Map of Ayrshire (Second Edition 1897); the unnamed road leading from Crescent Road to the private house known as Heathfield from its junction with Crescent Road to a point on the said unnamed road opposite to Heathfield; the unnamed road leading from Eglinton Terrace by Annat Yard to Beithglass; the unnamed road leading from Eglinton Terrace to Skelmorlie Mains; the unnamed road leading from Skelmorlie Castle Road by Millburn Cottage to Bridgend; the unnamed road leading from St. Fillan's Road to Auchengarth; the unnamed road leading from St. Fillan's Road to Millrig; the unnamed road with steps adjoining the Established Church ground leading from the Shore Road to the avenue forming access to Upper Skelmorlie; and the unnamed road adjoining the Hydropathic ground on the west leading from the Shore Road to the Terrace Road.

4. The names of the streets in which it is proposed that electric lines should be laid down within such period not exceeding four years as may be specified by the Order are as follows:—That part of the public highway known as the Shore Road from Kelly Burn Bridge southward to a point near the main entrance Gate of Skelmorlie Bank House; the pathway from the Shore Road adjoining the Established Church ground leading to the main Carriage Drive to Upper Skelmorlie, and thence to the Cross Roads, where the Drive, the Station Road, and the Mid Skelmorlie Road, meet; that part of the public highway from the Cross Roads along the Mid Skelmorlie Road to the entrance of the Crescent, thence round the Crescent to the junction of the Mid Road with the Terrace Road; the road from the last named junction along the Terrace to the Carriage Drive to Upper Skelmorlie; the pathway from said Terrace forming the Lane adjoining the Hydropathic to the Shore Road; the road from the junction of the Terrace Road with the Mid Skelmorlie Road southward to the foot of the road leading to Skelmorlie Mains; and the road from the South end of the Crescent eastward along the Halketburn Road to the corner of the second unnamed Avenue above the Crescent.

5. To prescribe and limit the price to be charged for the supply of electrical energy.

6. To confer upon the Undertakers all or some of the powers of the Electric Lighting Acts 1882 and 1888, and enactments incorporated therewith, and to alter, vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would or might interfere with any of the objects of the Order, and to confer all other rights and privileges necessary for carrying such objects into effect.

7. To make special provision with respect to the rights and obligations of the Undertakers in affording a supply of electricity to premises having a separate supply, and the terms and conditions on which such supply will be afforded and if and so far as is necessary to exempt the Undertakers from the provisions of the Electric Lighting Act 1882 in respect of such premises.

8. To provide that the Undertakers may refuse to supply electrical energy to any persons whose payments for the supply of such energy may be in arrear, and to require that consumers of electrical energy shall give notice to the Undertakers before quitting any premises supplied with such energy by the Undertakers and to provide for the liabilities of such consumers when the requisite Notice is not given.

9. To authorise the Undertakers to manufacture, sell, let, hire and supply, set up, alter, repair and remove lamps, meters, electric lines, motors, fittings and all other apparatus and things necessary or proper for the utilisation of electrical energy for lighting, motive power, and for any other purpose in connection with the supply, distribution and use of electrical energy, and to provide materials and do all work necessary or proper in that behalf, and to make and recover charges for any services rendered in connection with such work, and to provide that any property of the Undertakers placed on the premises of a consumer shall not be subject to pouncing or the landlord's remedy for rent or be taken in execution under any process of law or otherwise.

10. To authorise the Undertakers to supply electrical energy to any district adjacent to their area of supply to any local authority and (with the consent of the local authority) to any Company or person within the local authority's jurisdiction, for all or any purposes for which such local authority, Company or person is or may be authorised to use the same.

And notice is hereby given that the draft of the Order will be deposited at the offices of the Board of Trade on or before the 21st day of December next, and printed copies of the draft Order when deposited, and of the Order when made, may be obtained (at the price of one shilling for each copy) from the Undertakers at Wemyss Bay Hydropathic, Skelmorlie, Ayrshire, and at the offices of the undermentioned Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents.

