Now, therefore, We, the Local Government Board for Scotland, by this Our Order, and in the exercise of the powers conferred upon Us by the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, and the Public Health (Regulations as to Food) Act, 1907, and of every other power enabling Us in that behalf, do make the following Regulations, that is to say :

"(2) For the purposes of this Article, an application may be made by the Local Authority to any Sheriff, Magistrate, or Justice having jurisdiction in the district who shall direct any foreign meat to be destroyed by the Local Authority under the supervision of the Medical Officer of Health, if the Sheriff, Magistrate, or Justice is satisfied that, in pursuance of any Regulations made under the Public Health (Regulations as to Food) Act, 1907, and in force for the time being, the removal of the meat to a place of destination in Scotland for any purpose other than exportation has been forbidden, and that there is an absence of proof as regards Foreign Meat of Class I., or Foreign Meat of Class II., that the meat is not intended for sale for human consumption,

"and as regards Foreign Meat of Class III., or Foreign Meat Unclassed, (1) that the meat is not diseased, unsound, unwholesome, or unfit for human consumption, or (2) that it is not intended for sale for human consumption.

By that order the Sheriff, Magistrate, or Justice shall direct that the prohibition of the removal of the meat in pursuance of any such Regulation as aforesaid shall cease to have effect.

"The Sheriff, Magistrate, or Justice shall further set forth in the order the description of and such other details as will suffice to identify the particular consignment of meat; together with the name, description, and abode of the importer, and the name, description, and abode of the person to whom the consignment of meat is to be delivered; and shall forthwith furnish the Local Authority with a copy of the order.
