SCOTTISH OFFICE, WHITEHALL,

June 6, 1910.

L OYAL and Dutiful Addresses from the General Assembly of the United Free Church of Scotland and from the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland having been forwarded to the Secretary for Scotland for presentation to the King, have been presented accordingly to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

SCOTTISH OFFICE, WHITEHALL,

July 11, 1910.

The following address was presented to His Majesty at St. James' Palace on Friday the 8th July:—

UNIVERSITY OF GLASGOW.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty,

On behalf of all the Members of the University of Glasgow, we, the Chancellor, Rector, and Principal of the University, beg leave respectfully to tender to Your Majesty and the Members of the Royal Family our deep sympathy in this time of national sorrow.

By the decease of Your Majesty's illustrious Father, the Empire has lost a magnanimous Ruler, who gave his whole-hearted devotion to the duties of his kingly office, and spent his strength in furthering the welfare of his people. The memory of what his wisdom achieved in the cause of peace and goodwill among men will ever be gratefully cherished, not only within the British Dominions but throughout the civilised world.

Charged as we are with the interests of one of the National Universities, we are ourselves specially mindful of His late Majesty's heedful care for the promotion of higher education in this country, and we recall in particular the gracious encouragement he accorded to the University of Glasgow when with his Royal Consort he laid the foundation of its present building, and was pleased to assume its academic title of Doctor.

For all he did to maintain the high traditions of the great and glorious reign of the well-beloved Queen Victoria, and for all that in virtue of his surpassing qualities of mind and heart he accomplished for the nation, his subjects have abundant grounds of heartfelt thankfulness.

To Your Majesty, whose recent visit to the University accompanied by the Princess who is now our Gracious Queen will ever be a memorable event in our annals, we would offer in all dutifulness our loyal homage on Your Majesty's accession to the Throne of Your Fathers. We are deeply conscious of the favour Your Majesty has already shown to the University by participating in our efforts to extend its equipment for the advancement of knowledge, and by permitting your name and that of Her Majesty the Queen to be inscribed upon its roll of honorary graduates. It will be our constant aim to foster worthily the institution thus graced by association with Your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, and it will be our constant prayer that long life and happi-