And notice is hereby further given that a map showing the boundaries of the proposed area of supply and the roads or streets in which it is proposed that electric lines shall be laid down within a specified time, and a copy of this advertisement as published in the "Edinburgh Gazette" will be deposited on or before the 30th day of November instant for public inspection with the principal Sheriff Clerk for the County of Renfrew at his Office at Greenock and with the principal Sheriff Clerk for the County of Ayr at his Office at Kilmarnock, and with the Clerks to the County Councils of the Counties of Renfrew and Ayr respectively at their Offices at County Buildings, Paisley, and County Buildings, Ayr, respectively.

And notice is hereby further given that every local or other authority, Company or person desirous of bringing before the Board of Trade any objection respecting the application must do so by letter addressed to the Board of Trade marked on the outside of the cover containing it "Electric Lighting Acts" on or before the 15th day of January, 1910, and a copy of such objection must also be forwarded to the undersigned Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for an Act for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To constitute and incorporate the Trustees of the Bankers Guarantee and Trust Fund or such other persons as may be described by the intended Act and to transfer to and vest in or to provide for the transfer to and vesting in the body so incorporated (hereinafter called "the Trust") of all lands, tenements, hereditaments, moneys, stocks, funds, securities and real and personal estate, rights and interests of whatsoever tenure or nature belonging to or vested in or held by the Trustees of the said Fund or any person or persons on their behalf all of which are hereinafter included in the expression "the Fund," and to provide for the discharge of the Trustees of the Fund and for the release of the Trustees and of the Fund and of the New Fund constituted by the intended Act from claims of subscribers or members in such events as may be determined or provided for by the intended Act.

2. To define the objects of the Trust and to make provision for guaranteeing such banks as may be defined by the intended Act and other bodies and persons employing persons in the employment of any such bank or who may be subscribers to or members of the New Fund as defined by the intended Act against losses arising from the acts of persons employed by them and for the issue of policies of assurance and for the administration of the Fund and the New Fund and to authorize the Trust to undertake and carry on any other assurance business (not being Life Assurance or Employers' liability or Workmen's Compensation Assurance) for the benefit of Banks or Bankers or persons employed by them and to authorize the collection and recovery of premiums and the formation and administration of separate funds in relation to any such business, and to confer upon the Trust all such other powers, rights and privileges as may be incident to or expedient for or in relation to the purposes aforesaid, and to provide for the investment of the moneys and funds of the Trust in such manner and upon such securities as the Directors may think fit or the intended Act may prescribe, and for the application of their revenue and surplus funds.

3. To make provision for the qualification, nomination, and appointment of directors and of a president and for the remuneration of directors and to determine the number of directors and the quorum of the directors at their meetings, and to authorize them to issue to employers policies of assurance (hereinafter called "policies") against acts of dishonesty, fraud or criminal misconduct by their employees and to provide for the appointment and removal and remuneration of officers agents and servants for the conduct of the business of the Trust.

4. To define the powers, rights, duties, obligations and liabilities of the Directors, and to make provision for regulating their proceedings, and to authorize them to amalgamate the business of the Trust with any other similar business upon such terms as they may think fit or as the intended Act may prescribe and to make provision for the appointment of committees of directors and for defining and regulating their powers and duties.

5. To determine who are or may become subscribers to or members of the New Fund the rights, privileges and obligations of subscribers or members, and the amount, terms and conditions of their subscriptions and generally to make or provide for the making from time to time of such rules and regulations as the Trust consider expedient, or which may be authorized or provided for by the intended Act with respect to the conduct of their business, the management, investment, application, disposal and administration of the Trust and the revenues thereof, and if thought fit to enable the funds of the Trust or any part or parts thereof, to be applied for the benefit of subscribers to or members

(existing or past) of the Fund or the New Fund or any other Fund established by the Trust and their families, and the granting of bonuses and pensions to persons employed by the Trust, or previously by the Trustees of the Fund and to make provision for the distribution of the funds of the Trust in case of the Trust being wound up or otherwise determined.

