THE STATUTES OF THE IMPERIAL SERVICE ORDER.

GEORGE, R. & I.

GEORGE THE FIFTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, to all to whom these presents shall come. Greeting :

WHEREAS, by Warrants, under His late Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, dated the eighth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and two and the second year of His Reign, the twenty-ninth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and six and the sixth year of His Reign, the twenty-seventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and eight, and the eighth year of His Reign, and the seventeenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nine in the ninth year of His reign, His late Majesty, being desirous of recognising more fully than had theretofore been possible the faithful and meritorious services rendered to Him by Members of the Civil Services of the various parts of His Empire, did, for Himself, His Heirs and Successors, institute and create a new Civil Order of Distinction—to be designated the Imperial Service Order—and He was graciously pleased to Make, Ordain, and Establish Rules and Ordinances for the government of the same :

And whereas We are minded to make certain amendments and additions to the Statutes of the Order :

Now, therefore, in pursuance and in the exercise of the power vested in Us by the aforesaid Statutes, and in order to enable Us to carry this Our Will and Pleasure into effect, We do hereby abrogate the aforesaid Statutes of the eighth day of August one thousand nine hundred and two, the twenty-ninth day of November one thousand nine hundred and six, the twenty-seventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and eight, and the seventeenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nine, and the same are abrogated accordingly, but without prejudice to anything done thereunder ; and, in lieu thereof, We do by these Presents Make, Ordain, and Establish the following Statutes and Ordinances :

Firstly.—It is ordained that this Order shall henceforth be styled and designated "The Imperial Service Order."

Secondly.—It is ordained that the Order shall consist of the Sovereign, the Prince of Wales, and such Companions as We, Our Heirs or Successors, shall appoint.

Thirdly.—It is ordained that We, our Heirs and Successors, Kings and Queens Regnant of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperors and Empresses of India, are and for ever shall be Sovereigns of this Order.

Fourthly.—It is ordained that only the Members of the administrative or clerical branches of Our Civil Services shall be eligible for the distinction of Companions of this Order.

Fifthly.—It is ordained that the number of Companions of the Order shall not exceed seven hundred, of whom two hundred and fifty shall belong to Our Home Civil Service, two hundred to Our Civil Services in India, including the Staff of Our Secretary of State for India (one hundred appointments being reserved for Europeans and one hundred for natives of India), and two hundred and fifty to the Civil Services of Our Dominions beyond the Seas, and Countries under Our Protection, including the Staff of the Crown Agents for the Colonies.

Sixthly.—It is ordained that no person shall be eligible to be a Companion of the Order whose name has not been laid before Us, Our Heirs or Successors, by one of Our or Their Principal Secretaries of State, and who has not at the time of his or her nomination rendered at least twenty-five years' meritorious service in Our said Civil Services: Provided that in the Indian Empire the minimum period of service in the case of Europeans shall be twenty years, and that in any part of Our Dominions beyond the Seas, or any Country under Our Protection, which, under the Pension Acts or Regulations applying thereto, is recognised as unhealthy, the minimum of service shall be sixteen years: Provided also that it shall be competent to Us, Our Heirs or Successors, to appoint specially to the Order persons who, not having completed the aforesaid periods of service, have rendered such eminently meritorious service as to qualify them, in Our opinion, to become recipients of this distinction.

Seventhly.—It is ordained that when We, Our Heirs, and Successors, shall be pleased to appoint any person to be a Companion of the Order, such appointment shall be made by Warrant under Our Sign Manual and countersigned by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State.

Eighthly.—It is ordained that the decoration to be worn by Companions of the Order shall be: for men, a Badge or Medallion of gold or enamel, bearing Our Imperial and Royal Cypher, and the words "For Faithful Service," both to be executed in dark blue enamel on a plaque or shield of gold, surrounded by a seven-pointed star of silver, surmounted by the Imperial Crown; and for women, a Badge or Medallion in all respects similar to the Badge or Medallion for men, save that the plaque or shield of gold shall be surrounded by a wreath of laurel in silver instead of a star, surmounted by the Imperial Crown.

Ninthly.—It is ordained that the decoration shall be worn by male Companions on the left breast, suspended by a ribbon of one inch and a half in width, consisting of a strip of blue between two strips of crimson of equal size, and by female Companions on the left shoulder, suspended by a ribbon of the same colour and width, fashioned into a bow.

Tenthly.—It is ordained that the names of those upon whom We are pleased to confer the decoration shall be published in the London Gazette.

Eleventhly.—It is ordained that Companions of the Order shall have the privilege of adding the Letters "I.S.O." after their names.

Twelfthly.—It is ordained that members of any Order of Knighthood shall, if otherwise qualified, be eligible to become Companions of this Order, and that male Companions of this Order shall in no way be debarred from becoming thereafter Members of any Order of Knighthood for which their services may qualify them.

