FRIDAY, JUNE 27, 1913.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of June 1913.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Chamberlain.
Lord Welby.
Lord Ashby St. Ledgers.
Lord Islington.
Sir Samuel W. Griffith.
Mr. J. Herbert Lewis.
Sir Alfred M. Mond, Bart.
Lord Justice Swinfen Eady.

WHEREAS by an Order of Her Majesty Queen Victoria in Council, bearing date the 24th day of November 1891, Her Majesty's Supreme Court of the Colony of Sierra Leone was constituted a Court of Record to receive, hear, and determine Appeals from the Supreme Court of the Colony of the Gambia :

And whereas it is expedient to make further and other provisions for facilitating such appeals as aforesaid :

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in His Majesty in Council by the British Settlements Act, 1887, it is hereby ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, as follows :—

The full Court of the Supreme Court of the Colony of Sierra Leone (hereinafter referred to as the Appeal Court) shall be, and it is hereby constituted a Court of Record to receive, hear, and determine Appeals from the Supreme Court of the Colony of the Gambia (hereinafter referred to as the Court of the Gambia).

2. Any person or persons against whom any sentence, judgment, decree, or order shall be given in the Court of Gambia may, subject to the conditions contained in the Rules regulating Appeals contained in the Appendix to this Order, and any amending or further Rules to be hereafter made as provided by this Order, appeal therefrom to the Appeal Court, which shall thereupon inquire into, hear, and decide all questions, whether of law or fact, arising upon any such Appeal.

The Court of the Gambia shall in all cases of appeal to the Appeal Court, execute and carry into immediate effect such judgments and orders as the Appeal Court shall make thereupon, in such manner as any original judgments or orders of the Court of the Gambia can or may be executed.

3. The Rules contained in the Appendix to this Order shall govern the conduct of Appeals both in the Court of the Gambia and the Appeal Court until they have been revoked, amended, or added to in the manner hereinafter provided.

4. The Appeal Court is hereby authorised and required from time to time to make and establish, either in addition to or in substitution for the Rules contained in the Appendix to this Order, such Rules, Orders, and Regulations as to it shall seem meet, touching and concerning all matters and things necessary for the proper conduct and despatch of business in Appeals to the said Appeal Court, whether in the Court of the Colony of Sierra Leone or in the Appeal Court, and whether before or after the final judgment of the Appeal Court, and all such Rules, Orders, and Regulations, and also all Rules, Orders, and Regulations contained in the Appendix to this Order, from time to time to revoke, alter, amend, or renew as occasion may require. Provided always, that all such Rules, Orders, and Regulations shall forthwith be transmitted by the President of the Appeal Court to the Governor of the Colony of Sierra Leone, to be by him transmitted to His Majesty, His heirs, and successors, and shall be subject to disallowance by His Majesty, His heirs, and successors, but, until so disallowed, shall have as full effect as if they had been contained in the Appendix to this Order in Council.

5. Any person who feels himself aggrieved by any final judgment, sentence, decree, or order of the Appeal Court, on appeal, may, subject to the Rules, Regulations, limitations, and conditions which, for the time being, shall be in force respecting Appeals to His Majesty, His heirs, and successors in Council from any judgment, sentence, decree, or order of the said Full Court of the Supreme Court of Sierra Leone, and subject to such other regulations and conditions as His Majesty, His heirs, and successors shall be pleased to direct, appeal to His Majesty, His heirs, and successors, in His or their Privy Council, against any such final judgment, sentence, decree, or order of the Appeal Court. The Court of the Colony of Sierra Leone shall in all cases of appeal to His Majesty, His heirs, and successors in Council, execute and carry into immediate effect such judgments and orders as His Majesty, His heirs, and successors shall make thereupon in such manner as any original judgments and orders of the said Court can or may be executed.

6. The said Order in Council of the 24th day of November 1891 is hereby revoked, but such revocation shall not affect the validity of anything lawfully done thereunder, or revive any Order in Council revoked thereby.