6. To provide for the nomination or appointment from among the members of the New Fund or otherwise of a Council to be called "the Representative Council" (or such other name as may be prescribed by the intended Act) to consider and investigate proposals for membership of the New Fund to bring before the Directors matters affecting the interests of members of the New Fund, and for such other purposes and objects as may be defined by the intended Act and to define the powers and duties of the said Council, and to make provision for the remuneration of members thereof.

7. To confer upon the existing Trustees and upon the Directors and all other necessary parties all rights, powers, authorities and privileges which are or may become necessary for carrying into effect the objects and purposes of the intended Act, and to alter cancel or annul the existing rules and regulations relating to the Fund, and to vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would or might in any manner impede or interfere with any such objects or purposes, and to confer other exemptions, rights and privileges.

Printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December, 1909.

THE ALL BRITISH CAR COMPANY LIMITED (in Liquidation).

NOTICE.

INTIMATION is hereby given that a Note has been presented to the Hon. Lord Cullen (Mr. M'Cauley, Clerk) for John Robinson Nesbitt, M'Phail Street, Bridgeton, Glasgow, and Thomson M'Lintock, Chartered Accountant, Glasgow, Liquidators of the All British Car Company Limited, praying his Lordship to appoint said Note to be intimated on the Walls and in the Minute-Book in common form, and to be advertised once in the Edinburgh Gazette, and intimation of the same to be made to each Creditor who has lodged a claim, by serving a copy of said Note and the Interlocutor following thereon, and of the Deliverance on such claim, by registered post letter, accompanied by an excerpt from the Schedule of Deliverances of the entry therein applicable to such Creditor's claim, and to ordain such Creditors to lodge Answers to said Note, if so advised, within fourteen days after such intimation, advertisement, and service; and on resuming consideration of the said Note, with or without Answers, (1) to authorise the Liquidators to pay the law expenses of the Liquidation as these may be taxed by the Auditor of Court, and to remit the same to the Auditor accordingly; (2) to remit to an Accountant to audit the Liquidators' accounts and to report thereon, and as to the amount of the Liquidators' remuneration; (3) to fix the amount of said remuneration, and authorise the Liquidators to take credit therefor; (4) to approve of the Deliverances of the Liquidators contained in the said Schedule, or to make such alterations, if any, as may be required on such Deliverances, and to rank the claims of the Creditors in accordance therewith; (5) to approve of the said accounts of intromissions; (6) to authorise the Liquidators to make payment of the balance in their hands to the Creditors ranked by the said Deliverance as so approved, in proportion to their claims as thereby ranked, and to consign with the Accountant of Court all (if any) unclaimed Dividends; (7) to exoner, acquit, and discharge the Liquidators of their whole actings, intromissions, and management as such Liquidators; and (8) to pronounce an Order authorising the Liquidators, after the lapse of three months from the date of the Order, to destroy the books and papers of the Company, and dissolving the Company from the date of said Order.

On the said Note the said Lord Cullen has pronounced the following Interlocutor:—

“ 23rd November 1909.—Lord Cullen—Act. M'Robert.—The Lord Ordinary, having considered the Note for the Liquidators, No. 60 of Process, appoints the same to be intimated, advertised, and served as craved; and allows all parties having interest to lodge Answers, if so advised, in fourteen days after such intimation, advertisement, and service; remits the business accounts of the Law-Agents in the Liquidation to the Auditor of Court for taxation and report; remits the Liquidators' accounts of intromissions to Mr. John Scott Tait, C.A., Edinburgh, for examination and report; also remits to Mr. Tait to report what sum, in his opinion, would be suitable remuneration to the Liquidators.

“ W. J. CULLEN.”

Of all which Intimation is hereby made.
