At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of March 1913.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Viscount Knollys.

Lord Stamfordham.

Mr. Herbert Samuel.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by virtue of the authority conferred on Him by the Copyright Act, 1911, and having regard to the provisions of the Berlin Copyright Convention, was pleased to make an Order in Council, dated the 24th day of June 1912 (hereinafter called the Principal Order), extending the protection of the said Act to certain classes of works to which protection is guaranteed by the said Convention :

And whereas the Kingdom of Denmark has ratified the said Convention subject to the reservation mentioned in the Schedule attached to this Order.

And whereas it is expedient that Article (2) Provisio (iii) (a) of the Principal Order should be extended so as to apply to newspaper articles (not being serial stories or tales) of which the country of origin is Japan.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with
