

We recall with the utmost pride and gratification that our predecessors, the students of 1859-1860, enjoyed the great honour of having among their number Your Majesty's Royal Father, the late King Edward of glorious memory.

That Your Majesty and Your gracious Consort may long be spared in health to strengthen the ties that bind the Empire, to reign over a happy and contented people, and to promote the peace of the world, is our devout and humble prayer.

(Signed)

L. GORDON GRANT, President.

L. B. C. MARKSMAN, Hon. Secretary.

JAMES WALKER, Treasurer.

J. E. HENDERSON, Assistant Secretary.

The King's gracious reply was as follows :—

The Queen and I have received the loyal Address of the Edinburgh University Union with great pleasure and interest.

We rejoice to hear of the world-wide membership of your Union as an evidence of the far-reaching influence and usefulness of the University of Edinburgh, and We appreciate the good offices of your Society in promoting good fellowship among students of such manifold origin, being assured that it will help those who have come from distant homes in the British Dominions beyond the Seas, in My Indian Empire, and in foreign lands, to look back on their Alma Mater with true filial affection.

I thank you heartily for your kind reference to the time which My Beloved Father, King Edward, spent as a student among you; and the members of your Union have our best wishes for their success in the careers which lie before them.