Thirteenthly.—It is ordained that the Imperial Service Order shall rank next to, and immediately after, Our Distinguished Service Order, and before the Fifth Class of Our Royal Victorian Order, and the Companions thereof shall, in all places and assemblies whatsoever, have place and precedence next to, and immediately after, the Companions of the Distinguished Service Order, and shall rank among themselves according to the dates of their respective nominations.

Fourteenthly.—It is ordained that it shall be competent to Us, Our Heirs and Successors, by a Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual, to cancel and annul the appointment of any Companion of this Order, and that thereupon his name in the Register shall be erased; but that it shall be competent for the Sovereign to restore to the Order any person whose appointment may have been so cancelled and annulled when circumstances render it just and expedient so to do.

Fifteenthly.—It is ordained that those Members of Our Civil Services, who are not eligible for appointment as Companions of this Order, may, on retirement from Our said Services, after not less than twenty-five years of meritorious service, or, in the case of Europeans serving in the Indian Empire, after not less than twenty years of such service, or in the case of service in any part of Our Dominions beyond the Seas, or any Country under Our Protection which, under the Pension Acts or Regulations applying thereto, is recognised as unhealthy, after not less than sixteen years of such service, be awarded a Medal to be designated "The Imperial Service Medal": Provided that no such Medal shall be granted, except on the recommendation of one of our Principal Secretaries of State: Provided also that it shall be competent to Us, Our Heirs or Successors, to confer the Medal upon not more than five Members of Our Civil Services in each year who have retired after less than twenty-five years' service, should the special circumstances in Our or Their opinion justify the grant.

Sixteenthly.—It is ordained that the Imperial Service Medal for men and women shall in all respects be similar to the badge of the Imperial Service Order for men and women respectively, save that the plaque shall be of silver, instead of gold, and the star or wreath of laurel shall be of bronze instead of silver, and it is ordained that the Imperial Service Medal shall be worn in a similar manner to that prescribed for the Imperial Service Order, and that these Medals shall bear on the reverse the name of the recipient.

Seventeenthly.—It is ordained that the names of those persons to whom the Imperial Service Medal shall be granted shall be duly published in the London Gazette.

Eighteenthly.—It is ordained that it shall be competent for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, by a Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual, to cancel and annul the award of any Imperial Service Medal, and that thereupon the name of the recipient in the Register shall be erased; but it shall be competent for the Sovereign to restore the Medal to any person whose name may have been so erased, when circumstances render it just and expedient so to do. And every person to whom the said Medal is awarded shall, before receiving the same, enter into an agreement to return the Medal if his name shall be erased as aforesaid.

Nineteenthly.—It is ordained that an Officer shall be appointed to the Order who shall be styled "Secretary and Registrar," and who shall be ex-officio a Companion of the Order.

Twentiethly.—It is ordained that the Secretary and Registrar of this Order shall be appointed by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, and shall have the custody of the Archives of the Order, which shall be kept in the Office of Our Secretary of State for the Home Department. He shall attend the service of the Order, and shall execute such directions as he may receive from our Principal Secretaries of State.

Lastly.—We reserve to Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors, full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting, or dispensing with these Regulations, or any part thereof, by a notification under the Sign Manual of the Sovereign of the Order.

Given at Our Court at Saint James' this ninth day of March one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the second year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,
REGINALD M'KENNA.

Education (Scotland) Act, 1908.

PROPOSED ORDER BY THE SCOTCH EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

SCHOOL BOARD OF BANFF (BURGH).
SCHOOL BOARD OF BANFF (LANDWARD) AND ORD.

WHEREAS by subsection (1) of section 22 of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1908 (8 Edward 7, cap. 63), it is enacted that where it is represented to the Department by a school board that it would be expedient that the district or part of a district of the said school board should be united with the adjacent district or part of district of another school board, so as for all purposes to constitute a district under one school board, the Department shall consult with the authorities concerned, and may cause a local inquiry to be held, and, if they are of opinion that the districts should be united, may by order provide for uniting the said districts as aforesaid:

And whereas it has been represented to the Department by the School Board of the Burgh of Banff that it would be expedient that the district of the said School Board should be united with the adjacent district of the School Board of the Parish of Banff (Landward) and Ord so as for all purposes to constitute a district under one school board:

And whereas the Department, after consulting with the authorities concerned and causing a local inquiry to be held, are of opinion that the said districts should be united as aforesaid:

And whereas it is expedient that the said districts should be united as aforesaid:

Now therefore the Department, in virtue of the powers in that behalf conferred upon them by the enactment above recited, do hereby order as follows, videlicet:—

1. The District of the School Board of the Burgh of Banff shall, from and after the date at which this Order shall commence to have effect, be united with the district of the School Board of the Parish of Banff (Landward) and Ord so as for all purposes to constitute a district under one school board.

2. The existing School Boards of the Burgh of Banff and of the Parish of Banff (Landward) and Ord shall cease to exist, and there shall be established in their room for the districts united as aforesaid one school board to be called "The School Board of Banff."

