TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN THOMAS, Merchant in Perth.

ON an application to Lord Bannatyne, Ordinary officiating on the bills, in name of Duncan Ogilvie, merchant, and Thomas Peddie, manufacturer in Perth, two of the creditors of the said John Thomas, for authority to call a meeting of the said creditors, in order to elect a new trustee, in the room of Peter Duff, merchant in Perth, the former trustee, now deceased, his Lordship, upon the 30th day of July last, pronounced the following interlocutor:—"Appoints the creditors of the said John Thomas to meet at Perth, within the house of James Thomas, innkeeper, High Street there, upon Tuesday the 20th day of August next, at twelve o'clock noon, for the purpose of choosing a new trustee, or trustees in succession, on said sequestrated estate, in the room and place of the said Peter Duff, the former trustee, now deceased, and ordains the petitioners immediately to advertise the purpose, time, and place of said meeting in the Edinburgh Gazette, fourteen days at least previous to the said meeting, in terms of the statute.—Of which intimation is hereby given to all concerned.

Edinburgh, August 2, 1804.

TO CREDITORS.

THE Trustee upon the sequestrated estate of ALEXANDER FERGUSSON, late Merchant in Girvan, hereby intimates, That he has made up a state of the bankrupt's effects, and a scheme of division of the sums recovered, among the creditors who had not lodged their grounds of debt, and oaths of verity, previous to the first dividend being paid; and which lie at the office of Hugh Cowan, merchant in Ayr, the trustee, for one month from the date hereof; and farther, that on the 6th of September next, said dividend will be paid at his shop to said creditors.

Ayr, August 6, 1805.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN PARK, Hardware Merchant in Glasgow.

ROBERT ALEXANDER, merchant in Glasgow, the trustee, hereby intimates to the creditors, That he has made up a state of the bankrupt's funds, which lie in his hands, for the inspection of all concerned, till the 9th day of September next, at twelve o'clock, on which day the creditors are hereby required to meet within the office of William Lawrie, writer in Glasgow, to receive their dividends, and give instructions to the trustee, in terms of the statute.

Glasgow, August 1, 1805.

OUTSTANDING DEBTS.

To be Sold by public roup, upon Tuesday the 3d day of September next, at one o'clock afternoon, within the Sale Room of William Moodie, auctioneer in Glasgow.

THE WHOLE OUTSTANDING DEBTS belonging to the sequestrated ESTATE of JAMES REID and COMPANY, merchants in Glasgow.

For particulars apply to Arch. Maxwell, writer in Glasgow.

Glasgow, 2d August, 1805.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

PETER NIBLIE, late Farmer at Buxley and Whitehouse.

JOHN MOWBRAY, W. S. trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said Peter Niblie, hereby intimates to the creditors, That in consequence of a transaction with the widow of the bankrupt, he is now making up a final scheme of division of the funds, which will be divided among such creditors as shall, by the 6th of October next, have lodged their grounds of debt, and oaths of verity, with the trustee, in terms of the statute.—Intimation therefore is hereby made to all concerned, to lodge their grounds of debt, and oaths of verity accordingly, otherwise they will have themselves to blame if they are cut off from any share of the fund.

N. B.—The trustee thinks it right to intimate, that it is quite unnecessary to lodge vouchers of debts, dated posterior to the 14th March 1793, the date of the sequestration, as none of them can on that account be ranked.

Howe Street, Heriot Row, Edinburgh,
August 5, 1805.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

WILLIAM MATHIE, Merchant in Greenock.

JOHN SPENCE, merchant in Greenock, trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said William Mathie, hereby intimates, That he has made up a state of the bankrupt's affairs, in terms of the statute, which will lie in his counting-room in Greenock, for the inspection of all concerned, till the 4th day of October next, when a dividend will be paid by him to those creditors who have lodged and proved their claims in terms of the statute.

Greenock, Aug. 5, 1805.
