TENDERS FOR LOANS ON TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, on Tuesday the 16th June, at one o'clock, for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Acts 40 Vict., cap. 2, and 52 Vict., cap. 6, to the amount of £1,000,000, in part replacement of Bills falling due on the 20th instant.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £1000, £5000, or £10,000. They will be dated the 20th June 1914, and will be payable at six months after date, viz., on the 20th December 1914.

3. The Tenders must specify the net amount per cent. which will be given for the amounts applied for, and the Tenders of private individuals must be made through a London Banker.

4. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

5. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same on Wednesday the 17th inst., and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England not later than twelve o'clock on Saturday the 20th June 1914.

6. Persons tendering for Bills are hereby notified that, having regard to the provisions of the Acts 22 George III., cap. 45, and 41 George III., cap. 52, the acceptance of any such Tender is subject to the express condition that no Member of the House of Commons shall be admitted to any share or part in or to any benefit to arise from the contract thereby made for the allotment of such Bills.

The provisions in question do not apply to contracts entered into by an incorporated trading company in its corporate capacity and made for the general benefit of the company.

7. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

BURGH OF LESLIE.

AN Initial Writ has been presented to the Sheriff of Ayr and Kinross at Kirkcaldy, by the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Leslie, in which they crave the Court—

1. To revise, alter, and extend the Boundaries of the said Burgh for the purposes of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Acts and the Town Councils (Scotland) Acts, and to define in a written Deliverance the new Boundaries of the said Burgh in manner following, viz.:—Commencing on the north side of the Path leading from the High Street of the old Town of Leslie to Rothes West Lodge at a point where the southwest corner of the

Manse garden abuts on the said path along the south and east walls of said garden around the east and north sides of the Manse outhouses, then along the east dyke of the Church Yard to the Common and along the extreme boundary of the Common till it reaches the point marked Z on the plan produced, thence northwestwards to the public road leading to Ballinbreich Terrace, then along the east side of said road to a point immediately opposite to the southeast corner of the feus called Ballinbreich Terrace, thence across said public road and along the southwest wall of said feus to the northwest corner, then northwest by the barbed wire fence to a point in the middle of the field, then southwestwards by the fence on the ridge to the footpath leading to Balsillie Farm, then southeastwards by the fence on the north side of the footpath, then south by the fence to the northeast corner of the whinstone wall at the Slaughter House Feu belonging to Pursuers, then westward along the said last-mentioned wall to the northwest corner thereof, then southward till it meets the Common, then along the north side of the Common, thence along the north boundary wall of the Croft and Maryfield till it reaches the northwest corner of Maryfield, then along the west south west, north north west and west south west wall of Maryfield till it reaches the north side of the public road leading from Leslie to Auchmuir Bridge at a point opposite the western boundary wall of Trinity United Free Church Manse, thence westwards along the north side of said public road to a point opposite the western boundary wall of Bank Place, then crossing the said public road and thereafter proceeding southward along said western boundary wall and eastward along the southern boundary wall of Bank Place till it reaches the wall bounding the property of the School Board of Leslie on the west, thence southwards along said boundary wall of the School Board property till it reaches the northmost pillar at the entrance to Prinlows, thence eastwards across the north entrance to Station Road till it reaches the west boundary wall of the property of Henry Mitchell, thence southward along said last-mentioned west boundary wall till it meets the field called Cabbagehall, thence westward along the north boundary wall of the said field till it reaches the east side of Station Road, thence southwards along the east side of Station Road, then along the west and south boundaries of said field called Cabbagehall till it reaches the public road leading from Leslie to Kinglassie, thence crossing the said public road at a point opposite the Fettykil Road and thereafter along the south boundary of the field known as Fluthers until it reaches the southeast corner of said field and thereafter along the boundary between the lands of Fettykil and the south boundaries of the feus on the south side of the New Town and Old Town of Leslie eastward to the road leading down to Tamswell Baulk, across and down the said road straight to the old Paper Mill Lade and along the Lade to the River Leven, thence along the north side of the River Leven to the boundary of the Rothies Estate and along the boundary northward till it reaches the dwelling houses on the south side of the High Street of Leslie at the extreme east end thereof, thence along the east side of said houses till the foresaid boundary reaches the High Street, thence eastward along the south side of the High Street of the Old Town of Leslie till it reaches a point immediately opposite to the point of the path first above mentioned, and thence crossing the said path to the said point first above mentioned; and (2) to find and declare that the whole expenses incurred by the Pursuers and by the Court in carrying out the proceedings hereunder shall be defrayed out of the Burgh General Assessment to be levied within said Burgh in terms of the said Acts.

