

Edinburgh Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FROM FRIDAY, AUGUST 30. TO TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3. 1805.

WHITEHALL, AUG. 31. 1805.

On the morning of Wednesday next, the 4th of September, the remains of his late Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester will be removed from Gloucester-House to Windsor, where they will be privately interred in the vault built by order of his Royal Highness, for himself and family, in the choir near the Sovereign's Stall, within the Royal Chapel of St George; in which vault the remains of her late Highness the Princess Caroline Augusta Maria, youngest daughter of his Royal Highness, were deposited on the 22d of March 1775.

AUGUST 26, 1805.

The King has been pleased to grant unto John Stuart, Earl of Dumfries, grandson and heir apparent of John Marquis of Bute, his royal licence and authority, that he may assume, take, and use the surname of Crichton, in addition to, and before that of Stuart, and bear the arms of Crichton quarterly with the arms of Stuart, pursuant to the proviso and condition expressed in a deed of tailzie of his Great Great-Uncle William, some time Earl of Dumfries and Stair, deceased, bearing date the 14th day of December 1765; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office.

And also to order, that this his Majesty's concession and declaration be registered in his College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, AUG. 31.

Copy of a letter from the Hon. William Cornwallis, Admiral of the White, &c. to William Marfden, Esq. dated on board his Majesty's ship Ville de Paris, off Jfant, the 24th instant.

Sir,

I have the honour to send to you, to be communicated to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a copy of information received by the Dragon, which ship joined me yesterday.

I have particular pleasure in sending their Lordships that part of the account in which the gallant conduct of Captain Baker, of the Phoenix, is so conspicuous in taking the Didon French frigate of superior force, so much to his honour, and that of his officers and men, who must have seconded him in the most spirited manner upon that occasion.

I have the honour to be, &c.

W. CORNWALLIS.

Monday, August 13. Cape Ortegal bearing about East-south east, fifteen or sixteen leagues, fell in with his Majesty's ship Phoenix, having a dismasted French frigate in tow, which she had captured on the 10th inst. in lat. 43. deg. 16. min. N. long. 12 deg. 14. min. W. after a severe action of three hours.

The name of the French frigate is the Didon, of 44 guns and 300 men. She was detached from the combined squadrons a few hours after their arrival at Corunna, and was cruising when the Phoenix fell in with her.

(Signed) EDW. GRIFFITHS.
