Session 1914.

Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act,
1899.

CLYDE NAVIGATION.

(Alteration during the progress of the Provisional Order with the above name or short title of the Diversion of Renfrew Road and of Glasgow Corporation Tramways thereon; Compulsory purchase of lands, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, in pursuance of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, and in terms of General Order No. 61 of the General Orders issued under that Act that, during the progress of the draft Provisional Order with the above name or short title (hereinafter referred to as "the Order"), for which application was made to the Secretary for Scotland on or before the 17th day of December, 1913, before the Commissioners appointed under the provisions of the said Act, an alteration has been made in the diversion of Renfrew Road and the tramways of the Corporation of the City of Glasgow thereon proposed to be authorised by the Order, and that it is intended to seek sanction to make and maintain in the line and according to the levels shown on the additional plan and section hereinafter referred to, the following work, as provided by the Order as modified by the said Commissioners, that is to say:—

An alteration wholly in the Parish of Govan and County of Lanark of the diversion of Renfrew Road and the tramways of the Corporation of the City of Glasgow thereon, as shown on the plans relating to the Order, deposited in the month of November, 1913, for public inspection, with the Principal Sheriff-Clerk for the County of Lanark at his office at Glasgow, commencing in the City of Glasgow at a point 35 yards, or thereabouts, west of the intersection of the centre line of Dock

Tramway No. 5 with the centre line of the diversion of Renfrew Road as shown on the said deposited plans, and terminating in the Burgh of Renfrew by a junction with Renfrew Road at a point 120 yards or thereabouts east of the Millburn Bridge, in substitution for that portion of the diversion of Renfrew Road and the tramways of the said Corporation thereon, commencing at the point first above mentioned and terminating by a junction with Renfrew Road at the east end of the bridge carrying that road over the Glasgow and Renfrew District Railway near Deanside Station.

The work above described, and the lands and other property which will or may require to be taken for the purposes thereof, will be situated in the City of Glasgow, the Burgh of Renfrew, the Parish of Govan, and the County of Lanark.

Notice is hereby also given that it is intended to construct the diversion of Renfrew Road accordingly.

The several powers and provisions of the Order applicable to the works therein described will be made to apply to the said alteration and to the additional plan and section and Book of Reference hereinafter referred to.

And Notice is hereby further given that an additional plan and section (in duplicate) of the said alteration and the lands and other properties which will or may be taken or used compulsorily or by agreement for the purposes thereof, with a Book of Reference to such plan containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands and other properties, together with a copy of this Notice as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection on or before the 8th day of May, 1914, with the Principal Sheriff-Clerk for the County of Lanark, at his office at Glasgow, and with the Town-Clerks of the City of Glasgow and the Burgh of Renfrew, at their offices at Glasgow and Renfrew, respectively; and that, on or before the same day, a copy of the said additional plan and section and the Book of Reference thereto, and a copy of the said Notice, will be deposited at the Parliament Office, House of Lords; the Private Bill Office, House of Commons; and the Office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London.

Dated this 30th day of April, 1914.