7. All Rules and Regulations relating to the Supreme Court of the Colony of Sierra Leone (save and except only Rules relating to Appeals therefrom to the said Appeal Court) which are in force when this Order in Council takes effect, may be repealed or altered by any Rules, Orders, or Regulations to be made under any Ordinance of the Colony of Sierra Leone, but shall continue in force until so altered or repealed.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

APPENDIX.

RULES REGULATING APPEALS TO THE FULL COURT OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE COLONY OF SIERRA LEONE FROM THE SUPREME COURT OF THE COLONY OF THE GAMBIA.

Where Appeal Lies.

1. Any party aggrieved by any decision of the Supreme Court of the Colony of the Gambia (hereinafter called the Court below) may apply to the Court below for leave to appeal to the Full Court of the Supreme Court of the Colony of Sierra Leone (hereinafter called the Appeal Court), and thereupon leave to appeal shall, subject to the limitations and conditions herein-after contained be granted to the applicant, but not otherwise. Provided always that, in every final judgment, the Appeal Court may give leave to appeal on such terms as that Court thinks fit.

Interlocutory Orders.

2. The Court below shall not give leave to appeal from an interlocutory order, unless it shall consider such Appeal to be reasonable and proper, and in such case it shall transmit to the Appeal Court, along with the Record of Appeal, a brief statement of the grounds upon which the Appeal has been allowed. Any doubt which may arise as to what decrees or orders are final, and what are interlocutory, shall be determined by the Appeal Court.

Ex parte Orders.

3. An Appeal does not lie from an order made "ex parte." Any person aggrieved by such an Order may apply to the Court by which it is made to vary or discharge it, and an Appeal lies from the decision on that application in like manner as from other orders or decisions.

Order as to Costs or by Consent.

4. No order as to costs only, or order made by consent of parties, shall be subject to any appeal, except by special leave of the Court below or the Appeal Court.

Conditions of Appeal.

5. In no case shall leave to appeal be granted, unless within one month after his application for leave to appeal the Appellant shall have given security to the satisfaction of the Court below, in terms of the form of bond contained in the Schedule A hereto, for payment of all such costs as may be awarded to any Respondent by the Appeal Court and shall have paid into the Court below the amount of the expense of making up and transmission to the Appeal Court of the Record of Appeal, and shall have given notice of the Appeal to all parties directly affected by the Appeal and to such others as Respondents, as the Court below thinks fit to direct, and unless within seven days after the expiration of such month he shall have filed a further application for leave to appeal.

Provided that where the conditions of appeal have not been perfected within such period as aforesaid, or where the Appeal shall for any reason have lapsed, or been abandoned, and the Appellant shall again make application for leave to appeal, the Court may either refuse to grant leave or may impose any terms that it thinks proper, in addition to the terms above mentioned.

Limitation of Time for Appeals.

6.—(1) After fourteen days from the date of an interlocutory order, application for leave to appeal shall not be entertained.

(2) After three months from the date of a final judgment, application for leave to appeal shall not be entertained by the Court below.

(3) After six months from the date of a final judgment, application for leave to appeal shall not be entertained by the Appeal Court: Provided that if there shall be no sitting of the Appeal Court within six months from the date of a final judgment, and notice to move the Appeal Court shall have been given within such period, the motion may be dealt with, and leave to appeal granted at the next sitting of the Appeal Court whenever the same may be held.

Execution.

7. An Appeal shall not operate as a stay of execution or of proceedings under the decision appealed from, except so far as the Court below or the Appeal Court may order; and no intermediate act or proceeding shall be invalidated, except so far as the Court below may direct.

Grounds of Appeal to be Filed.

8. The Appellant shall, within seven days after obtaining leave to appeal, file in the Court below the grounds of his appeal, and shall cause a copy of such grounds of appeal to be served on the Respondent.

9. On the Appellant failing to file such grounds of appeal within the prescribed time, unless the time for so doing shall have been extended by the Appeal Court or the Court below, he shall be deemed to have abandoned the Appeal.

