FRIDAY, JULY 24, 1914.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of July 1914.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 24th day of June 1914, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas we have had under our consideration the payment of extra pay to men of the Royal Marines employed with soldiers of the garrison as acting garrison Military Police at Plymouth, Devonport, Stonehouse, Portsmouth, and Chatham :

“And whereas we are of opinion that these payments should be made on a more uniform system than at present, and at the same rates as are prescribed for soldiers :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the payment to Royal Marines employed as Military Police of the difference between their ordinary pay, including efficiency allowance, and the pay of the corresponding ranks in the Military Police, these extra rates to continue to be paid from Army funds :

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
