

BURGH OF KEITH.
EXTENSION OF BOUNDARIES.

INTIMATION is hereby given that the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Keith, in the County of Banff, have presented an Initial Writ to the Sheriff of Aberdeen, Kincardine, and Banff at Banff, craving the Court—

To revise, alter, and extend the boundaries of the said Burgh for the purposes of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Acts, and the Town Councils (Scotland) Acts, and to define in a written Deliverance the new boundaries of the said Burgh in manner following, videlicet:—Commencing at the north end of the bridge crossing the Isla on the road from Keith to Newmill, the boundary runs along the north bank of the river Isla to the junction of said river with the Burn of Haughs, thence along the north bank of said burn until it meets the Loan Burn, thence crossing at the junction of said burns, along the north side of the public road a distance of 450 feet or thereby, thence crossing the road and along the margin of Fife-Keith Wood to the road leading to the Dufftown Road, thence along the west side of said road to the south side of said wood, thence easterly along the south side of the road leading therefrom to Fife-Keith to the corner of the wood, thence crossing the road to said corner and following the margin of the wood along its windings in a westerly, northerly, and easterly direction to a point three hundred and ten feet or thereby from the public road leading from Keith to Fochabers, thence in a straight line easterly to the north-west corner of the plantation on the west side of Duff Street, Fife-Keith, thence along the west side of said plantation to the south-west point thereof, and crossing the road and along the south side of the road to a point in line with the west boundary of the feus in Duff Street, thence in a straight line southerly a distance of one thousand feet or thereby, passing the south-west march stone of Fife-Keith boundary, thence in a straight line easterly until the boundary reaches the river Isla, thence along the west bank of said river to the railway bridge at Corsairty, thence across the railway and river to the south-east corner of the Cuthill Wood, thence in a straight line easterly to the Green Road, thence along the west side of said Green Road in a southerly and easterly direction, following the bend until said road reaches the service road leading from the south-west corner of the Market Green to lotted lands, thence in a north-easterly direction along said road to the south-west corner of the Nursery Park a distance of 300 feet or thereby, thence in an easterly direction along the south side of said park to the road leading to the Braehead Lime Quarry, thence along the south-east side of said road until it reaches the road to Denhead, thence along the south side of the Den Burn and along its windings until the burn crosses the road from Keith to Huntly at the Den Bridge, thence along said burn while it runs at the margin of said wood, thence across said burn and along the east end of said wood, thence round the north margin of said wood till the Horse Market Leas, thence by the east side of said Horse Market Leas to north-east point thereof, thence in a straight line to a point 50 feet or thereby from the east end of Bridge Street, Keith, thence in a slightly bent line in a northerly direction along the east side of the main sewer running into the Den Burn to a point in the Westerton Road 315 feet or thereby from Back Street, Keith, thence in a straight line to a point in the Drum Road 625 feet or thereby from the east side of the Moss Street feus, thence crossing the road and along the ditch in a straight line to the Banff Road, thence continuing the straight line to a point in Broomhill 490 feet or thereby from said Banff Road, thence in a straight line to the Broomhill Road at a point in said road 1406 feet from where it joins the Banff Road, thence through the Broomhill Lotted Lands in a north-westerly direction to a point 110 feet or thereby beyond the termination of the old Newmill Road, thence in a north-easterly direction along the footpath until the boundary reaches the new Newmill Road, thence along the south side of said last mentioned road until the road turns in a northerly direction, thence by the outer bend of the said last mentioned road and along the east side thereof until the boundary reaches the north side of the railway, thence easterly along the north side of the railway a distance of 1160 feet or thereby until the boundary reaches the approach to the overline bridge, thence in a northerly direction crossing said approach a distance of 38 feet or thereby, thence in an easterly direction along the bottom of the bank of said approach a distance of 392 feet or thereby, thence in an easterly direction along the north side of the railway to a point 90 feet or thereby from said overline bridge, thence in a northerly direction a distance of 180 feet or thereby, thence in a north-easterly direction through the lotted lands to the north bank of the river Isla in a straight line a distance of 1401 feet or thereby, thence by the north bank of the Isla in a westerly direction following the bends a distance of 3542 feet or thereby to the point where these boundaries began, all as shown on a plan of the said Burgh produced herewith;—and to find and declare that the whole expenses incurred by the pursuers under this Initial Writ shall be defrayed out of the Burgh General Assessment levied within said Burgh in terms of said Acts.

That the Sheriff, by Deliverance dated 8th February 1911, has appointed Intimation of the said Initial Writ of the said Boundaries and of his said Deliverance to be given by advertisement in the Edinburgh Gazette and in the Banffshire Herald newspaper, Keith, and also by handbills posted within the Burgh; and that all persons desiring to oppose the prayer of said Initial Writ or to be heard in relation thereto are required to lodge a Notice of Appearance in the hands of the Clerk of the Court at Banff within seven days from the latest date of intimation.

Of all which Intimation is hereby given.