Appeal Court may Amend.

10. The Appellant may at any time, by leave of the Appeal Court, amend or add to the grounds of his Appeal.

Record of Appeal.

11. On the expiration of fourteen days after leave to appeal has been given, the Court below shall, without the application of any party, make up the Record of Appeal, which shall consist of the Writ of Summons, the Pleadings (if any), a certified copy of all documents admitted as evidence or tendered as evidence and rejected, and of the Court's Notes of Evidence, and the Grounds of Appeal. The several pieces shall be consecutively numbered and fastened together, and, along with a list thereof, authenticated by the signature of the Judge of the Court below, shall be forthwith forwarded by that Court to the Registrar of the Appeal Court.

Appeal Case.

12. Along with the Record of Appeal the Court below shall transmit to the Appeal Court a case, which may be agreed on between the parties, but shall be settled by the Court. The case shall state the cause of action, the facts found by the Court, and the Court's determination thereon in point of law.

Original Documents.

13. The Court below shall not, except for some special cause, take upon itself the charge of transmission of original letters or documents produced in evidence. They shall be returned to the parties producing them, and they must be prepared to produce the originals, if required by the Appeal Court, before or at the hearing of the Appeal.

Control over Suit while Appeal pending.

14. Notwithstanding that the Record of Appeal has been transmitted to the Appeal

Court, until the Appeal is disposed of, every application in the suit or matter shall be made to the Court below: Provided that after the sitting during which the Appeal is set down for hearing has commenced to be held, then the Appeal Court shall be in possession of the whole suit or matter as between the parties to the Appeal, and every application in the suit or matter shall be made to the Appeal Court and not to the Court below.

Additional Security.

15. The Appeal Court may, where requisite require security for costs or for performance of the Orders to be made on Appeal, in addition to what the Court below has thought fit to direct, and may make any interim order or injunction which the Court below is authorised to make, and which may be necessary.

Notice to Parties in Interlocutory Appeals.

16. If the Appeal is from an interlocutory order, the Court shall not cause notice to be given to the parties of the day when the Appeal will be disposed of, unless under special circumstances it thinks fit to do so; but where a party to the Appeal notifies to the Court below his desire to attend, he shall be at liberty to do so, and to be heard, and shall be entitled to have not less than twenty-one days' notice through the Court below of the date of the Session of the Appeal Court at which the Appeal will be set down for hearing.

Notice in Appeals on Merits.

17. If the Appeal is from a final decision or Order after trial or hearing of any suit or matter, the Registrar of the Appeal Court shall, after receiving the Record of Appeal, give not less than twenty-one days' notice through the Court below to the parties to the Appeal of the date of the commencement of the Session of the Appeal Court at which the Appeal will be set down for hearing.

Appearance of Parties.

18. The Appeal Court may, if it thinks fit, require the parties to an Appeal to appear personally before it on the hearing of the Appeal, or on any occasion pending the Appeal; otherwise personal appearance shall not be obligatory.

Evidence.

19. It is not open as of right to any party to an Appeal to adduce new evidence in support of his original case; but for the furtherance of justice the Appeal Court may, where it thinks fit, allow or require new evidence to be adduced. A party may, by leave of the Court, allege any facts essential to the issue that have come to his knowledge after the decision of the Court below, and adduce evidence in support of such allegations.

No Interlocutory Order to prejudice the Decision on Appeal.

20. No interlocutory order from which there has been no Appeal shall operate so as to bar or prejudice the Appeal Court from giving such decision upon the Appeal as may seem just.

General Powers of Appeal Court.

21. The Appeal Court may, when it is in possession of the whole suit or matter, from time to time make any order necessary for determining the real question in controversy in the Appeal, and may amend any defect or error in the Record of the Appeal; and may direct the Court below to inquire into and certify its finding on any question which the Appeal Court thinks fit to determine before final judgment in the Appeal, and generally shall have as full jurisdiction over the whole suit or matter as if the same had been instituted and prosecuted in the Appeal Court as a Court of First Instance, and may re-hear the whole case, or may remit it to the Court below to be re-heard, or to be otherwise dealt with as the Appeal Court directs.

