BY THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR. A PROCLAMATION.

Isle of Man
to wit.

WHEREAS, by Section 6 of "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, from time to time, by and with the advice and consent of any two members of the Council, to prohibit the importation or introduction into this Isle of hay, straw, fodder, dung, offal, litter, manure, or other articles in their opinion likely to propagate or introduce infection:

And whereas the infectious disease commonly called the foot-and-mouth disease prevails amongst animals in certain places beyond this Isle, and it is deemed advisable to prohibit the importation of peat-moss litter, or any other substance used in substitution for straw for bedding animals, with a view to preventing the introduction of the said disease amongst animals in this Isle.

Now I, the said Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice and consent of two members of the Council, and in exercise of all the powers in that behalf given by the Cattle Diseases Prevention Acts, do hereby order as follows:—

1. From and after the date hereof, no peat-moss litter, or any other substance used in substitution of straw for bedding animals, shall be imported or introduced into this Island.

2. This Order may be cited as "The Peat-Moss Litter (Landing) Order of 1914."

Given this 24th day of February 1914.

RAGLAN, Lieutenant-Governor.

BY THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR.

A PROCLAMATION.

Isle of Man
to wit.

WHEREAS, by Section 2 of the Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1865, it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of two members of the Council, by an Order in writing, to prohibit the importation or introduction into this Isle of cattle, horses, sheep, or other animals for such period or periods as may be deemed necessary for the purpose of preventing the introduction of any infectious or contagious disease among cattle, horses, sheep, or other animals in this Isle :

And whereas the infectious disease commonly called "Foot-and-Mouth Disease" prevails amongst animals in certain places in England.

Now I, the said Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice and consent of two members of the Council, do hereby order that, from and after this date, and until further orders, no animal shall be imported into this Island from England and Scotland except from the port of Liverpool.

In this Order, the expression "animal" shall mean any bull, cow, ox, heifer, steer, calf, sheep, swine, or goat.

This Order may be cited as "The Importation of Animals (England and Scotland) Order of 1914."

Given this 19th day of February 1914.
