

"3. That the number of Good Service Pensions for Colonels and Lieutenant-Colonels, Royal Marines, should be gradually increased to 4, and that future holders of such Pensions should vacate them on retirement and receive no addition to retired pay on account of them.

"4. That three Good Service Pensions of £100 a year each should be established for Accountant Officers, Royal Navy.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of July 1914.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 10th day of July 1914, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas the Officers, Royal Marines, in command of the Royal Marine Garrison at Cromarty, and acting as Adjutant and Gunnery Instructor to the Garrison respectively, are required to perform special duties which in our opinion should be recognised by the grant of allowances in addition to their other emoluments :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the grant of Command Money at the rate of £100 a year to the Officer Commanding the Garrison at Cromarty, and of a special allowance at the rate of 3s. 6d. a day to the Officer acting as Adjutant and Gunnery Instructor, with retrospective effect in each case as from the date on which the Officer commenced duty.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
