EXTRA GLASGOW CIRCUIT.
FEBRUARY 1915.

TUESDAY, 23rd February 1915, at Half-past Ten o'clock.

The Hon. LORD SALVESEN and
The Hon. LORD DEWAR.

WILLIAM MITCHELL, Esq., Advocate-Depute.
Messrs. GEORGE A. SLIGHT and ALEXANDER RAE,
Clerks.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of January 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 2nd day of January 1915, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas in Article 168 of the Regulations for the government of Your Majesty's Naval Service it is laid down that the Officers of Your Majesty's Navy are to be divided into six branches, viz. — Military, Engineer, Medical, Accountant, Naval Instructor, and Artisan :

“And whereas we are of opinion that it is desirable in the interests of Your Majesty's Naval Service that the Officers of the Engineer Branch should now be classified as part of the Military Branch, and, further, that certain alterations should be made in the rates of pay of Engineer Commanders and Engineer Lieutenant-Commanders of Your Majesty's Fleet :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to approve of the Regulations set forth in the annexed Schedule, to take effect from the 1st day of January 1915.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals in so far as the pay of the Officers is concerned.

“SCHEDULE.

“1.—From the 1st day of January 1915, Officers of His Majesty's Navy will be divided into five Branches, namely Military, Medical, Accountant, Naval Instructor, and Artisan.

“2.—Officers of the existing Engineer Branch, although forming part of the Military Branch, will retain their present titles.

“In all details relating to the duties of the Fleet and to the discipline and interior economy of His Majesty's Ships they will be subject to the authority of any Officer who may be in charge of the Executive duties of the Ship, or acting as Officer of the Watch, or specially detailed for the charge of any other special service or duty, of whatever seniority such Officer may be.

"3.—The following revised rates of pay to take effect for Engineer Commanders and Engineer Lieutenant-Commanders as specified :—

		Pay per diem.
		£	s.	d.
"Engineer Commander and Engineer Lieutenant- Commander after 4 years from date of promotion to Engineer Lieutenant-Com- mander ... ..	...	1	0	0
	...	...	...	...
	...	...	...	...
"Engineer Commander and Engineer Lieutenant- Commander after 6 years from date of promotion to Engineer Lieutenant-Com- mander ... ..	...	1	2	0"
	...	...	...	...

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of January 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 21st day of December 1914, in the words following, viz :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas Your Majesty, by Your Order in Council bearing date the 16th day of July 1914, was pleased to sanction the revision in certain respects of the provisional arrangements for the emoluments of Officers and others serving in the Naval Wing of the Royal Flying Corps sanctioned by Your Order in Council bearing date the 19th day of July 1912 :

"And whereas we are of opinion that these arrangements require additions in certain further respects :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased to sanction the following proposals regarding the counting of time for increase of pay, etc., for pension of men entered in the Royal Naval Air Service :

"(1) The active service of all ratings in the Royal Naval Air Service whether they are lent from the Active List of the Royal Navy or entered direct under special engagement for a period of service in the Royal Naval Air Service to be followed by service in the Royal Fleet Reserve (Air Service Section), to count as continuous service for all purposes :

"(2) Men lent from the Active List of the Royal Navy to the Royal Naval Air Service to count their active service in the Royal Naval Air Service for pension and gratuity either in their Naval rating or their Air Service grade, whichever is the more advantageous to them :

"(3) The time served in the Royal Naval Air Service by men lent from the Active List to count, on reverting to the general service, towards increase of pay in the general service rating held during the period :

"(4) Men transferred from the Military Wing, Royal Flying Corps, to the Royal Naval Air Service in no case to receive pensions less than those which equivalent ranks in the Military Wing, Royal Flying Corps, are allowed.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of January 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 2nd day of January 1915, in the words following, viz :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas we have found it necessary to employ temporarily in Your Majesty's Navy certain retired Officers of Your Majesty's Indian Marine Force, and certain Officers who resigned from that force :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the grant to such

Officers temporarily employed of pay and allowances from Imperial Funds as follows :—

"Retired Officers, Royal Indian Marine."

