ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of July 1912.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855," as amended by "The Secretary for Scotland Act, 1885," it is provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, upon the Representation of the Secretary for Scotland that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County of Scotland as in the said first-named Act provided has been received by him, in pursuance thereof to order that no new burial ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of the Secretary for Scotland or (as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in the Order burials within certain limits, or in certain burial grounds or places of burial shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said first-named Act: provided always, that notice of such Representation and of the time it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff-Clerk of the County in which such burial ground is situated; and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation is so considered:

And whereas the Secretary for Scotland has made a Representation that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff-Substitute of the County of Kinross, dated the 21st November 1911, finding that the Burial Ground known as Old Fossoway Churchyard, in the Parish of Fossoway, in the County of Kinross, is offensive and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that the said Burial Ground should be closed as hereinafter directed.

And whereas by Order in Council of the 14th day of May 1912, notice of such Representation was given, and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by the Privy Council on the 24th day of June 1912, and that the said Order in Council or notice thereof should be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of the said Order in Council or notice thereof should be fixed on the doors of the church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 24th day of June 1912.

And whereas notice of the said Representation and of the time when it pleased His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette and has been fixed in the manner required by the said Order in Council.

And whereas the Lords of the Council have taken the said Representation into consideration, and also a Petition of the Heritors of the said Parish of Fossoway in opposition to the proposed reservations of right of interment in the said Burial Ground, and a further Petition of the surviving sons and daughters of the late James Anderson, Carnbo, in support of the proposed reservations in their favour.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, as follows, viz. :—

That burials be forthwith discontinued in the Burial Ground known as Old Fossoway Churchyard, in the Parish of Fossoway, in the County of Kinross, subject to reservation of the right of interment, at decease, in the family lair or burying place of the Anderson family in the said Churchyard, for the five persons hereinafter named (being the surviving sons and daughters of the late James Anderson, Carnbo), viz., John Anderson, Robert Anderson, and James R. Anderson, and Margaret Anderson and Euphemia H. Anderson, with a further reservation of the right of interment at decease for William Mercer, The Moss, Muckhart. Subject to the usual provisions as regards all interments in the said burial ground after the date of this Order that the exercise of the right of burial shall not be injurious to the public health or offensive or contrary to decency, and that no interment shall be made unless the coffin can be laid at a depth of four feet from the surface of the ground to the upper side of the coffin, and that without the exposure of another coffin.
