TUESDAY, JULY 12, 1910.

SCOTTISH OFFICE, WHITEHALL,

June 6, 1910.

L OYAL and Dutiful Addresses from the General Assembly of the United Free Church of Scotland and from the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland having been forwarded to the Secretary for Scotland for presentation to the King, have been presented accordingly to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

SCOTTISH OFFICE, WHITEHALL,

July 11, 1910.

The following address was presented to His Majesty at St. James' Palace on Friday the 8th July:—

UNIVERSITY OF GLASGOW.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty,

On behalf of all the Members of the University of Glasgow, we, the Chancellor, Rector, and Principal of the University, beg leave respectfully to tender to Your Majesty and the Members of the Royal Family our deep sympathy in this time of national sorrow.

By the decease of Your Majesty's illustrious Father, the Empire has lost a magnanimous Ruler, who gave his whole-hearted devotion to the duties of his kingly office, and spent his strength in furthering the welfare of his people. The memory of what his wisdom achieved in the cause of peace and goodwill among men will ever be gratefully cherished, not only within the British Dominions but throughout the civilised world.

Charged as we are with the interests of one of the National Universities, we are ourselves specially mindful of His late Majesty's heedful care for the promotion of higher education in this country, and we recall in particular the gracious encouragement he accorded to the University of Glasgow when with his Royal Consort he laid the foundation of its present building, and was pleased to assume its academic title of Doctor.

For all he did to maintain the high traditions of the great and glorious reign of the well-beloved Queen Victoria, and for all that in virtue of his surpassing qualities of mind and heart he accomplished for the nation, his subjects have abundant grounds of heartfelt thankfulness.

To Your Majesty, whose recent visit to the University accompanied by the Princess who is now our Gracious Queen will ever be a memorable event in our annals, we would offer in all dutifulness our loyal homage on Your Majesty's accession to the Throne of Your Fathers. We are deeply conscious of the favour Your Majesty has already shown to the University by participating in our efforts to extend its equipment for the advancement of knowledge, and by permitting your name and that of Her Majesty the Queen to be inscribed upon its roll of honorary graduates. It will be our constant aim to foster worthily the institution thus graced by association with Your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, and it will be our constant prayer that long life and happiness, with every Divine blessing, may be vouchsafed to Their Majesties our King and Queen.

Signed and Sealed on behalf of the University of Glasgow, and presented to His Majesty the King on this eighth day of July 1910.

L. S.

ROSEBERRY, Chancellor.
CURZON OF KEDLESTON, Rector.
DONALD MAC ALISTER, Principal.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

It gives me great satisfaction to receive you here to-day as the Representatives of the ancient University of Glasgow, and I thank you for your expression of sympathy with Myself and My Family in the loss which we have sustained and for your expressions of loyalty to Queen Mary and Myself.

I look back with pleasure on the visit which I made recently to your University, of which I am proud to be a member, and you may rest assured that I shall follow My beloved Father, the late King, in maintaining a strong interest in the great task which falls upon the University of Glasgow and the other Universities of Scotland, a task which is truly national in its scope, and which is achieved in a manner to which witness is borne throughout the Dominions of the Crown. It is my earnest hope that, with the continued support and encouragement of the great City of Glasgow, your University may long flourish on its high seat, and pass on the torch of learning for the benefit of Scotland and the Empire.

Local Government (Scotland) Acts.

COUNTY COUNCIL ELECTORAL DIVISIONS OF NAIRN.

Order by the Secretary for Scotland.

WHEREAS by their Order dated the 10th December 1891, the Boundary Commissioners for Scotland divided the County of Nairn into certain Electoral Divisions including the Electoral Divisions known as Brackla, Cawdor, and Kilravock respectively:

And whereas the County Council of the County of Nairn have represented to me that it is desirable to alter the contents and boundaries of the said Brackla, Cawdor, and Kilravock Electoral Divisions:

And whereas I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the proposals of the said County Council:

Now therefore I, the Right Honourable John, Baron Pentland, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred on me by section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889 (as amended by the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1908), order as follows:—

The parts of the Parish of Croy and Dalcross which by the Order of the Boundary Commissioners, dated 10th December 1891, dealing with the Electoral Divisions of the County of Nairn, were annexed to the Brackla and Cawdor Electoral Divisions, shall be and are hereby disjoined from the said Electoral Divisions, and shall be and are hereby added to the Kilravock Electoral Division.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall, this 7th day of July 1910.