"Pay and allowances at the Naval rates applicable to their temporary rank in the Royal Navy, to be paid concurrently with their Indian pensions :

"Other Officers, late Royal Indian Marine."

"Pay and allowances at the Naval rates applicable to their temporary rank in the Royal Navy, plus 25 per cent. bonus on full pay excluding allowances :
such pay to take effect as from the 1st September 1914.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of January 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Chamberlain.
Sir Maurice de Bunsen.
Sir Frederick Ponsonby.

WHEREAS by the Medical Act, 1886, it is provided (amongst other things) that His Majesty may, from time to time, by Order in Council, declare that the Second Part of the said Act shall be deemed, on and after a day to be named in such Order, to apply to any Foreign Country which in His Majesty's opinion affords to the medical practitioners of the United Kingdom such privileges of practising in the said Foreign Country as to His Majesty may seem just, and from and after the day named in such Order in Council such Foreign Country shall be deemed to be a Foreign Country to which the said Act applies, within the meaning of the Second Part thereof, and that until such Order in Council has been made in respect of any Foreign Country the said Second Part of the said Act shall not be deemed to apply to any such Country.

And whereas the Kingdom of Belgium affords, in His Majesty's opinion, to the registered medical practitioners of the United Kingdom such privileges of practising in Belgium as to His Majesty seems just, during the continuance of the present War.

Now, therefore, His Majesty doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, direct, and declare that the Second Part of the Medical Act, 1886, shall be deemed, from the date of this Order, to apply to the Kingdom of Belgium, until it is otherwise ordered.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of January 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Chamberlain.
Sir Maurice de Bunsen.
Sir Frederick Ponsonby.

WHEREAS by the Isle of Man (War Legislation) Act, 1914, His Majesty has power to extend to the Isle of Man any Act which, in the opinion of His Majesty, was passed for the purpose of meeting any Emergency created by the present War, subject to adaptations for the purpose of making the Act applicable to the Isle of Man :

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Trading with the Enemy Act, 1914 (hereinafter called the Principal Act), and the Trading with the Enemy Amendment Act, 1914 (hereinafter called the Amending Act), shall extend to the Isle of Man, subject to the following adaptations, that is to say :—

1. For the words "under the Summary Jurisdiction Acts," wherever they occur in such Acts, there shall be substituted the words "before a High Bailiff or two Justices of the Peace"; and for the words "a Secretary of State or the Board of Trade," "the Board of Trade," or "the Board," wherever they occur in such Acts, the words "the Lieutenant-Governor."

2. In section 1 (1) (b) of the Principal Act after the word "indictment" there shall be read the words "or information."

For section 4 of the Principal Act there shall be substituted the following provision :—

"4.—(1) This Act may be cited as 'The Trading with the Enemy (Isle of Man) Act, 1914.'

"(2) In this Act, the expression 'Justice' shall include a High Bailiff, and the expression 'High Court' shall mean the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice of the Isle of Man."

3. In subsection (2) of section 3; subsections (2) and (5) of section 8; and subsection (2) of section 10, of the amending Act, for the words "United Kingdom," wherever they occur, there shall be substituted the words "Isle of Man."

In section 4 (1) of the amending Act, for the words "any Government Department" there shall be substituted the words "the Attorney-General."

In section 4 (3) of the amending Act, for the figures "1893" there shall be substituted "1903."

For subsection (5) of section 5 of the amending Act, there shall be substituted the following provision :—

"The Judges of the High Court of Justice of the Isle of Man may, by rules, make provision for the practice and procedure to be adopted for the purposes of this and the last preceding section."

The statutory declaration referred to in section 9 (1) (a) of the amending Act may be made by an Advocate in the Isle of Man.