3. The said School Board of Banff (hereinafter referred to as "the School Board") shall consist of the fourteen members who at the date hereof constitute the said existing school boards. The said members shall hold office until the school board election to be held in the year 1914, in terms of the Education (Scotland) Acts, 1872 to 1908, after which the date the number of members of the School Board shall be eleven.

4. The whole property, heritable and moveable, real and personal, including the respective school funds and any funds held in trust, belonging to the existing school boards, and all debts and obligations due to the existing school boards, shall be transferred to and vested in the School Board in property or in trust as the case may be, and all teachers, janitors, officers, and other employees in the service of the existing school boards shall be transferred to, and become teachers, janitors, officers, and employees in the service of the School Board.

5. The whole obligations, debts, and liabilities of the existing school boards shall be taken over by, and become obligations, debts, and liabilities of, the School Board.

6. The whole expenses of the proceedings in connection with this Order shall be defrayed out of the school fund of the School Board.

7. In this Order the expression "the Department" means the Scotch Education Department.

8. This Order shall commence to have effect on the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

J. STRUTHERS,
Secretary to the Scotch Education Department.

BURGH OF TROON.

DIVISION OF BURGH INTO WARDS.

NOTICE is hereby given that a Petition has been presented by the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Troon, to the Sheriff of Ayrshire at Ayr, craving that the Burgh should be divided into three Wards in manner following, viz.:—

Ward No. 1 to be bounded on the north, and on the west, south-west, and south by the sea at low water mark of ordinary spring tides; on the east or north-east by the centre line of the Railway to Troon Harbour from the centre of the bridge crossing Portland Street to the point in the centre of said Railway where the line of the centre of Church Street intersects the centre line of said Railway, thence in a straight line to low water mark of ordinary spring tides, keeping the direction of the centre line of Church Street; and on the south or south-east by the centre line of Portland Street and West Portland Street from the centre of the Railway Bridge carrying the Troon Harbour Line over Portland Street to the Esplanade Wall, and thence at right angles to the Esplanade Wall to low water mark of ordinary spring tides, all as delineated and coloured pink and marked "1" on the Ordnance Map or Plan produced with said Petition: Ward No. 2 to be bounded on the west or north-west by the sea at low water mark of ordinary spring tides; on the north by the northern boundary of the Burgh of Troon, being the centre of the Darley Burn, from the Railway to the sea at low water mark of ordinary spring tides; on the east by the eastern boundary of the Burgh of Troon, being the western wall of the original and direct line of the Glasgow and South-Western Railway, from the centre of the Darley Burn to Lochgreen Railway Junction at the point on said Railway where its western boundary intersects with the centre line of the Railway leading to Troon Harbour; and on the south or south-west along the centre of the Railway leading to Troon Harbour, from where this line intersects with the Burgh boundary at Lochgreen Junction to the point in the centre of said Railway where the line of the centre of Church Street intersects the centre line of said Railway, and thence, keeping the line of the centre of Church Street, to low water mark of ordinary spring tides, all as delineated and coloured blue, and marked "2" on said Ordnance Map or Plan: and Ward No. 3 to be bounded on the north or north-west by the centre line of Portland Street and West Portland Street from the centre of the Railway Bridge carrying the Railway to Troon Harbour over Portland Street to the Esplanade Wall, and thence, at right angles to the Esplanade Wall, to low water mark of ordinary spring tides; on the east and north-east by the centre line of the Railway to Troon Harbour, from the centre of the Bridge crossing Portland Street to the Burgh boundary at Lochgreen Junction and in a southerly direction along the Burgh boundary, being a continuation of the said western wall of the original and direct line of the Glasgow and South-Western Railway, to the point where the said Burgh boundary turns westwards to the sea; on the south or south-east by the boundary of the Burgh from the Railway to the sea at low water mark of ordinary spring tides; and on the west by the sea at low water mark of ordinary spring tides, all as delineated and coloured yellow, and marked "3" on the said Ordnance Map or Plan.

On which Petition the Sheriff has pronounced the following Interlocutor:—

"Ayr, 27th March 1912.—The Sheriff having considered the foregoing Application for Division of the Burgh of Troon into three Wards, appoints intimation of the Application of the Boundaries proposed for the said several Wards as set forth in the Application, and of the Diet hereinafter mentioned, to be given by the Pursuers by advertisement once in each of the Edinburgh Gazette, Troon Herald, Troon Times, and Glasgow Herald newspapers of next week, and also by handbills to be forthwith posted within the said Burgh; assigns Tuesday the thirtieth day of April next, at half-past ten o'clock forenoon, within the Sheriff Court House, Ayr, as the time and place for considering the said Application and any objections thereto; further, appoints the Ordnance Map or Plan produced with the Application to remain in the hands of the Clerk of Court for inspection until further orders.
