L. S.

(Signed) PENTLAND,
His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 3rd day of October 1911.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855," as amended by "The Secretary for Scotland Act, 1885," it is provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, upon the Representation of the Secretary for Scotland that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County of Scotland as in the said first-named Act provided has been received by him, in pursuance thereof to order that no new burial ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of the Secretary for Scotland or (as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in the Order burials within certain limits, or in certain burial grounds or places of burial shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said first-named Act: provided always, that notice of such Representation and of the time it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff-Clerk of the County in which such burial ground is situated; and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation is so considered:

And whereas the Secretary for Scotland has made a Representation that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor by the Sheriff-Substitute of Fife and Kinross at Dunfermline, finding that the Torryburn Churchyard, in the County of Fife, is so crowded with bodies that when graves are opened scenes occur which are offensive and contrary to decency.

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that the said Burial Ground should be closed as hereinafter directed.

And whereas by Order in Council of the 5th day of July 1911, notice of such Representation was given, and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by the Privy Council on the 14th day of August 1911, and that the said Order in Council or notice thereof should be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of the said Order in Council or notice thereof should be fixed on the doors of the church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 14th day of August 1911.

And whereas notice of the said Representation and of the time when it pleased His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette and has been fixed in the manner required by the said Order in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, as follows, viz. :—

That from and after the 3rd day of April 1912 the said Torryburn Churchyard, in the County of Fife, be closed as a place of sepulture except for the burial of any person whose husband or wife has already been buried there.

Provided always as regards all interments in the said burial ground after the said 3rd day of April 1912 that the following conditions be observed: (1) that the exercise of the right of burial shall not be injurious to the public health or offensive or contrary to decency; (2) that notice shall be given to the Clerk to the Parish Council of Torryburn on the day preceding that on which a grave is to be opened; (3) that no interment shall be made unless the coffin can be laid at a depth of three feet at least, and where possible at a depth of four feet, from the surface of the ground to the upper side of the coffin, and that without the exposure of another coffin.