For section 14 (1) of the amending Act there shall be substituted the following provision:—

"14.—(1) This Act may be cited as 'The Trading with the Enemy Amendment (Isle of Man) Act, 1914,' and shall be construed as one with the Principal Act."

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of January 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Chamberlain.
Sir Maurice de Bunsen.
Sir Frederick Ponsonby.

WHEREAS by the Isle of Man (War Legislation) Act, 1914, His Majesty has power to extend to the Isle of Man any Act which, in the opinion of His Majesty, was passed for the purpose of meeting any emergency created by the present War, subject to adaptations for the purpose of making the Act applicable to the Isle of Man:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks (Temporary Rules) Acts, 1914, and any Rules which have been issued by His Majesty thereunder, shall extend to the Isle of Man.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

No. 16 of the year 1915.

UNITED KINGDOM.

Pilotage stations established at certain Ports on account of defensive Minefields.

Former Notice.—No. 1781 of 1914; hereby cancelled.

With reference to the extension of the system of Mine defence, notice is hereby given that Pilotage is now compulsory at the following ports for all vessels (including fishing vessels) which have a draught of over eight feet, and that it is highly dangerous for any vessel to enter or leave such ports without a pilot. Fishing and other small vessels having a draught of over eight feet are to assemble at the Pilotage stations and will be conducted into and out of port in groups.

(1) FIRTH OF FORTH.—All incoming vessels must call for a pilot at a station established on the Isle of May.

Outgoing vessels are to discharge their pilots at the same station.

It is dangerous for any vessel to be under way to the westward of the Isle of May without a pilot.

(2) MORAY FIRTH.—All vessels bound to Cromarty or Inverness must call for a pilot at Wick or Burghead.

Outgoing vessels are to discharge their pilots at one or the other of these places.

It is dangerous for any vessel to be under way to the south-westward of a line joining Findhorn and Tarbetness without a pilot.

(3) SCAPA FLOW.—All entrances are dangerous.

Examination services have been established in the entrances to Hoxa and Hoy sounds: vessels wishing to enter must communicate with the Examination vessel and follow the instructions received from her very carefully.

The only vessels permitted to enter Hoy sound from the westward are those bound for Stromness: vessels cannot enter Scapa Flow from Stromness.

Note. — RIVER HUMBER. — The Pilot station, formerly established seven miles E.S.E. (Mag.), from Spurn point, has now been withdrawn.

Authority. — The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

By Command of their Lordships,

J. F. PARRY,
Hydrographer.

A PETITION has been presented to the Lords of Council and Session (Second Division,—Mr. Antonio, Clerk) by the above-named Company, praying their Lordships inter alia to make an Order confirming the reduction of the Capital of the said Company, resolved on by the following Special Resolution of the Company, passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company held on the 18th day of December 1914, and confirmed at a subsequent Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company held on 5th January 1915, viz. :—

"That the capital of the Company be reduced from £18,000, divided into 3000 cumulative preference shares of £1 each, whereof 1880 shares numbered 1 to 1880 inclusive have been issued, and 15,000 ordinary shares of £1 each, whereof

"3189 shares numbered 1 to 3189 inclusive have been issued, to £15,000, to be divided into 1500 ordinary shares of £1 each, and that such reduction be effected by returning to the holders of the 1880 cumulative preference shares that have been issued paid-up capital to the extent of £1 per share, and by cancelling the 1120 cumulative preference shares which are unissued; and that the Board be authorised to take all steps which may be necessary for carrying such reduction into effect."

In the said Petition their Lordships have been pleased to pronounce the following Interlocutor :—

"Edinburgh, 9th January 1915.—The Lords appoint the Petition to be intimated on the Walls and in the Minute-Book in common form, to be advertised once in the Edinburgh Gazette and once in each of the Scotsman and Glasgow Herald newspapers; allow all persons interested to lodge Answers, if so advised, within eight days after such intimation and advertisements; and meantime, and during the dependence of the present application, dispense with the addition of the words 'and reduced' as an addition to the name of the Company."
