HARBOURS TRANSFER ACT, 1862.

ADMIRALTY, S.W., June 2, 1914.

The following notice has been sent to the Board of Trade in accordance with section 9 of the Harbours Transfer Act, 1862.

By Command of Their Lordships :
O. MUNAY.

In the Matter of the Harbours Transfer Act 1862 (25 and 26 Vic. c. 69) and in the matter of His Majesty's Dockyard Port of Cromarty.

To the Lords of the Committee of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council appointed for the consideration of matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations.

Whereas it was by the above mentioned Act enacted in Section 8 that where any special or local, or local and personal Act, or Act of a local or local and personal nature, then already passed, or to be passed before the end of the then present Session of Parliament :—

- (1) Authorising or regulating the construction of a railway, or the execution of any work whatever, situate on or affecting tidal lands or the shore of the sea, or of any navigable river where, and so far up the same as the tide flows and reflows; or
- (2) Authorising or regulating the construction or improving of a Harbour, dock, or pier, or works connected therewith, by any company, body corporate, commissioners, trustees, undertakers, persons or person; or
- (3) Constituting or altering or regulating the constitution of any Harbour or conservancy authority; or
- (4) Altering or regulating the powers or duties of any harbour or conservancy authority : contains either expressly or by incorporation or reference or otherwise any provision for any of the purposes following :—

For preventing the construction or execution of any work or the doing of any thing without the consent or approval of the Admiralty, or for authorising or requiring any work to be constructed, executed or maintained, or any thing to be done with the consent or on the requisition or to the satisfaction of the Admiralty :

For empowering the Admiralty to exercise any authority concerning Lifeboats,

Mortars, Rockets, Tide Gauges, or Barometers to be provided by any undertakers :

For empowering the Admiralty to make a local survey or examination at the expense of any Company, body, or person :

For empowering the Admiralty, in case of any work being abandoned or suffered to fall into disuse or decay, or in any other case to abate, remove or alter any work or any part of it, or restore the site thereof to its former condition at the like expense :

For empowering the Admiralty to exercise any authority concerning lights to be maintained at night during the construction or execution of any work :

For empowering the Admiralty or the First Lord of the Admiralty to nominate or appoint a member or members of any Board or body of Trustees, Commissioners or Conservators, or of any Harbour or conservancy authority :

For empowering the Admiralty to determine any dispute or difference between or among any bodies or persons :

For empowering the Admiralty or the First Lord of the Admiralty to nominate or appoint any arbitrator, referee or umpire, or any engineer, inspector, or officer, or any person to fill any place or discharge any duty under such Act :

or any other provision for the protection, management or regulation of harbours or navigation, or for the exercise of any control or power over or in relation to any harbour authority, or any other provision in any wise relating to conservancy, or authorising or requiring any Act or thing concerning harbours or navigation or conservancy to be done by or in relation to the Admiralty,—

Then from and after the thirty-first day of December, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, such Acts and all Enactments relative thereto should be read and construed as if in the respective provisions aforesaid the Board of Trade were named instead of the Admiralty, and the President of the Board of Trade instead of the First Lord of the Admiralty :

And whereas in the same Act was contained a provision forming Section 9 whereby it was provided that where it appeared to the Admiralty that the interests of Her Majesty's Naval Service required that the whole or any part of any harbour, port, bay, estuary, or navigable river in, on, or adjoining to which there was or should be any of Her Majesty's Dockyards, victualling yards, steam factory yards, arsenals or naval stations should be excepted, either entirely or in some respects, out of the operation of the therein last foregoing section, meaning the said Section 8, the Admiralty might give notice in writing to the Board of Trade, that any such harbour, port, bay, estuary, or navigable river as aforesaid, or such part thereof as should be in the notice specified, was to be deemed so excepted, either entirely or in the respects therein mentioned; and that every such Notice should be published by the Admiralty in the London, Edinburgh or Dublin Gazette (according as the place affected might be in England, Scotland or Ireland) and that thereupon the harbour, port, bay, estuary, or navigable river to which such notice should relate or the part thereof therein specified should either entirely or in the respects therein mentioned as the case might require be and remain as if that Act had not been passed; but that any such notice might be from time to time varied or at any time revoked by a like notice published in like manner.

And whereas the Cromarty Firth has become a Dockyard Port within the meaning of the Dockyard Ports Regulation Act, 1865, and by an Order in Council made in pursuance of that Act and dated the nineteenth day of December, Nineteen hundred and thirteen, the limits of the Dockyard Port of Cromarty within the meaning of that Act were defined for the purpose of that Act as follows, viz. :—

All the waters of Cromarty Firth, including all the bays, creeks, lakes, pools and rivers, so far as the tide flows, and the waters of Moray Firth including all the bays, creeks, lakes, pools and rivers so far as the tide flows on the inner or landward side of the following limits :—

On the North a straight line drawn from the rock which dries 6 feet situated about 45 miles 190° (S. 29° W., magnetic) from Port an Righ to a position in Lat. 57° 42' 30" N., Long. 3° 52' W.

On the East a straight line drawn from a position Lat. 57° 42' 30" N., Long. 3° 52' W. to a position Lat. 57° 38' N., Long. 3° 57' W.

On the South so much of a straight line drawn from Navity Chimney to a position in Lat. 57° 38' N., Long. 3° 57' W. as lies to seaward of the coast.

And whereas it appears to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty that the interests of His Majesty's Naval Service require that the Dockyard Port of Cromarty as defined by the above Order in Council should be entirely excepted out of the operation of Section 8 of the Harbours Transfer Act, 1862.

Now, therefore, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do by this writing in pursuance of the Harbours Transfer Act, 1862, and by virtue and in exercise of the powers thereby vested in them, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, give you, the Lords of the Committee of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, appointed for the consideration of matters relating to trade and foreign plantations, notice,

That the Dockyard Port of Cromarty as defined by the said Order in Council is to be deemed entirely excepted out of the operation of Section 8 of the Harbours Transfer Act, 1862: Provided always and it is hereby expressly declared by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty that nothing in this notice shall be deemed to affect any estate, right, title, interest, prerogative, royalty, jurisdiction or authority of or belonging to His Majesty the King, His Heirs or successors, in right of His office of Admiral, or to affect any right, duty, power, jurisdiction or authority vested in or performed or exercised by or capable of being performed or exercised by the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom or the Commissioners for executing his office, otherwise than under or by virtue of any such provisions as aforesaid contained (either expressly or by incorporation or reference or otherwise) in any such special or local or local and personal Act or Acts of a local or local and personal nature (passed before the end of the session of Parliament of the 25th and 26th years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria) as in section 8 of the Harbours Transfer Act, 1862, is described, it being the true intent and object of this notice only to limit the operation of that section in pursuance of the power in that behalf reserved to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty in and by section 9 of the same Act, and not in anywise to abandon, abridge, restrict or define any right, duty, power, jurisdiction or authority belonging or attaching to the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom or the Commissioners for executing his office independently of any such provisions as aforesaid, all which rights, duties, powers, jurisdictions and authorities it is hereby expressly declared shall remain and be in all respects and to all intents and purposes whatsoever as if this notice had not been given.

Dated this 2nd day of June, 1914.

J. R. JELlicoe,

A. G. H. W. MOORE,

Two of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.
