TUESDAY, JULY 19, 1910.

SCOTTISH OFFICE, WHITEHALL,

July 18, 1910.

THE King has been pleased, by Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 16th July 1910, to appoint Mr. David Johnstone Doughty as one of His Majesty's Trumpeters in Scotland, in the room of Mr. Henry John O'Neil, deceased.

Roads and Bridges (Scotland) Amendment Act, 1892 (55 & 56 Vict. c. 12).

ORDER by the Secretary for Scotland.

WHEREAS by the fifth section of the Roads and Bridges (Scotland) Amendment Act, 1892, it is provided as follows:—

Notwithstanding anything contained in section eighty of the Act first and second William the Fourth, chapter forty-three, as incorporated in the Roads and Bridges (Scotland) Act, 1878, the exemption from the general right of searching for, digging, and carrying away materials, as made in the said section eighty, shall be extended to such land or grounds as it may appear to the Secretary for Scotland, on the application of the proprietor thereof, desirable to preserve intact, on the ground of national or public interest or historical association.

And whereas an application has been made to me by the Town Council of the City of Edinburgh that the exemption from the general right of searching for, digging, and carrying away materials, may be extended to the lands known as the Blackford Hill, Edinburgh, so far as the same belong to the said Town Council.

Now therefore I, the Right Honourable John,

Baron Pentland, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by the said Roads and Bridges (Scotland) Amendment Act, 1892, do hereby determine that it is desirable to preserve intact on the grounds of national and public interest the lands known as the Blackford Hill, Edinburgh, so far as the same belong to the Town Council of the City of Edinburgh; and that the exemption from the general right of searching for, digging, and carrying away materials, as made in section eighty of the Act first and second William IV., chapter forty-three, as incorporated in the Roads and Bridges (Scotland) Act, 1878, shall extend to the said lands.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Whitehall, this fifteenth day of July 1910.

L. S.

PENTLAND,

His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland.

THE CHARNWOOD FOREST RAILWAY COMPANY AND THE CHARNWOOD FOREST RAILWAY ACT, 1910.

To all Persons holding Certificates for or claiming to be entitled to or interested in any of the Ordinary Shares in the Capital of the Charnwood Forest Railway Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to the powers vested in the Company by sections 3 and 4 of the above-mentioned Act, that all persons holding Certificates for or claiming, whether under Certificates or otherwise, to be entitled to, or interested in, any of the Ordinary Shares in the Capital of the Charnwood Forest Railway Company, are requested to forthwith send by post prepaid, or deliver to the Solicitors of the Company, Messrs Knapp-Fisher & Sons, at their Offices, No. 27 Buckingham Gate, Westminster, S.W., a statement in writing of their names, addresses, and the number of Shares in respect of which they claim, and all material particulars, together with a List, as required by section 4 of the Act, of any Certificates, receipts, vouchers, letters, or other documents held by them in relation or referring to the Shares so claimed; and Notice is hereby also given that by section 15 (1) of the Charnwood Forest Railway Act, 1910, it is enacted as follows:—

"15 (1) In the case of any person who shall not have sent in a claim to the Company within the period of one year prescribed by this Act for the sending in of claims, all right, title, interest, or claim of such person to be the holder of any Ordinary Share in the Capital of the Company shall be absolutely barred and extinguished, and the Company shall be freed and discharged from all liability to any such person in respect of any Ordinary Shares in the Capital of the Company or any dividends or interest thereon."

* Note.—The period of one year above referred to dates from the first publication of this advertisement, i.e. from the 19th of July 1910.

The Act contains, amongst other things, provision for referring, if so required by the Claimant, any disputed claim in a summary way to the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice. Any further information as to the object and provisions of the Act, or the procedure to be adopted, can be obtained on application during business hours from the Solicitors of the Company.

Dated the 14th July 1910.