Judgment in Appeal.

22. The Appeal Court shall have power to draw inferences of fact and to give any judgment, and make any order which ought to have been made, and to make such further or other order as the case may require. These powers may be exercised by the Court, notwithstanding that the Appellant may have asked that part only of the decision may be reversed or varied, and may also be exercised in favour of all or any of the Respondents or parties, although such Respondents or parties may not have appealed from or complained of the decision.

Transmission of Decrees.

23. All decrees and orders made by the Appeal Court shall be embodied in a certificate under Seal of the Appeal Court and the hand of the presiding Judge, and such certificate shall be transmitted by the Registrar of the Appeal Court to the Registrar of the Court below, who shall forthwith acknowledge its receipt, and thereupon every such decree or order shall be carried out and enforced by the Court below in like manner as original decrees and orders of that Court are carried out and enforced.

Point Reserved or Special Case.

24. The Court below may, without the consent of parties, direct judgment to be entered provisionally for the Plaintiff or Defendant, subject to any point of law which it may reserve for further argument or consideration, or subject to a special case for the opinion of the Appeal Court.

Special Case.

25. Every such special case shall be jointly agreed upon by the parties whenever practicable, and settled by the Court below. Every such special case shall state concisely such facts and documents as shall be necessary to enable the Appeal Court to decide the questions raised thereby. The Appeal Court shall be at liberty to draw any inference, whether of fact or law, which might have been drawn on the trial. The Appeal Court may send back such case for amendment, if necessary, with any instruction it may deem requisite, and may require the Court below to certify its finding upon any question of fact arising in the suit or matter, and to receive further evidence, if necessary, and may make such order as it shall deem fit, and judgment in such suit or matter shall be entered in terms of such order. But such judgment shall not, unless the parties shall so agree, preclude any of the parties to a suit or matter from bringing any Appeal which he might otherwise under these rules have brought from such judgment.

26. It shall not be necessary for the Appeal Court to hear any argument upon the special case; but if any of the parties so desire he may be heard thereon. If at or before the special case being settled in the Court below any party to the suit or matter shall intimate to the Court his desire to be heard thereon in the Appeal Court, the Court below shall inform the Registrar of the Appeal Court, and the Registrar of the Appeal Court shall in such case cause notice to be given to the parties through the Court below, or otherwise, as may seem most convenient, of the time and place at which they may be heard, and shall hear any of the parties who may then and there appear, and thereafter shall give judgment upon such special case, whether all or any of the parties shall have appeared or been heard or otherwise.

Fees.

27. The fees specified in the Schedule B shall be paid by the party prosecuting the cause of proceeding, and may be afterwards recovered as costs of cause if the Court shall so order.

Costs of Improper Appeals.

28. If in any Appeal it shall appear to the Appeal Court that such Appeal has been made improperly or without any reasonable cause, the Appeal Court may call on the Solicitor of the Appellant to show cause why all costs occasioned by the Appeal should not be disallowed as between the Solicitor and the Appellant, and also (if the circumstances of the case require) why the Solicitor should not repay to the Appellant any costs which the Appellant may have been ordered to pay to any other person, and thereupon may make such order as the justice of the case may require. Such notice (if any) of the proceedings shall be given to the Appellant in such manner as the Appeal Court may direct.

Practitioners.

29. Every person admitted to practise as a barrister or solicitor in the Court below shall upon proof of his admission as aforesaid, be entitled to practise before the Appeal Court so far as relates to Appeals in that Court from the Court below, but not further or otherwise.

Publication of Rules, Decrees, &c., of Appeal Court by the Court below.

30. The Court below shall publish in like manner as its own notifications are published all Notices, Rules, Decrees, Orders, and such other matters as shall be transmitted to it by the Appeal Court for that purpose.
