NOTICE.

A WRIT has been presented in the Sheriff Court of Fife and Kinross at Cupar, by the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Leven, praying the Court to extend the Boundaries of the Burgh of LEVEN, as to include therein (First) that piece of ground extending to 8.598 acres or thereby, situated to the South West of said Burgh, comprising inter alia the ground upon which are situated the Wemyss Saw, Planing, and Moulding Mills, part of Durie Foundry, part of the North British Railway Company's Goods Railway between Leven and Methil, and part of Leven Dock Branch of the North British Railway; (Second) that area of ground comprising inter alia the site of Leven Dock, part of said Goods Railway and Leven Dock Branch Railway, and ground to the West thereof; and (Third) that area of ground situated at the North East of said Burgh immediately to the South of the Leven and East of Fife Railway and to the East of Scoonie Burn, comprising dwelling houses, garden ground, roads, &c. A plan showing the proposed boundaries of the extended Burgh may be seen in the hands of the Clerk of Court, Sheriff Court Buildings, Cupar. Prints showing in detail the boundaries of the extended Burgh may be had on application to Alex. C. Dewar, Town Clerk, Leven. The Sheriff, on 25th June 1914 issued a Deliverance upon said Writ, appointing intimation thereof, and of the boundaries proposed for the altered and extended boundaries of the said Burgh, and of said Deliverance, to be given by advertisement in the Edinburgh Gazette and Leven Advertiser newspaper, and also by hand bills posted within the Burgh, and also within the areas proposed to be included within the said extended boundaries. He further appointed a copy of said Writ and Deliverance to be served on the Clerk to the County Council of Fife, and directed all parties desiring to oppose the prayer of said Writ or to be heard in relation thereto, to lodge a Notice of Appearance in the hands of the Clerk of Court at Cupar within seven days from the latest date of intimation. He also appointed the Plan above referred to, to remain in the hands of the Clerk of Court for inspection until further orders. Of all which Notice is hereby given.