On which Initial Writ the Sheriff has been pleased to pronounce the following Deliverance, viz. :—

Kirkcaldy, 5th June 1914.—The Sheriff appoints intimation of the foregoing Petition and of the boundaries proposed for the revised, altered, and extended boundaries of the said Burgh as set forth therein, and of this Deliverance, to be given by advertisement once in each of the Edinburgh Gazette and People's Journal newspaper, and also by handbills to be posted within the Burgh and also within the area proposed to be included within the said revised and extended boundaries; and directs all persons desiring to oppose the prayer of the said Writ or desiring to be heard in connection therewith, to lodge a Notice of Compareance in the hands of the Clerk of Court at Kirkcaldy within ten days from the latest date of intimation; appoints the plan referred to in the said Writ to remain in the hands of the said Clerk of Court for inspection; further, remits to Mr. G. C. Brown, Assessor, Cupar, to ascertain the approximate number of the population within the present boundaries of the said Burgh and within the areas proposed to be included, and to report.

(Signed) JAMES A. FLEMING.

Of all which Intimation is hereby given.

GEO. WILKIE, Solicitor, Leslie, Agent for Pursuers.

NOTICE is hereby given that an Initial Writ has been presented in the Sheriff Court of the Sheriffdom of Fife and Kinross at Dunfermline, at the instance of the Parish Council of the Parish of Culross, in the County of Fife, Pursuers, against the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Royal Burgh of Culross, in said County, Defenders; in which the Pursuers crave the Court, after such notice by advertisement as the Court shall deem fitting, and after hearing any parties having interest, if they appear, to find and determine that the Parish of Culross shall be held to be a Parish outwith the limits of the Burgh of Culross for the purposes of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855; and to find the Defenders or any other person or persons appearing to oppose the granting of the Decree craved liable in expenses, and to decern therefor, but that only in the event of their appearing and opposing:

And that the Sheriff-Substitute has pronounced the following Deliverance thereon, viz. :—

"Dunfermline, 8th June 1914.—The Sheriff-Substitute having considered the foregoing Writ, appoints intimation of the import thereof and of this Deliverance to be made by serving a copy thereof upon the Defenders the Burgh of Culross, in the hands of their Clerk, and also by advertisement in the Edinburgh Gazette and in the Dunfermline Journal and Dunfermline Press newspapers, calling on all parties interested to appear and be heard thereon before the Sheriff-Substitute, within the Sheriff Court Room, Dunfermline, on Monday the 29th day of June 1914, at eleven o'clock forenoon, under certification.

(Signed) "FRAN. A. UMPHERSTON."

Of all which Intimation is hereby made; and all parties interested are hereby called upon to appear and be heard at the time and place specified, under certification, in terms of the above quoted Deliverance.

PETER M. CONNELL, Solicitor, Guildhall Chambers, Dunfermline, Agent for the Pursuers.

Local Government (Scotland) Acts, 1894–1908.

Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897.

COUNTY OF ROXBURGH.—MELROSE DISTRICT.

EXTENSION OF SPECIAL WATER SUPPLY, DRAINAGE, AND LIGHTING AND SCAVENGING DISTRICT.

GATTONSIDE.

NOTICE is hereby given that on the 4th day of May 1914 the Melrose District Committee of the County Council of the County of Roxburgh, as Local Authority under the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, within the Melrose District of the said County, having met after twenty-one days' notification given in the Edinburgh Gazette and local newspapers circulating in the District, and considered the propriety of extending the Gattonside Special Water, Drainage, Lighting and Scavenging District, resolved to extend the same so as to include Gattonside House Policy and Parks as shown by a line coloured blue on the Ordnance Survey sheet (First Edition 1861), signed by the Chairman as relative to said Resolution, which blue line commences at the present boundary of said Special District, at the north-west corner of the said Gattonside House property, and runs southeastwards to the River Tweed along the boundary between the said Gattonside House property and the Pavilion Estate, and then runs down the River Tweed till it again reaches the present boundary—the extension to take effect (subject to the consent of the County Council as regards Lighting and Scavenging purposes, and which consent was given on 5th May) as from the 15th May 1914, and the additional area so included to become liable for the existing Water and Drainage debt as fully in all respects as the original District.

The full terms of the Resolution and a plan showing the boundaries of the Special Water, Drainage, Lighting and Scavenging District as now enlarged may be seen at the Office of the District Clerk.

Any person interested may appeal to the Sheriff of the County of Roxburgh within twenty-one days of this date.

By Order of the Melrose District Committee.

A. MURISON SMALL, W.S., District Clerk.

Melrose, 12th June 1914.
