TUESDAY, AUGUST 29, 1911.

ORDER by the Secretary for Scotland under section 17 (1) of the Prevention of Crime Act, 1908.

WHEREAS by section 17 (1) of the Prevention of Crime Act, 1908, it is provided that Part I. of the Act shall apply to Scotland (with the substitution of an institution under any name prescribed by the Secretary for Scotland for a Borstal Institution) on and after such date as may be determined by the Secretary for Scotland by Order issued under his hand and seal and published in the Edinburgh Gazette, which Order shall indicate the date on and after which such an institution will be established in Scotland.

And whereas on and after the 1st day of October 1911 Institutions under Part I. of the Prevention of Crime Act, 1908, will be established in Scotland: for males at Polmont, Stirlingshire, under the name of the Polmont Institution, and for females at Jessiefield, Dumfries, under the name of the Jessiefield Institution, Dumfries,

Now therefore I, the Right Honourable John, Baron Pentland, do, in virtue of the said provision, hereby determine that on and after the said 1st day of October 1911, Part I. of the Prevention of Crime Act, 1908, shall apply to Scotland.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall, this 24th day of August 1911.

PARISH OF CROMARTY.

PARISH CHURCHYARDS.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Parish Council of Cromarty has taken over the property of the Parish and Gaelic Churchyards of Cromarty from the Heritors of the Parish of Cromarty, in terms of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, and the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, and the said Parish Council has prepared a Ground Plan of said Churchyards, and Books of Reference relating thereto; and Intimation is hereby made that all Parishioners who claim a right to a Lair in the said Churchyards are required to come forward and claim their Lairs, so that they may be correctly entered in the said Ground Plan and Books of Reference.

And further, all non-Parishioners claiming a right to bury in said Churchyards are required to send in a statement of their claim in writing to the Clerk of the Parish Council on or before 25th September 1911, after which their claims will be considered, and, if acknowledged by the Parish Council, their names will be entered in the Books of Reference.

The Parish Council further gives notice that it will not be responsible after said date for any mistake that may occur through neglect of the requirement made in this notice in allotting to the Parishioners any part of the Churchyards for which no claim has been made and acknowledged by the Parish Council.

Representatives of the Parish Council will meet Parishioners and non-Parishioners at the Gaelic Churchyard on Monday and Tuesday the 25th and 26th September 1911, and at the Parish Churchyard on Wednesday the 27th September 1911, between the hours of 3 P.M. and 5 P.M.
